A Shocking Accident.
Jettie Thompson, aged nineteen, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Thompson, was instantly killed Wednesday afternoon by the accidental discharge of a shot gun in the hands of her father. The particulars of the shocking accident as near as can be ascertained are as follows:

After dinner Mr. Thompson, accompanied by Jettie and the baby, drove over south of the river, taking with him his gun with the expectation of getting a shot at prairie chickens. When several miles southwest of town the dog raised a covey of birds and Mr. Thompson jumped out of the buggy, but by the time he got a shell in the gun the birds were out of shooting distance. Mr. Thompson was standing close in the rear of the buggy and Jettie was leaning her head over the side talking to him. In the attempt to "break" the gun to remove the shell preparatory to getting back in the buggy, the shell exploded and the charge struck Jettie in the neck below the ear, tearing a hole nearly two inches in diameter clear through her neck.

As the shell exploded, the horse started to run with Mr. Thompson following as rapidly as possible. After running a mile a jolt of the buggy threw out the baby. Picking up the child Mr. Thompson continued his chase after the horse, which was later stopped by Mr. Wyman. Upon arriving at the buggy Mr. Thompson found Jettie dead, death being instant with the entrance of the charge. The body was at once brought to town.

Mrs. Thompson who had been visiting in Omaha and arrived home on the evening train had been in the house but a few minutes when the body of her daughter was brought in. The mother and father are almost crazed with grief, but their sad affliction is being relieved as far as possible by the sympathy and assistance of friends.

Jettie Thompson was a very sweet and lovable girl, and one in whom the parents took just pride. She had lived in the city all her life, was known by nearly every one, and held in very high esteem by reason of her kindly disposition and friendly acts. That her end should come in such a shocking manner is an awful blow, not only to the family but to all friends and acquaintances. To the sorrow stricken family the deepest and most heartfelt sympathy of the entire populace goes forth.

Brown-Neir.

The Neir residence in the Second ward was the scene of a very pretty wedding Tuesday evening. Miss Ida Leona Neir and Albert Brown being the contracting parties. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Beecher in the presence of relatives and intimate friends. The bride was attended by Miss Ione Neir and Howard R. McMichael acted as best man. The rooms were decorated with plants and cut flowers and presented a very pretty appearance. Following the ceremony a dainty lunch was served.

The bride is a popular young lady who has made her home in this city for several years and has won the esteem and friendship of all who know her. Mr. Brown, who is in the employ of the Union Pacific as fireman, is a North Platte boy and is well and favorably known to most of our citizens. Mr. and Mrs. Brown left on the midnight train for Denver where they will spend some time.

To Members of the Choral Class.

The committee appointed to make arrangements for securing suitable places for holding choral class meetings have secured the use of the following churches for the following dates: Presbyterian church October 28th, 29th and 30th; Episcopal church November 4th, 5th and 6th; Methodist church November 11th, 12th and 13th; Lutheran church November 18th, 19th and 20th. The places for holding subsequent meetings will be announced later.

It will be noticed that the meeting next Monday evening will be at the Presbyterian church, and not at the Lutheran, as previously announced.
