

LEGAL NOTICES.

Legal Notice. The defendants James Woolworth, (Impleaded with Ira Schoolcraft, et al.) will take notice that on the 15th day of April, 1901, the plaintiff, The County of Lincoln, a corporation, filed its petition in the district court of Lincoln county, Nebraska, the object and prayer of which is to foreclose certain tax liens duly assessed by said plaintiff against the southwest quarter of section 17, in township 11, north of range 31, west of Sixth principal meridian, Nebraska, for the year 1896 in the sum of $20.85; for the year 1897 in the sum of 9.79; for the year 1898 in the sum 6.01; for the year 1899 in the sum of 4.49; amounting in the total sum of $41.14; with interest on the sum of $41.14 at the rate of ten per cent per annum from the first day of April, 1901, all of which is due and unpaid.

Plaintiff prays a decree of foreclosure of said tax lien and a sale of said premises. You and each of you defendants are required to answer said petition on or before Monday, the 25th day of Nov. 1901. THE COUNTY OF LINCOLN, A Corporation, By H. S. Ridgely, its Atty.

Legal Notice. The defendants George M. Wilson, Mrs. George M. Wilson his wife first real name unknown, and Richard Roe whose real name is James Teel, will take notice that on the 5th day of August, 1901, the plaintiff, The County of Lincoln, a corporation, filed its petition in the district court of Lincoln county, Nebraska, the object and prayer of which is to foreclose certain tax liens duly assessed by said plaintiff against the southwest quarter of section 24, in township 9, north of range 28, west of Sixth principal meridian, Nebraska, for the year 1896 in the sum of 18.47; for the year 1897 in the sum of 10.82; for the year 1898 in the sum of 6.44; for the year 1899 in the sum of $6.82; for the year 1900 in the sum of 5.14; amounting in the total sum of $49.69; with interest on the sum of $49.69 at the rate of ten per cent per annum from the 1st day of August, 1901, all of which is due and unpaid.

Plaintiff prays a decree of foreclosure of said tax lien and a sale of said premises. You and each of you defendants are required to answer said petition on or before Monday, the 25th day of Nov., 1901. THE COUNTY OF LINCOLN, A Corporation, By H. S. Ridgely, its Atty.

Legal Notice. The defendants, Caroline Beers, — Beers her husband first real name unknown, and Richard Roe real name unknown will take notice that on the 5th day of August, 1901, the plaintiff, The County of Lincoln, a corporation, filed its petition in the district court of Lincoln county, Nebraska, the object and prayer of which is to foreclose certain tax liens duly assessed by said plaintiff against the east half southeast quarter of section 31, in township 9, north of range 27, west of Sixth principal meridian, Nebraska, for the year 1896 in the sum of $8.33; for the year 1897 in the sum of 6.73; for the year 1898 in the sum of 6.12; for the year 1899 in the sum of 5.73; for the year 1900 in the sum of 3.71; amounting in the total sum of 30.62; with interest on the sum of $24.01 at the rate of ten per cent per annum from the 1st day of August, 1901, all of which is due and unpaid.

Plaintiff prays a decree of foreclosure of said tax lien and a sale of said premises. You and each of you defendants are required to answer said petition on or before Monday, the 25th day of Nov. 1901. THE COUNTY OF LINCOLN, A Corporation, By H. S. Ridgely, its Attorney.

Legal Notice. The defendants D. W. Ellis first real name unknown (Impleaded with the estate of Luther A. Weathers deceased, et al.) will take notice that on the 5th day of August, 1901, the plaintiff The County of Lincoln, a corporation, filed its petition in the district court of Lincoln county, Nebraska, the object and prayer of which are to foreclose certain tax liens, duly assessed by said plaintiff against the southeast quarter of section 27, township 9, north of range 28, west of Sixth principal meridian, Nebraska, for the year 1893 in the sum of 24.64; for the year 1894 in the sum of 24.09; for the year 1895 in the sum of 20.28; for the year 1896 in the sum of 44.27; for the year 1897 in the sum of 19.98; for the year 1898 in the sum of 15.31; for the year 1899 in the sum of 13.46; for the year 1900 in the sum of 87.46; amounting in the total sum of $170.09; with interest on the sum of $119.63 at the rate of ten per cent per annum from the first day of August, 1901 all of which is due and unpaid.

Plaintiff prays a decree of foreclosure of said tax lien and a sale of said premises. You and each of you defendants are required to answer said petition on or before Monday, the 25th day of Nov., 1901. THE COUNTY OF LINCOLN, A Corporation, By H. S. Ridgely, its Attorney.

Legal Notice. The defendants, Jacob H. Fredericks, Mrs. Jacob H. Fredericks his wife first real name unknown, James E. Lane and John Doe, real name unknown will take notice that on the 15th day of April, 1901, the plaintiff, The County of Lincoln, a corporation, filed its petition in the District Court of Lincoln County, Nebraska, the object and prayer of which is to foreclose certain tax liens, duly assessed by said plaintiff against the east half of the northwest quarter and the east half of the southwest quarter of section 24, in township 12, north of range 32, west of Sixth principal meridian, Nebraska, for the year 1894 in the sum of $8.96; for the year 1895, in the sum of 3.38; for the year 1896, in the sum of 10.44; for the year 1897, in the sum of 5.55; for the year 1898, in the sum of 5.32; for the year 1899, in the sum of 3.88; amounting in the total sum of $31.43; with interest on the sum of $31.34, at the rate of ten per cent per annum from the 1st day of April, 1901, all of which is due and unpaid.

Plaintiff prays a decree of foreclosure of said tax liens and a sale of said premises. You and each of you defendants are required to answer said petition on or before Monday, the 25th day of Nov., 1901. THE COUNTY OF LINCOLN, A Corporation, By H. S. Ridgely, its Atty.

JOSEPH HERSHEY,

DEALER IN

Farm Implements, Buggies, Wagons, Windmills, Pumps,

WINDMILLS & PUMPS PIPES AND FITTINGS BARB WIRE

ROUND AND HALF ROUND STOCK TANKS

LOCUST STREET, NORTH PLATTE, NEB.

Don't Look

Down in the Mouth

Because winter is coming on. Buy a good stove and be comfortable ACORN and ROUND OAK stoves are the best Heaters made. ACORN Cook Stoves and Ranges, are sold on their merits only, no cooking exhibition required.

A. L. DAVIS, THE HARDWARE MAN

BLACKLEG IN CATTLE

is prevented by vaccination before the germ of the disease has entered the system. The success of vaccination depends upon proper dosage. Too large a dose will produce the disease while too small a dose will not render the animal immune. This problem is solved by Parke, Davis & Co. in their new vaccine in pill form which is injected through the skin. No mixing, filtering or time wasted and you don't have to spend a fortune to vaccinate your cattle. P. D. Co. book, "Blackleg and its Treatment," free

THE NORTH PLATTE PHARMACY

Next door to First Natl. Bank. J. H. STONE, Mgr

JOHN BRATT. JOHN BRATT & CO.. E. R. GOODMAN.

Real Estate, Loans and Insurance

NORTH PLATTE, NEBRASKA. Reference—Any Bank in Nebraska.

THE Five Cent Cigar IN BEST TOWN AT SCHMALZRIED'S.

North Platte Flour

Manufactured by North Platte Roller Mills

Used by economical housewives in fifty towns in Nebraska and Wyoming and pronounced the equal of any flour manufactured in Nebraska.

A Trial Sack will Convince you of its Merit North Platte Roller Mills C. F. IDDINGS

When You Buy Paint Buy Good Paint....

And that means SHERWIN & WILLIAMS' PAINT. We have been handling this make for many years and have found that it gives excellent satisfaction in every instance. It may cost a trifle more per gallon than inferior paints, but it's cheapest in the end. It sticks and holds its color longer than other paint. We can furnish you any color or quantity.

A. F. Streitz, Druggist.

THOUGHTS OF WISE MEN.

The first thing to be done in conducting the understanding is precisely the same as in conducting the body—to give it regular and copious supplies of food to prevent atrophy and marasmus of mind which comes on from giving it no new ideas.—Sydney Smith.

Without the resolution in your heart to do good work so long as your right hands have motion in them, and to do it whether the issue be that you die or live, no life worthy the name will ever be possible to you, while, in once forming the resolution that your work is to be well done, life is really won, here and forever.—Ruskin.

The manliest attitude a man can take, whether he is still rejoicing in his youth or getting into years, is that attitude of awe and reverence which befits a man confronted by the facts of our habitual experience, that attitude of dedicated will which, for so much received, pledges the best that it can give.—John W. Chadwick.

We have all seen a literal fire pale and dwindle under strong sunshine, but, when screened off into comparative darkness, regain color and recover strength. Thus sunshine of earthly happiness may easily prove too exhausting for some souls. And then it will be the good hand of our God upon them which sends darkness of sorrow—even, if need be, darkness of death.—Christian Rossetti.

Every one has the burden of ignorance, which can only be borne with humility; of weakness, which can only be lifted by prayer; of sin, which only repentance and a new heart toward God can do away; of sorrow, which a childlike spirit toward the Heavenly Father can alone bear. But we have also the duty to be strong. Bear the burden, and it will really bear you.—Henry Wilder Foote.

There is a cheerfulness which, even when things go seriously wrong, can keep from sinking into mere fret and worry bitterness. Some people talk of this as if it were all a matter of temperament. Of course there are some to whom it comes easier than to others. It is so with every quality. But apart from that, cheerfulness is a duty, and a duty which no one can weave into a settled part of his life without something of a cross.—Brooks Herford, D. D.

AS TRUE AS GOSPEL.

Most women's politics, like most men's religion, is best done by proxy by the other party.

He who makes a practice of deceiving others is often the worst fooled man in the crowd.

The grave of each conquered sin is an earthwork behind which we can fight and conquer a greater evil.

A debt paid when needed is doubly thanked and heeded, but a debt too long delayed is oft but half paid.

Those who dislike us serve us in a certain way, for they put us on our mettle to disprove their disbelief in us.

To justify an injury to another by a good motive is to plume an arrow for Satan with a feather from the wings of our spirit selves.

Mock-modesty, like a patch, is used to cover a hole, a place where the integrity of the cloth or character is broken or wholly lacking.

Misfortune is a tide that sweeps small souls under and drowns little minds, and bears great and brave ones on to noble and generous heights.

When a good mother's teachings leave manhood's best lessons unlearned and his self-respect failing, no wife, however loving, can reform him.

We seldom forgive those we have injured, and the effort to justify ourselves makes us willing, aye, eager, to believe any false or evil we can place between them and our conscience.

WITH THE SAGES.

One who has observed the course of men for many years says that success in life depends upon staying power. The reason for failure in most cases is lack of perseverance. Men get tired and give up.—J. R. Miller.

Why cannot we, slipping our hands into His each day, walk trustfully over the day's appointed path, thorny or flowery, crooked or straight, knowing that evening will bring us sweet peace and home?—George McDonald.

To educate is to give the mind that freedom, that disposition, and those habits that may enable the learner to obtain any part of knowledge he shall apply himself to, or stand in need of, in the future course of his life.—Locke.

Certainly at some hour, though perhaps not your hour, the waiting waters will stir; in some shape, though not perhaps the shape you dreamed, which your heart loved, and for which it bled, the healing herald will descend.—Charlotte Brontë.

There is only one way of serving mankind. That is, to become better yourself. "Let your light so shine before men that they may see your good works, and glorify your Father which is in Heaven." A man cannot sit while standing in the mire of sin.—Tolstoy.

REFLECTIONS OF A BACHELOR.

No man's destiny can be judged till destiny has ended him.

It takes a coward to stay wrong when he knows he is wrong.

We get old trying to stay young, but we do not stay young trying to be old. Age ever looks backward; youth forward; so the two never see the same scenery of life.—New York Press.

HOME-MADE PHILOSOPHY.

The caterpillar and the gnatton live to eat. Don't try to defy fate with an empty stomach.

Great men are only one out of the many millions—so are we.

It takes a wise son to tell whether his father is a fanatic or only a sanctified fool.

The man with the most means is very often the meanest man in the neighborhood.

The hope of being elected to public office has saved many a politician from the penitentiary.

The studied hypocrisy of men has driven me to doubt everything but man's simple ignorance.

The desires not gratified on earth are the pigments with which men paint the skies of their heaven.

We tremble at the immutable; are awed by the inscrutable; aggravated by the unsuitable; but are obliged to bow to the inevitable.

There would never be any rain were it not for the sunshine, never any sorrow were it not for our conception and enjoyment of pleasure.

I feel for the great men just as they feel for me. If any one asks more of me, he is a fool; if he pretends to feel more than this himself, he is a liar.

Hypocrites will weep with you, laugh with you, pray with you, sing with you, and be the star witness against you if you are ever dragged before the court.

Men who assist corporations to rob the public will themselves rob corporations at the very first safe opportunity.—Finickey Finnakin in Pennsylvania Grit.

WISE OR OTHERWISE.

Envy is the lowest known form of praise.

The virtues a woman boasts of she seldom possesses.

A woman seldom forgives until after she forgets.

The beauty of some photographs lies in the background.

The man who invented work ought to have finished it.

Brilliant falsehoods dazzle more eyes than gems of truth.

A man who wants to be mean never wants an opportunity.

A man is not wholly bad if his dog has confidence in him.

By stopping to think a woman gives her tongue an occasional rest.

It is easier to protect one's self from an enemy than from a fool friend.

But one thing is greater than success, and that is another effort after a failure.

We read of the seven ages of man but one age is ample for the average woman.

When a couple marry under the rose they usually walk on a path of thorns ever after.

Saying mean things is the one bad habit cultivated most assiduously by the average woman.

The young man on a salary of $6 a week is apt to think his best girl dearer than he can afford.

The wise girl always rearranges the parlor furniture immediately after a young man has called.

When a woman marries a man to reform him the poor fellow is up against heroic treatment.

Every time a woman reads of a man committing suicide she wonders what other woman was at the bottom of it.—Pennsylvania Grit.

POINTED PARAGRAPHS.

One drawback to stage realism is its unreality.

Chronic kickers give the world many an upward boost.

If a man has insomnia he is seldom troubled with nightmares.

A man doesn't mind being a fool as long as he doesn't know it.

Some men have reasons for doing things—and some have excuses.

All the world loves to laugh at the love letters that are read in court.

Some men are so liberal they are continually giving themselves away.

It is the unconventional woman who has a mania for attending conventions.

An imaginative writer is one who boasts of the prices he gets for his articles.

The average man doesn't seem to think it counts when he breaks a promise made to himself.

Sometimes a man's appearance suits a woman, and there are times when his disappearance would please her more.—Chicago News.

HERE AND THERE.

Some girls marry in haste and repent in cheap boarding houses.—Chicago News.

GIRLS' SECRET SOCIETIES.

Students at the College Support their Fraternities with Enthusiasm.

Perhaps it is because women are barred from membership in many of the secret societies that they display such a pronounced fondness for such organizations in their own institutions of learning as give them a chance to be just a little mysterious. Certain it is that no Greek letter associations are more generously sustained than those at Vassar, Wellesley and at other female colleges and seminaries. It is stated that not less than $3,000,000 is invested in homes and other property belonging to the Greek letter fraternities of America, an amount greater than the value of all the college property in the country a century ago. Fraternity women have been very wise in this respect, and have been content to live modestly in rented houses, there being but three chapters which own their homes. At Syracuse university the parent chapter of Alpha Phi has a pretty "Queen Anne" house worth perhaps $10,000. Here the chapter has lived nearly a score of years. Kappa Kappa Gamma, Kappa Alpha Theta, Gamma Phi Beta, Pi Beta Phi, and Delta Delta Delta enjoy the comforts of modern homes which they rent at the same university. The Lambda chapter of Kappa Alpha Theta has lived in its own house at the university of Vermont for a decade, and one of the chapters of Delta Gamma is said to own a house. Many other chapters live in rented homes or own building lots or have chapter-house funds. Within the next ten years it is more than probable that two-thirds of the various chapters will be living in chapter-houses.

IMPURE FLAVORS FOR SODA.

Nearly All the Syrups Used by Drug-gists Are Adulterated.

The use of adulterated and harmful flavoring syrups at the soda fountain is by no means as uncommon as many people suppose. Analysis has shown that even the cheapest of these are often far from wholesome. Most people who have been taught to ask for lemon or vanilla flavoring for the alleged reason that those syrups were less liable than others to adulteration will be surprised at the assertion that there is no extract for which substitutes are more often used than vanilla. This is said on the authority of the Massachusetts board of health. The true vanilla bean costs from $12 to $15 per pound, and were there no substitute it could not be used so freely as so extensively as at present. Vanilla the active property of the extract, can be made from other substances at a cost of about $2 per gallon. The artificial compound is chemically identical with the vanilla found in the true vanilla extract and therefore has been used extensively by manufacturers and dealers. It has been made for commercial purposes from turpentine but more satisfactory results are obtained from oil of cloves or benzoic acid. There is some comfort for confirmed soda water drinkers and a general warning for others in the further statement by the Massachusetts authorities that the metallic contamination of the water used in a glass of soda is far more detrimental to the health than any adulteration.

The Milburn House.

The Milburn house at Buffalo daily visited by thousands who want to see the death place of the third martyr president of the United States. The people want something to take to the homes as souvenirs. They eagerly pronounce upon leaves from the trees in front of the house; they hunt for pebbles, and until the police interfere they pluck leaves from the shrubbery in the yard. From early morning until late at night two policemen are on guard at the house. One of the officers on guard says: "Just about dusk one evening a fellow with long hair and ministerial look about him appeared with a big hammer and a cold chisel. I asked him what he wanted. Then he informed me that he had come to put just three bricks out of the Milburn house. He only wanted three. I told that man Mr. Milburn still wanted the house; and he left very much displeased."

Corporations in England.

A curious illustration of the power of corporations is reported from England. From time immemorial it has been established law there that requests made for the propagation of secular or freethinking doctrines were subject to confiscation by the king and thousands of pounds have been thus confiscated. Recently, however, it occurred to some person to try a new plan. A company known as the Secular Society (limited) was incorporated for the specific purpose of relieving such bequests, and the English lawyers say that under charter it can receive and use bequests for the very purpose so long held unlawful. A corporation is a strange entity.

The Spanish Alphabet.

The Spanish alphabet is perfect save for a single silent letter—h. Every letter has only one sound. Every word is spelled as pronounced, and pronounced as spelled. The written language, therefore, is, with a single exception, free from redundant letters. The chief difficulty in the language English-speaking people is the inflection in its verbs. These move from one mood and tense to another by minimal changes, while English verbs move by auxiliaries. In inflection Spanish follows Latin, of which it is a beautiful and richly endowed daughter, so much so that it adopts no word or phrase from other languages.