The Y. M. C. A. has sold 240 tickets for its course of entertainments. For the four remaining entertainments the course tickets will be sold for one dollar and twenty-five cents. The next event will be the Lyric Ladies' Concert on November 30th. This is said to be great attraction.

A. O. U. W. Anniversary.

The thirty-third anniversary of United Workmen was properly celebrated by the local lodge at the opera house last evening. A large audience was in attendance and the addresses and music received close attention and were highly appreciated.

The addresses were made by J. G. Beeler, Judge Grimes and Deputy Grand Master Wilson, each of whom paid a just tribute to the grand-order of which they are members. The good work of the order in promoting a fraternal feeling, in relieving the burdens of the members, in taking care of the widows and orphans of deceased members was shown in a plain and practical way by the speakers. The addresses were interspersed with a solo by Mrs. Will Jeffers, piano duet by Miss O'Hara and Mrs. Jeffers and selections by Brandin's orchestra.

At the close of the program the members of the order and their ladies repaired to the K. P. hall where refreshments were served and an hour or so devoted to card playing and other amusements.

Village of Fayetteville.

Nearly wiped out by fire, but this was nearly twenty years ago. Since then new county buildings have been built. Ben Marshall, the popular sheriff of Fayette county saved four prisoners at the risk of his life. The above is sketchy, but to get the story attend "Arkansas" Wednesday evening, Oct. 30th at the opera house.

See "Arkansas" at the opera house tomorrow evening.

A Fiendish Attack.

An attack was lately made on C. F. Collier of Cherokee, Iowa, that nearly proved fatal. It came through his kidneys. His back got so lame he could not stoop without great pain, nor sit in a chair except propped by cushions. No remedy helped him until he tried Electric Bitters which effected such a wonderful change that he writes he feels like a new man. This marvelous medicine cures backache and kidney trouble, purifies the blood and builds up your health. Only 50¢ at Streit's drug store.

As is nearly always the case, the republicans of Cheyenne county are involved in a local quarrel. One faction, headed by Paddy Miles, wants R. D. Harris removed from the land office and Charley Callahan from the post office, and the friends of these office holders of course want them retained. As a result of this strife the success of the republican county ticket is endangered. Get together boys, and have harmony.
