

Local News in Brief.

C. P. Ross returned the latter part of last week from the west.

Judge and Mrs. H. M. Grimes and son Lee were Omaha visitors Saturday.

WANTED—Two or three furnished rooms for light housekeeping. Apply at this office.

The Nebraska Shoe and Clothing House will move this week to the McDonald block, next door to the bank.

Harry Worrell and wife spent Saturday and Sunday in town. He is getting along nicely in Ogalala as principal of the schools.

The annual fair and supper of the Ladies' Guild will be held at the opera house November 19th. A fine line of fancy work will be on sale.

C. M. Hayden, Joe Tridel and Jim Seaton, three leading citizens of Wallace and hale fellows well met, transacted business in town yesterday.

A farmer between the rivers tells us that he has sold some new corn for forty-seven and one-half cents per bushel, the purchaser hauling it from the farm.

Mr. and Mrs. O. H. P. Buchanan and Mrs. L. L. Miltonberger have been spending the past few days at the Baskin ranch in Logan county.

The choral class met for instruction in the Presbyterian church last evening and will meet in the same place this evening and tomorrow evening. There are over fifty members in the class.

John States returned the latter part of last week from his thirty-day visit in Pennsylvania and New York. He had a very pleasant trip, so much so that he feels that he would like to again locate in that section permanently.

Miss Myrtle Scharmann has over 6,000 votes in the Omaha News piano contest. We understand Miss Scharmann will visit Lexington and Kearney and solicit subscriptions for the News and votes for herself.

D. S. McCune, an employee of the electric light company, returned Saturday from Denver accompanied by a bride, having been married in that city last Tuesday. They will probably remain here permanently.

R. R. Patton, who was married in Kansas last week, arrived home Saturday with his bride. Mr. Patton is foreman of the Era and is a trustworthy and gentlemanly fellow. THE TRIBUNE extends best wishes to him and Mrs. Patton.

Last Saturday County Treasurer Scharmann paid the first two bonds of the Brady Island Bridge issue. The denomination was one thousand dollars each, and were promptly paid on maturity. Under republican administration taxes are so rapidly collected that all bonds are paid as they come due.

W. E. Park is now husking his corn crop on the Dillon farm west of the city, and he thinks it will yield fifty bushels to the acre. Others say the yield will be greater. On the farm of James Wilson there are patches of corn that good judges say will yield sixty-five to seventy bushels per acre.

Mazepa lodge, Knights of Pythias, is rapidly increasing in membership, the present year being one of the most prosperous in the history of the lodge. Last Friday evening two esquires were given the rank of knight and an application for membership received favorable consideration.

W. E. Cullen, representing the International Nursery Co., of Denver, is in town delivering stock which he sold last spring. This stock has arrived in excellent shape and we understand the patrons are well pleased. The International Co. has a splendid reputation in the west for handling nice stock and getting it to the purchaser in good condition.

In three of the forty-two precincts in Lincoln county the democrats have nominated precinct tickets, while in nearly ever precinct the populists have put up candidates for precinct officers. This shows the strength of the democrats as compared with the populists and yet the former succeed in getting one-half of the candidates on the fusion county ticket. The democrats are too smooth for the populists in the game of politics.

ONE PRICE & PLAIN FIGURES WAWOLMER PROP.

Mrs. M. H. Douglas spent Saturday and Sunday with her sister in Omaha.

Mr. and Mrs. P. C. Meyer of Paxton came down Friday to attend the funeral of Jettie Thompson.

E. C. Baker returned Saturday from a trip in the west, during which he visited his father at Rawlins, Wyo.

O. K. Peck of Beggs, I. T., has sent to this office samples of cotton and pecans which grow in that country. The cotton is just as it came from the fields before being ginned and still contains the seeds.

A few choice Poland China males for sale cheap.

T. E. DOOLITTLE.

Guy Robinson, Clay Vroman Rex Duncau and several others went to Lexington Saturday to witness a game of foot ball.

Mrs. A. F. Parsons went to Ames Saturday to visit her sister and from there will go to Omaha Mr. Parsons goes to Omaha today to return with her.

Secretary Shepard of the Y. M. C. A. returned the latter part of the week from a brief visit in Omaha, where he attended a meeting of the Y. M. C. A. secretaries of the state.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Thompson desire us to extend to friends, neighbors and members of secret societies their heartfelt thanks for the acts of kindness and sympathy shown them in their late sad bereavement.

Railroad Notes.

The U. P. carpenter shop is being reshingled and otherwise repaired.

A new tin roof is being placed on the Union Pacific store house. Ben Davis is doing the work.

S. C. Mecomber went to Omaha Sunday night on business connected with the O. R. C.

Frank Hibner has been off duty for several days on account of a very painful carbuncle on his left arm.

Charley Hart, brother of Leo, came up from Omaha last week and accepted a position in the U. P. sheet iron shop.

A freight crew was pulled off the Third district yesterday, Mose McFarland and his brakemen being the unlucky ones.

Harry Barraclough, who went to Cheyenne a few days ago, has accepted a position in the U. P. round house at that place.

A foot ball team is being organized from among employees of the Union Pacific shops. This team will include several who have in times past played in foot ball teams, and are husky fellows.

The Gandy Pioneer says that Charley Perkins, the well known U. P. fireman, has purchased the J. E. Fuller farm in the south part of Logan county, and will move thereto next spring.

Solid trains of forty cars of stock are not unusual sights on the Union Pacific these days. These trains, notwithstanding their size, are rushed over the road at an average of twenty-five miles an hour.

Pat Stack, who has been filling the position of air-brake inspector on the Union Pacific has resigned to take effect Nov. 15th Mr. Stack will accept a position with the Standard Oil Co.

Our former townsman S. K. Ross was the conductor of a train which was wrecked last week at Wamsutter in which thirteen cars were derailed and 150 feet of track torn up. Fortunately no one was seriously injured.

Acetylene gas headlights have been given a trial on the B. & M. out of Lincoln and are said to give excellent satisfaction. Enginemen seem to prefer them because the light is not so dazzling as the electric arc.

The U. P. hose team held its bi-weekly practice Friday evening. Under the captaincy of Col W. P. Collins this team ranks in efficiency with the crack teams of the larger cities and in the future will probably enter national contests.

The report from Cheyenne that W. R. McKeen, Jr., was to succeed M. K. Barnum as master mechanic of the Nebraska division is now said to be without a particle of foundation. Some newspaper correspondent in Cheyenne evidently sent out the report without investigating.

The general passenger agent of the C. & N. W. has issued a circular giving the proposed schedule of trains No. 1 and No. 3 over the Union Pacific and the time which will be taken up between Chicago and San Francisco. The running time of train No. 1 will be shortened three hours and ten minutes and that of train No. 3 four hours.

Efforts are now being made to organize a uniform rank Knights of Pythias. In order to have a company that can properly make a creditable showing it is desired to have forty members. It is believed that this number can be secured. M. C. Harrington, who was formerly a West Pointer, will probably be elected commander in case the company is organized.

The county attorney has filed about sixty petitions in the district court asking for decrees of foreclosure against non-resident land owners who are delinquent in their taxes. All good citizens are heartily in accord with this movement to make the tax shirkers pay the amounts due the county.

John Wallenhaupt, the tailor, will move his stock and shop to rooms on the second floor of the McDonald bank building.

Farm for Sale.
320 acre farm situated 4 1/2 miles from North Platte. 120 acres farm land, 15 acres large timber and the balance pasture. Good house, barn and hen house, all new. 2 wells with pumps, one with wind mill. For particulars inquire of A. L. Davis.

The supper given by the W. R. C. at the opera house Friday evening was an excellent one and apparently well patronized.

Next Thursday night will be All-Hallowe'en. The wise will see that buggies and other movable property is out of reach of the mischievous boys.

M. E. House of Lexington was in town the latter part of the week enroute home from the Birdwood country, where he has been pasturing 150 head of cattle. He will move the cattle soon to his ranch near Lexington.

David Hunter of Sutherland picked and sold over two hundred dollars worth of peaches this season from his young orchard, and also sold about fifty bushels of plums. He has about forty acres in apples, the trees in which are four years old. One of the apple trees bore one and three-quarter bushels this season. We believe that in the course of a few years Mr. Hunter's orchard will prove a veritable gold mine.

Rev. C. F. Graves, a Presbyterian minister, was in town yesterday enroute home from Gandy where he preached Sunday.

A. E. Huntington of this city has brought suit in the Cheyenne county court against the St. George Cattle Co. for $155 due him for wages.

The Brady Review speaks very highly of O. W. Neale, the republican candidate for county superintendent. But then everybody who knows Mr. Neale has a good word to say for him.

Candidates for county offices are making their final round up this week, and then with considerable anxiety will await the decision of the voters on Tuesday of next week.

The very pleasant weather is somewhat against the opening of fall business, and trade is somewhat slow in town. A little snappy weather would do much to increase trade in the clothing, dry goods and shoe lines.
