JOHANN MOST, who wasarrested and placed in jail by reason of his anarchistic utterances, has been released on bonds. Lord pity the man who would furnish Contagious Blood Poison. bond for such a red-mouthed individual as Most.

there will be a light vote in Nebraska, but Chairman Lindsay, of the republican state committee, predicts the election of Sedgwick for supreme judge by a plurality of ten to twelve thousand.

SENATOR JONES of Nevada has again returned to the bosom of his first love. He finds bimetallism to be a dried-up issue. Not even Mr. Bryan was a stouter defender of free silver coinage the senator from Nethan vada, nor was he so carly in the field. Now that Jones has oscillated back to republicanism. and nearly all the silver-throated shouters have relapsed into si lence, and now that the populist party has gone glimmering, why should the great Nebraskan still wander in argentiferous solitudes?-Philadelphia Record.

THE British star which for so many years had been in the ascendant, seems now to be descending. In South Africa extreme measures have been taken to bring to a close the Boer campaign which has up to date been ineffective; the people in England are harassed by heavy taxes; famine and plague abroad in India, and Russia is likely to provoke trouble at any time because that nation covets the Indian empire. In addito these the English tion people are much alarmed over the report that King Edward's cancer of the throat will result in his death.

THE tremendous defensive force of the United States, in available men, is revealed in the census report showing that in 1900 those of militia age numbered 16,360,363, of whom more than thirteen millions were native born and more than fourteen millions were white. When it is remembered that the quality of the American soldier 1sthe finest in the world, the magnitude of this bulwork of national security can be faintly comprehended. Although there is no system of enforced military training in the United States as in some of the European countries, the adapta-bility of the American to the requirements of war has been exemplified in such striking instances that the resources of harness store. the reserve are not belittled because of the crudeness of the citizens in military training .-Kansas City Star.
