THE IRRIGATION MOVEMENT.

Perhaps those members of congress are correct who are saying that President Roosevelt is favorable to the movement in the far western states for the adoption of a scientific and extended system of irrigation. Senator Warren of Wyoming, a state which is vitally interested in irrigation, and who is one of its enthusiastic advocates, is confident that the president is on their side. Secretary Hitchcock is a friend of the scheme. The votes of a majority of the congressmen from the whole region between the Mississippi and the Pacific can be relied on for any intelligent plan of irrigation.

One of the reasons why the champions of irrigation feel that President Roosevelt will be with them is that he resided in their locality for several years and knows the need of an adoption of an intelligent system of water storage and distribution. He has been through all the arid region of the United States. The arguments for irrigation which its advocates present will appeal to him with force. The advantage of irrigation, directly to the region immediately concerned and indirectly to the country at large, is so great that it ought to receive the earnest attention of the country. Any plan which will materially add to the productiveness of the arid region covering part of half a dozen states will largely contribute to the population, wealth and prosperity of the country.

But the friends of irrigation ought to understand at the outset that they will meet with much opposition. A heavy vote will be cast against it by New England and the old middle states. Part of the south is apathetic and part of it is hostile. Some votes will be cast against it by the middle west. It will run against big obstacles. The president's favor for it will count for much, but this will not necessarily bring success. A campaign of education on that issue should be started and should be kept up until a favorable result is brought. At present the government's income largely exceeds its outgo. The money for a wisely planned system of irrigation at national expense—and that is the only practicable way that irrigation can ever be had on a large scale—can be spared now but may not be available after another cut in taxation is made. The irrigation matter should be presented to congress right at the opening of the session.—St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

Further trouble between the Union Pacific and its employees seems imminent through the fact that the brakemen of the road have commenced agitation for a change in the rules governing employees. During the past few months the Union Pacific has been running freight trains of more than ordinary length, at times seventy and seventy-five empty cars being attached to a single engine. There has been no increase in the number of trainmen, but two brakemen being used. In consequence of this, minor accidents to cars near the middle of the train have been more frequent than ordinary. There is a penalty attached to such accidents. The brakemen have, therefore, formulated their grievances and will within a short time present them to the management with a request that the number of men on the long trains be increased, the wages increased or the rule providing for the penalties in case of accidents be abrogated.—Omaha News.

FOR SALE—On easy terms. Good five room house and one lot. With in two blocks of High School and business part of Dewey street. Good new barn with pump. City water, cess pool, shade trees, all in good condition. Inquire of JOS. HERSHEY.

In the Bowery. There are in the Bowery barbershops at which one can get shaved for three cents. Bay rum costs an additional two cents, making five cents in all, at which price there begins to be something doing for the shop. There are plenty of places on the East Side, in the Bowery and elsewhere, in which one may be shaved for five cents. Generally in a five-cent shop a bay rum shave would be ten cents, but it is by no means always so. Witness a sign which announces for five cents, an shave with witch hazel or bay rum. Sometimes one can get more than bay rum for ten cents, as is set forth in a sign announcing at that price a shave with bay rum and Florida water.—New York Sun.

Rheumatism

Rheumatic pains are the cries of protest and distress from tortured muscles, aching joints and excited nerves. The blood has been poisoned by the accumulation of waste matter in the system, and can no longer supply the pure and health sustaining food they require. The whole system feels the effect of this acid poison; and not until the blood has been purified and brought back to a healthy condition will the aches and pains cease. Mrs. James Kell, of 707 Ninth street, N. E., Washington, D. C., writes as follows: "A few months ago I had an attack of Sciatic Rheumatism in its worst form. The pain was so intense that I became completely prostrated. The attack was an unusually severe one, and my condition was regarded as being very dangerous. I was attended by one of the most able doctors in Washington, who is also a member of the faculty of a leading medical college here. He told me to continue his prescriptions and I would get well. After having filled twelve times without receiving the slightest benefit, I declined to continue his treatment any longer. Having heard of S. S. S. (Swift's Specific) recommended for Rheumatism, I decided, almost in despair however, to give the medicine a try, and after I had taken a few bottles I was able to hobble around on crutches, and very soon thereafter had no use for them at all. S. S. S. having cured me sound and well. All the distressing pains have left me, my appetite has returned, and I am happy to be again restored to perfect health.

SSS is the great vegetable purifier and tonic, is the ideal remedy in all rheumatic troubles. There are no opiates or minerals in it to disturb the digestion and lead to ruinous habits. We have prepared a special book on Rheumatism which every sufferer from this painful disease should read. It is the most complete and interesting book of the kind in existence. It will be sent free to any one desiring it. Write our physicians fully and freely about your case. We make no charge for medical advice. THE SWIFT SPECIFIC CO., ATLANTA, GA.
