NOTICE

Several have asked, why doesn't Doolittle keep toys this year. Doolittle has TWICE the stock of toys that was carried last year. The stock of toys is so large that an entire room has been devoted to them. Ask for the toy room and see the largest and most complete stock in the city.

Those Church Spoons and High School Spoons at Dixon's are the heaviest and finest engraved that are in the city.

Wm. Stack writes a friend in town that he is running an engine on the Kansas Pacific out of Ellis, Kan., and that he will probably remain there this winter.

The poor work of the compound passenger engines is causing much grief to engineers as well as to the officials and the season for engine failures is yet in its infancy.

Have you seen the French Grey Toilet Articles at Dixon's? 'Tis worth your while.

The Chambers divorce case has been continued until January 2d. The evidence in this case will probably give in detail the jolts and jars incident to misrated marriage.

Doolittle has the beautiful penny Perry Pictures and the most exquisite line of more expensive pictures, medallions, etc.

The regular session of the Ladies of the G. I. A. to the B. of L. E. will be held Tuesday, Dec. 17th. All sisters are requested to be present, as special business will come before the meeting.

The Ogallala Republican says E. M. Searle of that place has sold to Gould & Peterson of Omaha thirteen sections—8,060 acres—of land in the Birdwood country in this county. The purchasers will stock the land with cattle next spring.

In the district court this forenoon the case of Mrs. Maggie Post against the Union Pacific Co. was heard. This is a case in which Mrs. Post, who lives north of the round house, wants one thousand dollars for damages resulting from the smoke and dust emanating from the round house. Edson W. Rich represented the company and T. C. Patterson the plaintiff. At the time of going to press the judge had not rendered a decision.

John Grott Pleads Guilty.

John Grott was brought into the district court Wednesday to answer to the charge of assault with intent to do murder. Grott disclaimed intention to commit murder when he stabbed his wife several weeks ago, but the charge against him could not be changed and he plead guilty to the information as filed. Grott evidently regrets very much that he allowed his anger and jealousy to get the better of him, but his act was one which came very close to costing his wife her life, and was therefore a most serious one.

Up to noon Judge Grimes had not passed sentence on Grott. Concert will be at the Opera House. After due consideration, it has been concluded to hold the choral class concert at the opera house instead of the Methodist church. No change has been made in the date, however, and it will take place the evening of the 27th inst. as has been announced.

This change was made after the first pages of this issue had been printed.

The initial meeting of the new club will be held at the home of Miss Mae Walker Saturday evening, Dec. 21st.
