Skates! Skates! Skates! Doolittle has the celebrated Barney & Berry skates.

Frank Ottman, who is attending a commercial school at Omaha, will be home to spend the holiday vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Hansen will come up from Grand Island in a few days and spend Christmas with North Platte relatives.

Have you seen the Rolled Nickel Goods at Dixon's. Warranted not to tarnish. Baking Dishes, Crumb Trays, Tea and Coffee Pots, etc.

Weather forecast for North Platte and vicinity: Generally fair and warmer tonight and Wednesday. The minimum temperature this morning was twelve below zero, one year ago it was twenty-three degrees above zero.

Bruce Stuart, operator at Elm Creek, will be home in a few days to spend Christmas.

Have you ever tried that Angel Food Taffy at Hupfer's?

Mr. and Mrs. Phil Deats left this morning for a visit with friends in the southeast part of the state.

Have you seen the French Grey Toilet Articles at Dixon's? 'Tis worth your while.

Doolittle has the beautiful penny Perry Pictures and the most exquisite line of more expensive pictures, medallions, etc.

J. G. Anderson left this morning for Grand Junction, Col., to close up a real estate deal, having sold his fruit farm at that place.

W. J. Crusen, who has been holding revival services at the McNeel school house, said today that he would probably close the meetings tonight on account of the extreme cold weather.

Those Church Spoons and High School Spoons at Dixon's are the heaviest and finest engraved that are in the city.

A beggars sociable will be held at the home of W. T. Banks Friday evening, Dec. 20. Wear your old clothes, those wearing dress suits will be fined 10c. Refreshments served 10c.

Commercial Fertilizer for Lawns at City Pharmacy, Dr. Longley.

There was but little wind in eastern Wyoming last night and no difficulty was experienced in keeping the track clear. Reports from there this morning, however, state that a strong wind is again blowing.

Christmas Greens.
Leave orders at Fred Martin's for Christmas trees, holly, mistletoe, and other Christmas decorations.

Mrs. W. J. Roche has returned from a brief visit in Omaha.

It was just thirty-five degrees colder this morning than it was on the morning of December 17, 1900.

Trains from both the east and west were again several hours off this morning, No. 5 arriving at 10:15, and No. 6 and No. 102 a little later.

Rev. John F. Seibert goes to Cheyenne tomorrow morning to hold Lutheran service and will also make arrangements for the installation of a regular Lutheran pastor in that city.

Unfortunately Doolittle's Store is not large enough to make a complete display of all they carry in the Christmas Gift line. We carry the largest line of Toilet Articles in town. Ask for them.

An unusual rush of advertising and job work has almost swamped the force in this office, and the paper is sent to press with less than the usual amount of local matter.

Mrs. S. C. Mecomber has returned from Omaha where she spent a day or two with her husband, who has been in that city for a couple of weeks as a member of the protective board of the Order of Railway Conductors.

My house for sale or rent at once.
MRS. W. H. BROACH.

The boards of adjustment of the Conductors and the Trainmen are still conferring with the Union Pacific officials at Omaha, but just what headway they are making in adjusting the differences which exist is not made public. It is generally believed, however, that the officials will make some concessions to both orders. The Omaha Bee last Sunday contained group pictures of the members of the two boards.

Glove Boxes, Handkerchief Boxes, Manicure Sets, Shaving Sets, Baby Toilet Sets, Comb and Brush Sets, Work Boxes, Necktie Boxes, etc., at Doolittle's.

Observer Piercy, of the local weather bureau, says: The temperature last Saturday morning was thirty below zero, which is the lowest temperature ever recorded in any December during the twenty-seven years the weather bureau office has been established in this city. The next lowest, twenty-seven degrees, occurred the day before Christmas in 1879. The lowest temperature in December, 1900, was ten below zero and that on the last day of the month.

In the case of Wm. Diener against Mrs. Jas. Wilson, in which certain provisions of the will of the late Jas. Wilson was attacked, Judge Grimes gave a decision in favor of Mrs. Wilson. We understand that Mr. Diener, through his attorneys, will appeal and carry the case to the supreme court. The Odd Fellows lodge is interested in this case, as until the case is decided there is a cloud on the title of the property occupied by Weiner's meat market, which the lodge recently purchased of Mrs. Wilson.

Y. M. C. A. NOTES.

The new furnace is working nicely and large numbers of our members are enjoying the baths again.

Dr. Greenlee gave a good earnest talk to the men last Sunday. Mrs. J. H. Hershey sang with feeling "Ashamed of Jesus" and the choir sang a lovely anthem. These meetings are fine this winter.

We again suggest to parents to give their sixteen-year-old sons a membership ticket for a year as a Christmas present. They will enjoy it.

We appeal to our members at this time for earnest work in increasing our membership. We ought to have twenty new members at $3.00 apiece before January 1st.

Attorney James Ray gives a Christmas present to the Y. M. C. A. of a nicely framed drawing of North Platte. We appreciate his kindness.

Special prices made on the beautiful line of Oriental Busts at Doolittle's. If you want one don't delay for they will go fast at the reduced price.
