The Oberlin College Glee Club occupied a special Pullman on train No. 6 Wednesday morning. They were enroute home from a trip in the west.

The Christian aid society will meet with Mrs. Geo. Carter next Wednesday afternoon, Jan. 8th. All interested are requested to be present.

Chas. Wood of Sutherland arrived in the city this morning from a month's visit with relatives and friends in McClaine and Dewitt counties, Ill.

The attraction at the opera house this evening will be "Alvin Joslin," one of the brightest plays that has been seen in North Platte. The company is an excellent one.

We learn that Firemen Crockett, Mullen and Viers, who went to Kansas City to take the engineers' examination, successfully passed and will run on the Kansas Pacific road.

The remains of Jordan Coolbaugh who died on the train last Monday morning and taken off at this station, were shipped last night to Jackson, Mich.

Ex-sheriff Miller, who was down from Garfield yesterday, says the farmers and stockmen are getting through the winter in pretty good shape, notwithstanding the loss of last season's crops. There is plenty rough feed for stock and losses are not expected.

Prof. Crane will give a free lesson in the rudiments of music at the M. E. church Tuesday, Jan. 7th, at 7:30 p. m., at which time and place he expects to organize a class in vocal music. The public is invited to attend and see what can be accomplished in an hour's work.

The revival meetings which were conducted by Rev. W. J. Crusen at the McNeel school house closed Sunday evening. They proved to be the most successful meetings ever held there, about twenty having been converted, seventeen of which joined the church last Sunday. Rev. Wimberly will go to the McNeel school house next Wednesday to baptize fifteen or sixteen persons.

Remember that you get a first class shave at Doc Sizemore's, only 10 cents.

Dr. Bradford, who attended the Methodist conference in this city last fall, will deliver a lecture at the opera house on January 30th under the auspices of the G. A. R. The subject of the lecture will be "Our Nation." Dr. Bradford is recognized as one of the best speakers in the west, and his lecture here will no doubt be largely attended.

Two strangers who had been in town for a day or two, became drunk and disorderly Tuesday night and insulted ladies on the street. George Sherwood objected to the language used and hit one of the men, knocking him through one of the windows of the Star restaurant. The two strangers were later gathered in by the police and will answer in the police court to the charge of being drunk and disorderly.

The adjustment committees of the Order of Railway Conductors and Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen for the Union Pacific, who adjourned before Christmas, after a month's biennial session, will reconvene later in the month. All the business that can be dispatched without a conference with General Manager Dickinson has been transacted. The first thing on the program will be to present to him the revised schedule.—Omaha News.

After the summer weather of Wednesday we had begun to think that the "backbone of winter" had been broken; but the falling snow of today serves to remind us that spring is still afar, that snow, ice and chilling blasts may be expected before the roses bloom. But we welcome the snow; it is needed to give moisture to the ground. It may cause the stockman to feed more hay, but he knows that it will increase the feed on his pastures next spring.

The adjourned December term of district court which convened yesterday morning for the purpose of hearing the Chambers divorce case was of short duration. When the case was called, A. H. Davis, attorney for the defendant, filed a motion to be permitted to file a supplemental answer and crosspetition on the grounds that the plaintiff had been twice married before marrying the defendant and had not procured a divorce from either husband; that the two children be legitimized, and that the war issue was made in good faith on the part of the defendant. The motion was sustained and case continued until the March term of court.

Open House at Mrs. Dr. Dent's.

The New Year was appropriately opened by the O. T. Club, at the home of Mrs. Dent, where about sixty-five persons, guests and members of the club were pleasantly entertained. The hours were arranged by the committee so that the married guests were entertained from 8:30 until 9:30 and the young people from 9:30 until 10:30. Master Blickensderfer presided at the door and after being admitted the guests were warmly greeted by the ladies on the reception committee and shown into the dining room by little Miss Hinman.

The refreshments were dainty and served in a very nice way. The dining room was decorated with holly and evergreen and lighted with numerous candles.

F. D. Winn entertained the crowd very pleasantly with his graphophone which is one of the best ever listened to. The pieces followed in rapid succession and were some of the very best of musical selections and were highly appreciated by the crowd.

The whole affair proved to be very successful and reflected great credit on the different committees of arrangement.

Y. M. C. A. NOTES.

The association closed the year out of debt, with $24.67 in the treasury and the membership the largest in its history, 375. We feel grateful to the hundreds of friends for the help during the year, and if it is as well supported during the future as in the past, this association will outgrow its present quarters and its influence for good upon North Platte's young men will be seen in a greater measure than ever before. God grant that it may be so.

Men! You will be welcome at the bible study tonight in the parlor at eight o'clock.

Young men should make the secretary hustle for chairs next Sunday by coming in crowds to hear that very helpful address by Mr. A. F. Parsons at 3:30 p. m. All men invited.

Undoubtedly Dr. McCabe will lecture to a large number of men next Monday evening. He will take the men clear through.

"A Lion's Heart."

At the opera house Tuesday evening, Jan. 7th, Mr. Carl A. Hawn's latest melodramatic success will be the attraction. The play has met with instantaneous approval in the cities where it has been presented, and bids fair to renew the popularity of its visit.

It is on the romantic order and appeals through its literary merits to those who prefer a well told story in preference to a flimsy affair written around tanks, sawmills, fire engines, etc. All the scenery used in the production is carried by the company and an excellent entertainment is promised.

For Rent—House with four or six rooms—city water.
