BETWEEN THE RIVERS.

What would the cattlemen in the hills do for feed during a hard winter when they are ransacking the valley for feed during a mild winter like the present one.

Russell Fowls drove seventy-five head of two year old steers from his Birdwood ranch the latter part of last week down to Henry Appleford's ranch at Maxwell where they will be fed on alfalfa hay for the coming two months.

Dr. Eves of Hershey who has been attending a lady at Paxton for appendicitis accompanied by the lady and relatives went down to Omaha the last of last week where an operation was performed with success.

The section crew at Hershey has lately been increased one man. Joe Rebut was the lucky fellow.

It is stated that a masquerade ball will take place in this locality in the near future. The place for holding it has not as yet been fully determined.

Martin Mickelson who runs a department store at Hershey, has it well stocked with seasonable goods at the present time.

We understand that the M. E. church at Hershey will be ceiled over-head where the plaster is loose and fallen off.

Miss Gertie Jeffers who is teaching at Nichols visited relatives at the county seat Saturday and Sunday.

Miss Bessie, oldest daughter of D. B. White who has been sick for three weeks with tonsillitis is reported as no better at this time.

At a meeting of the directors of Hershey schools last week they the decided to charge an admission of $1.00 per month for all pupils attending from outside of the district which reduced the number to some extent. Previously they had not charged any tuition fee.

Mrs. Jennie Goodwin and Mrs. Lottie Jones returned Saturday from a month's visit with relatives in the eastern part of the state.

About thirty residents of Nichols precinct were at the county seat on business Saturday.

S. S. Reynolds of Maxwell, was up at Nichols on a stock deal with W. H. Sullivan of that place a couple of days ago.

Geo. Eves and family of North Platte visited their parents and attended the oyster supper at Hershey Wednesday last.

Dave White has leased the Chas. McAllister farm for the ensuing year. He is also negotiating for the rental of the Sisson farm.

The Nichols creamery is said to be the only one in operation at the present time along the line between Ogalala and Lexington.

M. Goodwin of Hershey spent Sunday at the county metropolis.

Miss Annie Schwaiger who is teaching at Hershey visited relatives at North Platte Saturday and Sunday.

The recent drop in the hay market caused by the fine weather no doubt, has made shipments lighter to a considerable extent.

The competition in the livery business at Hershey was very beneficial to a couple of traveling men recently who got their baggage and themselves hauled from that place to Sutherland free of charge.

We understand that Mrs. F. Carpenter of Hershey will soon depart for a visit with relatives in the eastern part of the state.

Dr. P. T. Chadwell, Osteopath, will permanently locate in this city February 1st. He is a graduate of American School of Osteopathy.
