NO. 2

DON'T TAKE CHANCES.

In order to guard against the spread of contagious diseases all dwellings should be thoroughly disinfected after every case. It moving into an old house, you know not what disease germs may be lurking in the place. Protect yourself and family by having the place disinfected. Formaldehyde is recognized by the scientific world as the most powerful disinfectant known and when used judiciously will destroy all known bacteria without injuring furnishings in the room. Experience is required to do the work properly. Half way measures will not avail.

W. D. Hoover, at Howe's Furniture Store, is provided with a Formaldehyde Generator of the latest and best pattern, and is prepared to do disinfecting by the most approved up-to-date method.

BLACKLEG IN CATTLE

is prevented by vaccination before the germ of the disease has entered the system. The success of vaccination depends upon proper dosage. Too large a dose will produce the disease while too small a dose will not render the animal immune. This problem is solved by Parke, Davis & Co. in their new vaccine in pill form which is injected through the skin. No mixing, filtering or time wasted and you don't have to spend a fortune to vaccinate your cattle. P. D. Co. book, "Blackleg and its Treatment," free.

Committee Meeting.

Pursuant to the call, the committee of thirty-three appointed to consider the question of requesting or petitioning the county commissioners to call a special election to vote on a proposition to issue bonds for a new court house, met at the Commercial Club rooms Friday evening. The committee effected an organization by electing J. G. Beeler chairman and W. C. Elder secretary.

The need of a new court house was discussed at some length and figures were produced to show that the present bonded indebtedness of the county is $25,000, that there is $7,000 in the treasury at present to apply on these bonds, and that the last of the present outstanding bonds will expire in 1912. That by the time the principal of the proposed court house bonds become due, the present outstanding bonds would be fully paid. It was the sense of the meeting that bonds in the sum of $75,000 should be voted and a building erected that would answer the business requirements for fifty years to come. These bonds could be floated at three per cent interest, and to pay the yearly interest on the bonds would require a levy of one and one-half mills on each dollar of assessed valuation. A levy so small as this would scarcely be felt. As the average residence property in North Platte has an assessed valuation of $300, the extra tax on such a property would be but forty-five cents a year. The increased taxes of the average farmer under our irrigation ditches would not exceed fifty cents a year and the farmer in the hills would pay less than that sum.

On motion a committee consisting of J. G. Beeler, E. B. Warner, C. O. Wilcox, M. C. Harrington and Ira L. Bare were appointed to confer with the county commissioners in regard to calling the special election. This committee held a conference with the commissioners Saturday forenoon, but as Commissioner Kelleher was absent the matter was taken under advisement, and the commissioners will make reply the latter part of this week.

When the election is called the proposition will be discussed fully, and in such a manner that every voter can vote intelligently on the question.

O. D. Lyon has been confirmed postmaster at Sidney notwithstanding strong efforts were made to defeat his confirmation. Lyon's appointment is a victory for W. Paddy Miles, who was his champion.

The Nebraska Fire Insurance company of Omaha, defunct, has declared a dividend of 2 per cent for its creditors, some 5,000 or 6,000 in number.

The Fool Killer Needed.

We notice an article in the Gotenburgh Independent which states that some of the farmers in that vicinity are opposed to the system of rural free delivery on account of the extra expense to the government.

The fact is, in our opinion, that they are opposed to rural delivery because, after it is established, they will have less excuse to go to town and loaf. We will bet all our old clothes that not one of these farmers has made a success of life, that his fields are full of weeds and his machinery rusting in the fence corners, that he has not done six months' steady work in any one year, that his crops have failed from neglect and that he enjoys nothing so much as to stand on the street corner and loaf and damn the government.

Such people refuse to assist in any legitimate public enterprise and become easy victims of lightning rod sharks and swindlers. They would refuse to buy good dollars at fifty cents each but would organize a company of farmers and pay $3,000.00 for a $250.00 station, they listen to the smooth talk of the creamery promoter and pay $4,000.00 for a creamery that ought legitimately to have been built for $1500.00, they organize an irrigation district for the purpose of catching suckers and swindling them and each other, and when they find that they have only succeeded in cheating themselves they grumble about the increased taxes and blame the irrigation law. We are glad we have no such farmers in Lincoln county.

Gotenburgh needs a fool killer more than any place we know.

BETWEEN THE RIVERS.

W. A. Paxton shipped three car loads of fat cattle from his ranch in the valley to South Omaha the other day.

Two or three real estate deals have lately been perfected in the valley and there are fully as many more on the string.

Mrs. Wm. Eves is at the present time visiting relatives and friends at and in the vicinity of the county seat.

Miss Bessie White who has been suffering from tonsillitis for the past month is reported on the gain at this time.

J. C. Gyger of the Nichols creamery, shipped 150 pounds of butter to North Platte merchants Monday. The Methodist church at Hershey is being repaired by F. C. Callaway.

Several beet raisers will make efforts to secure foreigners to cultivate their beet crop. The snow storm of Saturday and the following cold weather did not seriously effect stock in this section, as nearly all those having cattle have good shelter and plenty of feed for them. The snow will moisten the ground and thus prove beneficial to crops.

W. T. Miller, who has resided on a Paxton farm in the valley for the past four or five years and last year purchased what is known as the old Tom Stimson farm of J. R. White will take possession of it the first of March. At the time Mr. Miller purchased the farm D. B. White had leased it for last season and so remained there, but will vacate it on March first.

The voting of bonds in the county to erect a new court house seems to be the leading question among the tax-payers in this section.

John Harsh, of Stromberg, varied the monotony and led his arm into a cornsheller instead of a shredder. The arm was shredded just the same.

Fifty applications will be made to the Lincoln excise board for saloon licenses. The city now has forty saloons. Evidently the capital is booming.

Six hundred men of Beatrice engaged in a wolf hunt Friday and the noble six hundred killed three wolves. Right into the jaws of death rode the six hundred.

Robt. and Chas. Wiley have purchased of A. S. Carter of Omaha, 3,729 acres of land in the north part of Dawson county near Eddyville. They will use it for ranch purposes.

Coal rustling is receiving much attention of late, on the part of the U. P. officials. A good joke on the detectives is reported as happening one day last week. It was quite dark when the sharp-eyed watchers detected a man crossing the tracks with a sack on his back. He was detained and taken to the depot, where his sack was opened. It was found to contain—not coal—but clothes—dirty clothes, which he was taking home to wash for one of his customers. He was angry and said he did not want to steal coal. That he had enough money to piece together and make the detective a coat.—Lexington Citizen.

The citizens of Norfolk resent the idea that they are about to hold a mass convention at Omaha to protest against the retention of the tariff on sugar, because the Oxwards happen to be asking for such retention. They say, in the first place, that if a meeting were to be held it would be held in Norfolk, not Omaha, and secondly, that they are not as dissatisfied as represented with the prices paid by the sugar factory for beets. The News shows that a given number of farmers received for their last year's crop prices ranging, according to saccharine purity, from $4.45 to 6.25 a ton. It is made certain that the beet growers of Norfolk are not going to appear in opposition to the Oxwards in their efforts to prevent the free admission of Cuban sugar.
