Machinists' Annual Ball.

The third annual ball of the local union of Machinists was held last night at the opera house. The attendance was sufficiently large to comfortably fill the floor, and the attendants were largely members of the two regularly organized dancing clubs. This, therefore, meant good dancers and a nice class of people.

The music was pronounced excellent and this added much to the Salt Fish:enjoyment of the evening. As to Baker Perfect Galvanized there was no question, several repassed a more pleasant evening, pound.

The committee in charge has every reason to feel satisfied with the result of their efforts to give a nice ball.
