It is certainly encouraging to learn that the irrigation tarmers of the county are growing more interested all the time in the raising of sugar beets and as the season approaches the proposed acreage increases. It requires considerable labor to produce beets, but the returns certainly pay big-better than a wheat or corn crop, at the average tional Association which will meet prices. When Lancoln county produces one hundred thousand tons of beets annually no county in the state will be more prosperous.

A few of the business men are feeling somewhat "sore" over the rant Saturday for the arrest of removal of the postoffice, claiming Ralph Vinson charging him with that it will lose them business, belong to him. Montgomery and Sixth street think it will depreciate the value of their property. We are of the opinion, however, that these people are unduly alarmed. The business houses in the neighborhood of Sixth and Dewey streets are of too much prominence to be affected by a post office removal, and people who now patronize those houses will contique to do so. It may be true that the business of the city may eventually drift south and west, but it will be many years before Sixth and Dewey streets will cease to be the center of commercial activity
