

DON'T TAKE CHANCES.

In order to guard against the spread of contagious diseases all dwellings should be thoroughly disinfected after every case. It moving into an old house, you know not what disease germs may be lurking in the place. Protect yourself and family by having the place disinfected. Formaldehyde is recognized by the scientific world as the most powerful disinfectant known and when used judiciously will destroy all known bacteria without injuring furnishings in the room. Experience is required to do the work properly. Half way measures will not avail.

W. D. Hoover, at Howe's Furniture Store, is provided with a Formaldehyde Generator of the latest and best pattern, and is prepared to do disinfecting by the most approved up-to-date method.

Form a Circuit.

Messrs Warner, Richards and Cunningham returned Friday evening from Kearney where they attended a meeting of the base ball associations. At this meeting Cheyenne, North Platte, Kearney and Shelton were represented, and Grand Island and Minden will also be included in the circuit, which will be known as the Union Pacific Base Ball circuit. Another meeting will be held some time next month, when a schedule of games will be made and officers elected. The season will open the latter part of May.

The rules adopted provide that the visiting team shall be entitled to two games in succession. Grand Island, Shelton, Kearney and Minden shall pay the visiting teams $37.50 each for two successive games, North Platte will pay 50.00 and Cheyenne 80.00. In addition to these sums the home team shall pay the hotel bills of the visiting teams. The manager of each team puts up a guarantee of fifty dollars that he will carry out the agreement made. If rain prevents a game, the visiting team will receive the same amount as though the game had been played. The home team shall furnish the umpire. No manager will be allowed to hire a player of another team without permission of the player's manager.

Hold a Banquet.

B. I. Hinman Hose Co. No. 2 held a banquet at the Vienna Friday evening, at which were present the members, and a few ex-members of the company, Mayor Walker, Councilmen Lloyd, Iddings, Isenhart and Sullivan, Judge Hinman and the writer. The members assembled at the hose house and with their guests entered the Vienna at nine o'clock. Here covers were laid for thirty, and the spread served by the proprietors, was certainly a most creditable one, the menu embracing a large number of choice dishes nicely prepared. The banqueters did full justice to the spread.

Will Artz occupied the toastmaster's chair in lieu of John Dick, who had been selected for that position but was out of town. An address of welcome was delivered by Robert Weeks, foreman of the company, with a response by Councilman Isenhart. Mayor Walker responded to "The Fire Department," Mr. Iddings to "The Benefits of the Department" and P. H. Sullivan well told several stories and read a list of puns on the company and the guests which he had written, and which were decided hits.

Judge Hinman, after whom the company was named, responded to a toast in which he highly complimented the boys. Brief remarks were made by Councilman Lloyd, Ben Davis, Al Babbitt and this writer.

Taking the event as a whole it was a most successful one and certainly highly appreciated by the guests, all of whom feel justly proud of this company, as well as the entire fire department, and who ever stand ready to give all possible assistance in every way.

Resolutions.

North Platte, Neb., Feb. 15, '02
The following resolutions were adopted by Platte Lodge No. 118, Brotherhood of Boiler Makers and Iron Ship Builders, of North Platte, Neb:

WHEREAS, By the present method of employing labor in the navy yards, mechanics and laborers are no longer discriminated against by reason of their political proclivities, thereby eliminating all favoritism, there no longer exists any good reason why the building of vessels of war should not be prosecuted as economically and expeditiously in the various navy yards of the country as the same can be done by private contractors, and

WHEREAS, We feel satisfied that the assignment of a portion of this work to the navy yards would enable a larger proportion of the toilers of the country to participate in the benefits of the eight-hour day without corresponding loss to the government, therefore be it

Resolved, That our senators and representatives in Congress are earnestly requested to assist in having inserted in the naval appropriation bill authorizing the construction of war ships a provision that some of the vessels provided for in such bill shall be constructed in the navy yards of the country.

BETWEEN THE RIVERS.

Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Goodman of Hershey were visiting friends at North Platte last Saturday.

W. T. Miller will take charge of the J. R. White farm, which he purchased some time ago, the first of the coming month. D. B. White, who has resided on the farm for the past two years, will move to the Chas. McAllister farm that he has leased for this year.

Ellis McCord and family are at this time located on their farm just west of Hershey.

Light shipments of baled hay are being made west from the different stations up this way at the present time.

Hershey is one of the best locations for a hotel in western Nebraska. The right party would do well there by erecting and operating an up-to-date house.

W. J. Shinkle, E. C. McCord and S. L. Fankbouser will be among the heaviest sugar beet growers in the valley the coming year. The greatest acreage will be grown on old canal company land.

J. C. Gyger of the Nichols creamery is negotiating for the rental of the skimming station at North Platte.

It is said that A. W. Arnott, who reside on the Pawnee ranch last season, has leased the Sisson farm near Hershey for the ensuing season.

H. Newberry of McPherson county has been marketing oats from his valley farm at the county seat during the past week.

J. Dwyer, residing on the Sisson farm just north of Hershey, will on Monday of next week sell at public auction all of his personal effects consisting of cattle, horses, hay, grain, farming tools, household effects, etc.

W. H. Jenkins and family have arrived from Iowa and taken possession of the A. J. Eaton farm which he recently purchased. He will have a new residence erected on it at once. We understand that Jas. McMichael of North Platte is figuring for the contract of erecting it.

John Walters of North Platte was visiting friends in the valley the first part of the week.

Frank Loker spent Sunday with his brother V. M. Loker and family at Gannett.

Wm. Dymond will remain on the Brown farm at Nichols, now owned by L. P. Krone, the coming year.

Mr. and Mrs. Logan Loker, who expect to depart for California soon, have been visiting relatives and friends at Holdrege lately.

W. A. Paxton has shipped several cars of hogs from his ranch to South Omaha lately.

Dick Shinkle will move from the Newberry farm to an old canal company farm near Hershey the first of the coming month.

EVER FIGURE?

Did you ever stop and figure that small savings amount to a great deal in a short time?

That when you buy a spool of Thread or a spool of Silk of us for 4c instead of paying our competitors 5c for the same thing you have saved 25c on the dollar. Or that French Ginghams bought of us at 10c a yard of the same quality that our competitors get 12 1/2c for saves you 25c on the dollar. Metal Back Combs bought of us for 8c instead of the 10c you usually pay is 25c on the dollar saved. Pins bought of us for 2c a paper instead of 2 for 5c means 25c on the dollar. Waterproof Dress Binding bought of us for 8c a yd. is 25c on the dollar better than paying our competitors 10c for it. Shtland Floss bought of us at 8c a skein saves 25c on the dollar over 10c a skein. We could go on and fill a whole page with like instances. We hear of our competitors giving premiums and discounts. Did you ever stop to think that this store gives premiums and discounts as compared with the prices you pay our competitors every hour of the day, the store is open from one year's end to the other and that premium and discount is left in cash in our customers' pockets.
