FRIDAY, FEB. 28, 1902.

DR. F. W. MILLER, GRADUATE DENTIST.
 Office over Streitz's Drug Store.

W. A. Paxton of Omaha is transacting business in town today.

H. B. Read of Ogallala transacted business in town yesterday.

Mrs. Adelaide Staats went to Council Bluffs Wednesday night to visit a sister for a few days.

The O. E. S. will hold a social at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Langdon next Wednesday afternoon.

Talking Machines, talking machines, talking machines. Yes, at Doolittle's, North Platte's Music Store.

Rev. W. W. Scott, the Sunday school missionary, left this week on a trip to the central part of the state.

Wild ducks are increasing in numbers on the sloughs and many are being brought in by local hunters.

Bratt, Burke & Goodman offer for sale good stock cattle of different ages. Also have good heifers to exchange for steers.

Capt. Haskell came down from his McPherson county ranch yesterday and left last night on a business trip to Kansas City.

Commercial Fertilizer for Lawns at City Pharmacy, Dr. Longley.

Mrs. J. J. Halligan gave two luncheons this week, one on Tuesday afternoon, the other yesterday afternoon. Both proved pleasant events for the ladies present.

The ladies of the Christian aid society will meet with Mrs. Chas. Wilcox Wednesday afternoon, March 3d. Each member is requested to bring some friend with them.

The piano which is to be sold for the benefit of the base ball association is expected to arrive in a few days. There was a long delay by the factory in filling the order. The instrument is one which retails for $325.

Talking Machines, did you say! Well I should say yes, at Doolittle's Book and Music Store. It is a legitimate line in North Platte's Music Store.

A meeting of stockmen to consider the land lease bill now before congress will be held at the court house tomorrow afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Redmond entertained a number of friends at a high five party Wednesday evening. All report a pleasant time.

W. D. Hover, Embalmer, Howe's Furniture Store. Night call Telephone 90.

The indications today are that March will come in like a lion tomorrow. If so let us hope that it will go out like the proverbial lamb.

J. H. Derryberry and sons will sell at public auction on March 26th at the farm in Whittier several head of horses and a large lot of farming tools.

A recent letter received in this city from H. W. Hill, who is now located in Canon City, Oklahoma, states that he did not secure the position of post master.

Go to Doc Sizemore's Barber Shop. Their method of caring for the face is wonderful. Only 10c.

E. B. Warner has been elected manager of the base ball team and W. L. Richards assistant manager. Better selections for the positions could not have been made.

Judge Baldwin was busy yesterday taking depositions in the case of Henry B. Read vs the Valley Land & Cattle Co. which will be heard in the United States court.

The twenty-five or thirty Odd Fellows who went to Maxwell today to organize a lodge were taken down on a special train and will be brought back on a special. For this service the railroad company charged twenty-five dollars.

James Boyle was arrested Wednesday night for stealing coal from the Union Pacific company. He was brought before Judge Baldwin yesterday and fined one dollar and costs. Not being able to pay, he was remanded to jail to serve out that amount.

T. W. VanWie has opened a paint shop in the Hinman building on Front street where he is prepared to paint wagons and carriages. Work guaranteed satisfactory.

A recent letter received from Charley Samelson states that he is with his company and getting along finely. He acknowledges the receipt of some newspapers, one of which contained an obituary notice of himself and he wants to know, "if he isn't himself, who is he?"

E. F. Seeberger returned Wednesday night from his western trip. He was the guest of Supr. Park of the Wyoming division and traveled with Mr. Park in his private car. They went from Cheyenne to Pocatello, Idaho, thence to Salt Lake, Grand Junction and Denver, the trip covering about 2,500 miles. They made short stops at many places and spent a day at Grand Junction, which Mr. Seeberger says is an over-rated section. There are some good orchards, but the land susceptible of irrigation is of small area. While there they visited J. F. Jackson, formerly of this city. Mr. Seeberger reports a very pleasant trip.

For Lease.
 For coming year, 1480 acres good grazing land, water front, on Birdwood creek, with plenty good open range adjoining. Address John Bratt & Co., North Platte, Neb.

Y. M. C. A. NOTES.

Young man, do you know what you are worth? Come to the men's meeting at 3:30 next Sunday and hear Evangelist Samuel Gregg speak on that subject. It is expected that George D. McDill, international secretary of the railroad department, will be present. Let every man reading this notice tell his fellow neighbor and bring him along. C. P. Ross will have charge of the service.

At this writing our membership numbers 370 men in good standing. One of the first men to greet the new fellows coming to work at the shops is the secretary of the Y. M. C. A. Every stranger gets an invitation to visit the delightful rooms and it is not strange that nearly every one of them join the association.

The amounts subscribed to state and international work at the opera house meeting on January 19th are coming in nicely. The secretary will be glad to receive the remainder as soon as possible so as to close up the matter. S.

For Rent.

JOHN BRATT & CO.

Mrs. Henry Chestnut, of Paxton, has been spending a few days in town as the guest of Mrs. Fred Ginn.

From an Omaha paper it is learned that the company at Juneau, Alaska, in which Fred Nowell formerly of this city is interested, have sold their mining property for about two million dollars. The Nowells have been at Juneau for about fifteen years.

Doolittle's Music Store is the Musical Headquarters of the city. You can find anything there from a Talking Machine to a Jewsharp.

In our last issue M. H. Douglas advertised for the whereabouts of his wheelbarrow which some one had borrowed and neglected to return. The ink was scarcely dry on the paper before a man walked into this office and said Douglas would find his barrow at Walmath's beer vault. As M. H. has, along with all other railroad employes, taken the "Bart-cure" and would not go within a block of a beer vault for a farm, he will probably send a small boy for the barrow. This instance shows the value of advertising in THE TRIBUNE.

L. C. Hansen, late conductor on the Second district, left this morning for Denver where he will accept a position as brakeman on the Colorado Southern.

The Union Pacific company will increase its trackage in the yards at this place this summer. A local contractor has been asked to bid on a contract for 3,000 cubic yards of dirt which will be needed in grading the new track.

The examining committee is well along with the work of quizzing employes on the new rules of the Union Pacific company. The employes are examined in classes, and the time consumed in the classes of engineers and conductors is from five to six hours. The committee will be here for several days yet.

David Patterson, formerly of this city, has been appointed master mechanic on the Santa Fe and will assume the position tomorrow. For several weeks he will be located at Raton, N. M., but later will have permanent quarters at La Junta, Col. He will have charge of the motive power of 800 miles of road.

With the adoption of new operating rules by the Northwestern, Elkhorn and Union Pacific roads, it will be compulsory upon trainmen and station employes to adhere all lingo of the rail in their conversation with patrons of the road. They must conform strictly to the precedents and usages established by the dictionaries.
