Spring Work

On Farm, Garden and Lawn will soon begin and you may need tools—and these we keep. There is scarcely anything in this line we do not handle. In making his repairs for spring work the farmer will need Bolts, Nuts, Nails, etc., and this is the place he should buy them.

Bulk Garden Seeds

Will as usual be found at our store. Fresh seeds direct from reliable growers.

The Climate

Of Western Nebraska is hard on paint and it is almost money burned to use an inferior quality when painting your house. The best paint is by far the cheapest in the end.

Sherwin & Williams Paints

Have been sold by us for many years, and they have given universal satisfaction—time tried and not found wanting. We have a full stock on hand for the spring trade. If you have used it you will buy it again; if you have not used it, try it.

Held up and Robbed.

Gus Murphy was held up, severely beaten and robbed of twenty-five dollars at his home near Hershey Saturday night about eleven o'clock. Murphy lives alone in a small house and at the above hour two men appeared at the door and asked for lodging, but were told they could not be accommodated. They then asked for something to eat, and Murphy said he would get them a bag of crackers, which he proceeded to do, the men remaining outdoors. Murphy, however, grew suspicious, and when he went to the door with the crackers he took his gun. As he appeared at the door the two men jumped on him and severely beating him, took twenty-five dollars from his pocket.

Sheriff Carpenter was notified, went up Sunday morning and made an examination of the premises which showed that the men had ridden to Murphy's house on horses and the latter were tracked to Hershey. It is the prevailing opinion that the hold-up was committed by parties living in the vicinity of Hershey. Murphy says that in the struggle he hit a finger of one of the men, and this may perhaps lead to detection.

Murphy had kept four or five hundred dollars in his house, but a few days before the hold-up had deposited nearly all of it in the Sutherland bank. The men attacking him probably knew that he had been keeping this money in the house and hoped to secure it.

Cattle Men Meet.

North Platte, Neb., March 1, 1902.

On March 1, 1902, a meeting of the stockman of Lincoln county was held at the court house at North Platte, Nebraska, to consider the subject of the proposed lease law now before congress, and the following business transacted:

W. A. Mansfield was appointed to act as Chairman of the meeting and J. A. Fort elected as secretary. Mr. Mansfield stated the object of the meeting and then read the proposed lease law.

On motion the chairman appointed a committee of three on resolutions, consisting of Ashley Peters, Max McGrew and Henry Pollet, and the following resolutions as offered were discussed. Motion was then made that W. A. Mansfield be requested to act as chairman of committee on resolutions. Motion carried.

The meeting then temporarily adjourned pending the action of the committee which then occupied the office of the county superintendent, and on the return of the committee the following resolutions were read and unanimously adopted. Before adoption, however, several talks on the injury that the proposed lease law would inflict on the small cattle men of the west were made by several of the persons who were present.

RESOLUTIONS.

The committee on resolution, appointed by the chairman W. A. Mansfield, met in the committee room and adopted the following:

Resolved, that we are strongly opposed to the proposed lease law now pending in Congress, believing that its passage would work a great injury to the interests of western Nebraska and other portions of western America, where the stock industry is the leading business of the people, for the reason that its passage would concentrate this industry in the hands of but few individuals and work a great injury and harm to the smaller cattlemen of the west.

We also favor the passage of a new homestead law, which will allow settlers within the arid or sub-arid portions of the west, sufficient land upon which a profitable business can be transacted in the raising of cattle, horses or other stock; that the limit should be increased so as to allow the settler not less than one and not to exceed two sections of land.

COMMISSIONERS' PROCEEDINGS.

Feb. 27, 1902

Commissioners met pursuant to adjournment, present full board and county clerk

The board proceeded to Maxwell and inspected the Platte river bridges at that place, also the bridges in the canyons and crossing along the south side of the Platte river, crossing and inspecting the bridges across the several channels of the Platte river at Brady. All the bridges inspected were found in fair condition, except the plank in the floor of some of the bridges being badly worn, especially the one at Maxwell and the two longest ones south of Brady.

Feb. 28, 1902

The board proceeded to inspect the bridge across Pawnee creek where a new bridge is needed.

The bridge near Hendry was found to be in bad condition and the superintendent of said bridge instructed to repair the same. The bridge east of Maxwell was found to be in a good condition.

Adjourned until to morrow.
