John Taffe spent a day or two in Omaha this week.

C. P. Ross and his deputy went to Hershey to do some surveying for W. A. Paxton.

Mrs. Ed Storm will leave in a day or two for a visit with relatives in Council Bluffs.

Painting and Papering neatly done. Work guaranteed.
ROY SHAFER.

Music! Music! Music! The air is full of it. Talking machines at every other door, but Doolittle's the place to buy them, for the place to buy Music Goods is at a Music Store.

Miss Josephine Goodman was tendered a surprise party Wednesday evening by the pupils of her room, the occasion being her birth anniversary. The evening was a pleasant one for Miss Goodman as well as the pupils.

The meetings at Unitarian hall conducted by Evangelist Gregg are attracting extra large audiences and great interest is manifested. The members are now making an effort to secure a pastor for the ensuing year.

W. B. Millard and Judge James Neville were in town Tuesday on matters pertaining to the final settlement of the Keith estate. The final report of Mr. Millard was accepted by the counsel for the estate and the administrators discharged. The report of Mr. Millard showed that about sixty thousand dollars worth of personal property had been sold, and every cent involved in the transactions properly accounted for by Mr. Millard. The report was made out in a very complete manner.

TROUSERS

Who Makes Yours?

Quite an important question if you like GOOD Trousers. Did you ever try a pair of our finely tailored DUTCHESS TROUSERS.

They stand the wear and tear, the sit-down and get-up strain. Here is their guarantee; we stand back of every pair and the maker stands back of us.

- You buy a pair of Dutchess all-wool Trousers and wear them two months, and for every suspender button that comes off we will pay you 10 cents.
- If they rip at the waist we will give you 50 cents; if they rip up in theseat or elsewhere we will pay you one dollar or give you a new pair.

Our Show Window

Has just been trimmed with a line of these pants of which we are justly proud. We want you to look at them—compare them with other pants, compare the style of the garment, the construction, the general make up and see if you cannot see the difference; and then the price, too—

$2, $2.50, $3.00, $3.50, $4, $4.50, 5.00.

Come try them on; if we fail to satisfy you that The Star sells the best pants, that is our fault; if you go elsewhere and pay more, that is your fault.

Star Clothing House.

Clinton will have a grab sale Saturday, March 15th.

Platt White transacted business in Lexington yesterday.

A Mr. Chapman, of Custer county, was in town Tuesday sounding the republicans on the possible renomination of Governor Savage. He steered clear of this office, but we understand he received no encouragement whatever.

Miss Mary Greenlee will organize a class of piano and organ pupils at her home on west Fifth street.

Talking Machines, did you say! Well I should say yes, at Doolittle's Book and Music Store. It is legitimate line at North Platte's Music Store.

Thos. Burch, charged with stealing a harness from the Cody ranch was found guilty of larceny by the district court jury Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. H. S. White left yesterday morning for Tucson, Arizona, in response to a message stating that a relative was very ill.

New samples for spring and summer suits from Fred Kauffman, the American Tailor, of Chicago, are here. Come in and see them.

A. P. CARLSON, Agent. If you have no other church home, you are cordially invited to worship with the Presbyterians next Sabbath at all the services. Come, also to the mid-week service on Wednesday evening.

M. O. Andrewson left Tuesday night for Omaha where he will attend lectures and examinations on embalming for a week or ten days. From Omaha he will go to Minneapolis to visit friends.

Wall Paper, all grades, elegant designs. All fresh 1902 stock. No old patterns. Lowest prices. Howe's Furniture Store.

J. R. White, of Sellers, Ill., who was in town Tuesday, purchased the Hostetter farm west of Hershey of the North Platte L. & W. Co. for a consideration of about four thousand dollars. There are 160 acres in the place, nearly all of which can be irrigated, with good buildings and a fine orchard. D. B. White, brother of the purchaser, will reside on the farm.

RAILROAD NOTES.

Ballasting to be Resumed.
Grading and ballasting on the west end of the Western District of the Union Pacific will be resumed as early as the weather will permit. A large gang of men will be put on and the work pushed forward with all possible haste, the desire of the company being to finish that part of the Nebraska division as early as possible.

H. D. Luce, night foreman of the round house, went to Denver yesterday.

W. J. Hendy has been acting as night round-house foreman during the absence of H. D. Luce.

Tom Lynch, who is working at Cheyenne, has been spending this week with North Platte friends.

H. E. Moore has passed the necessary examination and will go on the road as a passenger brakeman.

Earl Owens has accepted a position in the store department made vacant by the transfer of Earl Lambert to the oil house.

Joe Mink has resigned his position as passenger brakeman on the Western District and will probably go west to "grow up with the country."

P. W. Sitton has resigned his position as passenger brakeman on the North Platte-Cheyenne run. He is undecided as to what he will do in the future.

Agent Genge has many inquiries relative to the reduced rates to Pacific coast points, and he thinks one hundred tickets for those points will be sold at the local office. Quite a number of tickets have already been sold.

H. G. Ritter, of the boiler shop, was struck in the left eye Wednesday forenoon with a flying chip of iron which cut it rather badly. He consulted Dr. McCabe, who advised him to go to Omaha to an oculist and he went down that night.

James Burns of Sidney and Jas. Donegan of this city have taken the examination for hostlers and when the present hostlers go back on the road as engineers, Burns and Donegan will probably be installed as permanent hostlers.

Since the Union Pacific inaugurated the cheap fare to Pacific coast points, passenger traffic has greatly increased. No. 5 Wednesday morning consisting of fourteen cars, and No. 3 the following night had five extra coaches attached.

Frank Tracy and George Vroman were in Omaha this week and conferred with General Manager Dickinson in regard to local B. O. L. E. matters. We understand that in the matter of having C. L. Black re-instated the committee received no encouragement.

A Pretty Opera.

Prominent in the list of the most important offerings of the season is "Jack and the Beanstalk" which is to be given at the opera house next Tuesday evening, March 11th, when with all the wealth of the original production and including an excellent cast of well known characters, "Jack" will undoubtedly delight the patrons of our playhouse as heretofore all over the country. Each act abounds with indescribable interest, there is much delightful music, a score of beautiful girls, dazzling scenes, wonderful mechanical and electrical effects, gorgeous costumes, intricate marches and bewildering ballets, in fact there is as much in this rare offering as would constitute a half dozen other attractions, and well suited to all classes, including the most critical taste.

Notice to Teachers.

Since the meeting of the Lincoln County Teachers' Association conflicts with the regular teachers' examination, I will hold examination for teachers Friday and Saturday forenoon, March 14th and 15th, 1902.

OSCAR W. NEALE,
County Supt.

Union Services.

The M. E. and Christian church congregations will join in a union service next Sunday evening at the M. E. church. Evangelist Samuel Gregg will preach. Subject: "Volcanoes of Moral Corruption." Special music.

Watch Clinton's window for grab sale articles.

Clarence Alexander, of Cheyenne, has been in town for a few days visiting friends.

Miss Cora and Loren Sturges attended the wedding of a friend at Paxton Wednesday evening.

Si Alexander, who was secretary of state in the early 80's, but now in the insurance business, renewed acquaintance with friends in town yesterday.

Loren Sturges brought in a lot of buffalo fish yesterday from the lake on his ranch north of the river. They were of good size and found a ready sale at McGlone's.

George Maloney has retired from the firm of Landgraf & Maloney and the business will be conducted by Mr. Landgraf. Mr. Maloney will probably seek a location in the west.

Forty-seven Ranges Sold Since Aug. 1st.

That people appreciate good articles when they see them is attested by the fact that we have sold forty-seven Ranges since August 1st, and we are selling them right along. But Ranges are not all; our sales of Heating Stoves have been very large. This business only tends to show that we carry superior Stoves and Ranges and sell them at right prices.

Harrington & Tobin.

R. H. Langford of this city has prepared an exceedingly fine lecture for the late, lamented President McKinley which he contemplates delivering at different towns in this and other states. He has already had several invitations to go to different towns in Indiana and the Marquette Club of Chicago is corresponding with a view to have the lecture given in that city. Mr. Langford is an effective speaker and his lecture will undoubtedly be a success.
