Assessors' Meeting.

The county assessors met in session Tuesday afternoon as provided by law. All but three were present, those absent being W. A. Lattimer of Dickens, G. F. Palmer of Hieman and C. S. Kilmer of Table. E. L. Caress was elected chairman and David Love secretary. Upon motion the chair appointed W. C. Dolan, J. J. O'Rourke, John Keleher, J. W. Beavers, Ashley Peters and Harry Beam a committee to consider the valuation of personal property. This committee met and reported as follows:

Horses of all ages, American and broke, forty dollars.

Bronchos and unbroke, fifteen dollars.

Stallions to be valued by assessors.

Cattle of all ages from six months old up, fifteen dollars.

Milch cows and thoroughbreds, twenty-five dollars.

Mules, forty dollars.

Sheep, two dollars.

Hogs, forty cents per 100 pounds.

All other personal and real estate to be assessed at one-fifth actual value.

The assessed valuation on live stock will be one-fifth of the sums named above. This makes the assessment practically the same as last year.

Citizens' Ticket.

A number of voters met at the office of I. A. Fort Tuesday evening and placed in nomination the following ticket:

Mayor—August Hazencamp.

Clerk—George Dowlen.

Treasurer—W. A. Getty.

Councilmen—First ward A. M. Mason, Second ward E. P. McGrew, Third ward David Scott.

The platform adopted is: Economy in the conduct of city affairs and the enforcement of law. This platform is certainly broad enough to suit anyone, and yet indefinite as to certain matters. If it is proposed to enforce the Slocumb liquor law to the exact letter of the law it means prohibition.

Platte Valley Colonization.

Fifteen thousand is the number of people the Union Pacific railway hopes to bring into Nebraska and locate along the Platte river valley. That the home colonization project of this railroad was so vast as this had not been imagined by Immigration Agent George L. McDonough of the system said yesterday that he had room for about that many and intended to put them in if untiring energy could do it.

The local colonization scheme has two features. First, the railroad has determined upon Dunkards as the exclusive colonist class for this project. The thrift, superior agricultural husbandry and general high moral standard of these people influenced the choice. The other feature is the method which the road has employed to gain the desired end. It has put the matter into the hands of a Dunkard himself, and a prominent one. Mr. McDonough is of that faith and is known the country over. When it was decided last December to bring Dunkards to Nebraska he was appointed immigration agent for the road to handle this affair. During the three months that have elapsed since then he has been busy among his brethren and the wholesale migration is about to start now.

The Dunkards are to be brought from Illinois, Indiana and as far east as Pennsylvania. The idea that is strongest in prevailing upon them to move is that they can sell their present farm holdings for $125 or $150 an acre, come to Nebraska and buy better land for $25 an acre.

BETWEEN THE RIVERS.

A. B. Goodwin ditch rider for the old irrigation canal company is at the present time with a crew of men and teams making needed repairs on it in the way of cleaning it out and fixing checks and drops.

Sand-bill cranes, brandt, ducks and geese are quite numerous in the valley at the present time and the local sports are after them not and heavy.

Amos Bourbeau of Albany, Wisconsin, who was the guest of his daughter Mrs. W. E. Park for a few days about a month ago, has returned after visiting relatives over north and at Brady. He will also visit relatives at Denver before returning home.

Donald McLaughlin purchased a good team of work horses of J. H. Jenkins over north the other day.

Sam Funkhouser, as soon as the weather will permit, will commence work at the headgate of the old canal with a gang of men and teams.

Cattle in this locality are looking fine at this time but hay is scarce and a week or two of cold stormy weather would be tough on them.

A. W. Arnett formerly of the Pawnee ranch is now located on the Sisson farm recently vacated by J. M. Dwyer.

Everybody who wants to work are busy at the present time in this locality.

Merchant I. E. Ware of Hershey was interviewing a dry goods salesman at the county seat on Wednesday of this week.

S. L. Funkhouser has lately erected a new windmill on his farm at Hershey.

F. H. Feeken of Crete has been looking after business and also visiting his son John in the valley the past week.

A. H. Jenkins who resided on D. W. Baker's farm last season is now located on the old canal farm lately occupied by A. W. Arnett.

W. H. Jenkins who recently purchased the Eaton farm entered into a contract on Monday of this week with James McMichael a contractor and builder of the county seat to erect him a two story eight room farm residence at once. Mr. McMichael will purchase the material for the same of W. H. Hill manager of the Hershey lumber and hardware company.

The revival meeting which had been in progress at Hershey for two weeks closed last Tuesday evening. These meetings were well attended and a deep interest manifested from start to finish. Several conversions are reported. Rev. Greenlee of North Platte preach Monday night and Rev. Wimberly preached Tuesday night. W. T. Miller is having some needed repairs put on his farm residence at this time in the way of plaster and paint.

J. K. Eshleman assessor elect for Nichols precinct attended the county assessor's meeting at North Platte on Tuesday this week. He was accompanied to that city by his wife and daughter Maud.

Macomber-Beehan Wedding.

Geo. A. Macomber and Miss Mary Beehan were united in marriage Wednesday evening at the home of the bride's parents northwest of town, Rev. Wimberly officiating. The bride was attended by her sister Miss Emma Beehan and the groom by Geo. Patterson. A large number of friends of the contracting parties were present, and following the ceremony a supper was served. Mr. and Mrs. Macomber were the recipients of a large number of presents.

The bride and groom are well known in this section, both having lived here for a number of years, and they enjoy the good-will and friendship of many. They are very worthy young people and are entitled to all the good things of life, and these this writer hopes they will always have.

Mr. and Mrs. Macomber will live on the Major Walker ranch.

High School Entertainment.

At the auditorium of the High School Friday evening, March 21, 1902, the high school will give an entertainment consisting of exhibition drills by the Girls' Gynnasium Club, music by the High School Orchestra and essays upon appropriate topics.

The proceeds of the entertainment will be devoted to High School Athletics.

J. C. ORR.

Oden Eager, a farmer living near Niobrara, put some strychnine in a tea cup and set it away in the pantry. Later one of the children procured the cup and drank some milk from it. The fact that the child had swallowed poison was soon discovered, but before medical aid could be procured the little one was dead.

Some months ago a man and woman calling themselves J. W. Carlile and wife appeared at Bloomington and the man engaged in business. Later a brother of Carlile's appeared from Algiers, Ind., and stated Carlile had abandoned a wife and two children at his Indiana home and eloped with the woman who was with him at Bloomington. He also stated that the man had forged the name of his mother to papers on which he had secured several thousand dollars. Carlile turned over all his property to his brother for the benefit of the wife and mother and then disappeared with the woman who had been living with him in Bloomington.

T. W. VanWie has opened a paint shop in the Hinman building on Front street where he is prepared to paint wagons and carriages. Work guaranteed satisfactory.
