A Great Novelty.

A real theatrical novelty is "A Honor Dinner," the four act art comedy drama which appears in the opera at the 15th Avenue, beginning April 26th.

The cast consists of fifty-five actors, all of whom are members of the local stock companies, and the play is produced under the personal management of Mr. H. E. Kaye.

The story is a farce, and is written in the style of American comedy, with a touch of sentiment and a dash of humor.

The leading parts are played by Mr. H. E. Kaye, Miss Mabel B. Stone, Miss Mabel B. Stone, and Miss Mabel B. Stone.

The play is a success, and is well received by the public.

The impression is that the play will be a great success, and will run for a long time.
