REPUBLICAN COUNTY CONVENTION

A Republican County Convention for Lincoln county, Nebraska, will be held in the city of North Platte, Nebraska, on Saturday, June 7, 1902, at ten o'clock a. m.

The several precincts within said county are entitled to send to said convention one delegate at large and one for each twenty votes or major fraction thereof cast therein for the Hon. R. H. Sedwick for supreme judge at the 1901 election, as follows:

It is recommended that the precinct primaries be held on Wednesday, June 4, 1902.

Announcement.

I hereby announce myself a candidate for county attorney subject to the action of the republican convention.

PENDING the action of a general convention to be held at Hazleton in a few days all miners in the anthracite region of Pennsylvania have quit work.

D. E. THOMPSON and his political associates have issued a circular inviting subscriptions for stock in a daily evening newspaper to be published in Lincoln.

AS THE result of a volcanic eruption last Friday on the island of Martinique, the city of St. Pierre was obliterated and the loss of life is placed at 25,000.

DICKENS DOINGS. R. D. Sheridan, of Blue Hill, Neb., shipped in two cars of high grade Shorthorn cattle last week to go on his ranch south of town.

Joe Allen sold his ranch a few days ago to Mr. Everts of McCook, who has placed 250 head of cattle on the same.

Mrs. Julia Jolliff, returned Friday from California where she had gone in October to visit with her son William and family at Riverside.

Chas. Hublitz bought a new Dempster windmill which he needed with his increasing herd of cattle.

W. B. Votaw, of Maywood, bought two cars of two and three year old steers in this vicinity last week and shipped them to Omaha Monday.

A. H. Davis, of North Platte, attended a church in our town Tuesday evening. The minister failing to meet his appointment, and Mr. Davis having the appearance of a reverend gentleman was of course requested to occupy the pulpit, but he very gracefully declined.
