Announcement.

I hereby announce myself a candidate for county attorney subject to the action of the republican convention. A. H. DAVIS.

SINCE the awful catastrophe at Martinique, considerable being said by some of the papers about a little hillock in Cedar county called Iona which according to report is threatening to erupt and destroy the people with a destructive shower of fire, smoke, and melted lava; but the state that has successfully emerged from the populistic wave which inundated the country a few years ago, has little to fear from a volcano of much greater destructive power than the little belcher of Cedar county.

In making the statement that A. E. Cady of St. Paul would make a winning race for governor and after his election would make a model chief officer, it may be charged that we are trying to sidetrack his chances for election to congress in the Big Sixth, but any such intention is positively disavowed. The only object in view is to harmonize the various interests so that the republican party can present an impregnable front to the enemy, and administer a drubbing to the fusion forces equal to the defeat which they experienced a year ago when Judge Sedgwick was triumphantly elected.

The editor of "The Commoner," who in the last national campaign positively asserted that the republican administration had not the remotest intention of keeping its pledge with the Cubans to give them an independent government, is now visiting Cuba to gather material for an article on the turning over of Cuba to the Cubans, and to study conditions generally in the Island. This would seem to be the irony of fate that the twice defeated candidate for president would undertake to furnish an article on what he and his followers confidently declared would never materialize, but the doughty Colonel is equal to the occasion.

Much has been said in the past regarding the populistic tendencies of the western portion of Nebraska, but comparing the vote with that of the eastern part, and then taking into consideration the population, the fact becomes apparent that the western counties have, as a general proposition, adhered closer to the time honored principles of republican party than have those of the east. If this is true, those in the west have a claim on the state which should not be ignored which is that the western part should be given what they have seldom had, a candidate for one of the more important state offices. It is scarcely fair, and far from judicious, to hold all the offices in the east, simply because a preponderance of votes in the convention enables this to be done. Divide up, gentlemen, divide up.

Big Suit Sale at the Fair Friday and Saturday, May 16th and 17th --

The Fair has made arrangements with Mr. L. C. Gregg to have on sale at The Fair on the above named days an immense line of Ladies' Suits and Skirts. The prices made on every garment will be such as to make it a bargain to the buyer. Owing to an unfortunate duplication of orders, Mr. Gregg has twice as large a stock as he should have, hence this sale in North Platte.

The prices on these Suits will range from $6.00 to $25.00, and on Skirts from $2.00 to $10.00. These are all this season's garments, and are up-to-date in every particular. They can not be duplicated for double the price elsewhere. Every lady in North Platte and vicinity should call for she will find it to her advantage in getting ideas, even should she not wish to buy.

Remember the dates—Friday and Saturday, May 16th and 17th.

THE FAIR S. RICHARDS, Proprietor.

An ex-soldier from the Philippines named Boardman, was a witness the other day before the the senate committee in regard to matters and things on the islands. His testimony was favorable to the army, and he was satisfied with everything except Uncle Sam's "grub," particularly some can salmon and a prepared food used in soups. Later Senator Dietrich of Nebraska, a member of the committee, accompanied by Senator Beveridge, invited Mr. Boardman to luncheon at the Senate restaurant where he was served with a palate-tickling repast, some of that same salmon in a salad and the food preparation in soup being conspicuous on the bill and heartily relished by Boardman. The senators did not tell him that he had been feeding on some of the same stuff that he had condemned in the committee room, but he has probably by this time heard of the practical joke played on him by the senator from Nebraska—Kearney Hub.
