Nativity School Closes.

The Nativity School closed yesterday after a very successful year, during which 117 pupils were enrolled. Parents of the pupils express themselves as well pleased with the progress made.

For three days prior to the closing of the school, an exhibition of the work of the pupils was made. This included all branches of studies, and each pupil had a piece of work in the exhibit. The showing made was certainly attractive and creditable, reflecting praise alike on the pupils and the instructors.

Miss Staatz's Concert.

The rehearsals for the concert to be given June 6th by Miss Staatz are progressing very satisfactorily and the rendition of the program is certain to please.

The numbers on the program will consist of two four-handed piano selections, two violin solos by Prof. Garliche, vocal solos by Misses Hattie Schmalzried and Mable Davis, a vocal trio, a male quartette or octette and the Floradora Sextette and the Animated Scale. These two latter numbers are novelties and will prove particularly enjoyable.

The complete program will be published later.

The Largest Elephant on Earth.

Secured at a cost of over $25,000. A Towering Giant among his fellows: Whose stately tread makes the earth tremble, and whose bulky proportions necessitate a special car of enormous proportions to carry him from town to town. A whole ship's hold was sacrificed, and over 60 tons of cargo displaced and the space devoted entirely to his occupancy in transit to this continent. Therefore the expense of transportation alone was more than the cost of any other feature in the show world today. Towering like a colossus in The Giant Pan-American Show which will exhibit at North Platte on June 3rd.

Patterson-Macomber Wedding.

George F. Patterson and Miss Nettie Macomber were united in marriage Wednesday evening at the home of the bride's brother, George Macomber on the Walker ranch northwest of town, Rev. Thomas B. Greenlee officiating.

The ceremony was attended by over 130 invited guests, about thirty of whom were from town, and the wedding was a very pretty one. The bride was attended by Miss Cora Sturges, and Will Patterson, brother of the groom, was the best man. Following the ceremony a wedding supper was served, with ample provision for the large number of guests. Mr. and Mrs. Patterson were the recipients of a large number of gifts.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. S. Macomber, and was born and grew to womanhood in this section. She is a bright young lady, highly esteemed by all acquaintances, and possesses those characteristics which make the queen of a home. Mr. Patterson has been a resident of the county for eight or ten years, living with his parents on the ranch northeast of town. He is an ambitious young man of excellent character and is popular with all acquaintances.

Mr. and Mrs. Patterson will reside on the Sturges farm, the groom having furnished the house nicely prior to the ceremony. The writer unites with their friends in wishing them a happy and prosperous married life.

SENATOR FRYE CAUGHT A DUCK

But the Distinguished Statesman Was Fly-Fishing at the Time.

There was a session of the Congressional Fishing club in the coat rooms. "Did you ever hear?" asked Senator Blackburn, "of the time Senator Frye caught the duck? It was this way: His specialty is fly-fishing, and casting from a moving canoe. Well, one day in the fall we were fishing up above, anchored under the lee of a projecting point of land.

"Just watch me cast a minnow," said the senator, as he sent the bait whirling far out into the river. Hardly had the minnow struck the water until the line paid out and the reel began to sing.

"It's a five-pounder!" cried the boatman. "Let him run, senator, let him run!"

"Well, there was some excitement. The reel kept singing the sweetest music in the world to a fisherman. At length the line was all run out, and much to the senator's surprise the rod was pointed straight up in the air, instead of toward the water.

"The old boatman nearly fell in a fit in the bottom of the boat with laughter, for there, up in the sky, soared a wild duck, with the senator's minnow. "Pull up," said the senator, in disgust, "and let's go back to the clubhouse. I'll fish in the rain barrel off the porch with Uncle Joe Cannon and Dave Henderson for the rest of this trip."

Fraternity in Socialism.

Father Thomas McGrady of Bellevue, Ky., and Rev. George E. Bigelow, a Baptist preacher of Lincoln, Neb., were speakers at a socialist mass meeting in Philadelphia the other evening. Each declared his unqualified indorsement of the principles of socialism and opposition to the competitive system now in operation.
