Announcement.

I hereby announce myself a candidate for county attorney subject to the action of the republican convention. A. H. DAVIS.

A VICTORY FOR THE STATE.

Ex-State Treasurer J. S. Bartley's official bondsmen are held liable for any shortage that may have occurred during Bartley's second term and the burden of proving that the shortage did not occur during that term devolves upon them.

This is the effect of the decision of the supreme court written by Commissioner Roscoe Pound and filed yesterday evening. The case is reversed and remanded to the district court of Douglas county with instructions that the only question remaining is whether the shortage occurred during the second term.—Lincoln Journal.

MORE immigrants landed at Ellis island during May than in any similar month in fifteen years.

Nearly all were of the laboring class, and were probably attracted here by the unsettled condition of labor in the mining sections of the east.

The Oregon republicans lost their candidate for governor in the election last Tuesday. Efforts to build up a machine didn't suit the voters, hence they administered a rebuke to the leaders. The remainder of the republican state ticket was elected.

The old question of whether Great Britain helped the United States in the Spanish war was brought up again in Parliament and Lord Cranborne replied on behalf of the Foreign office that he could find no trace of any assurances, either verbal or written, regarding the conduct or policy of Great Britain toward that war. We shall have to conclude that we whipped Spain all alone.—Boston Globe.

The Washington correspondent of the Grand Island Independent says it is given out with reliable assurance in Washington by the friends of Congressman Neville that he will not permit his name to go before the sixth district convention for nomination, although it is thought that he is the strongest available candidate who might be nominated. It is claimed that the condition of Mr. Neville's health will not permit him to undergo the strain of another campaign.

Dickens Doings.

Fine weather for crops, grass growing and stock doing fine. Hunter & Dukes, the well men who have been repairing wells around Wallace, are putting down a well north of town for Mr. Purbaugh this week.

Miss Edith Powell, who has been visiting with L. P. Hodges and family, left Tuesday evening for her home at Venango, Neb.

Charlie Thomas went to North Platte Monday with a load of eggs for Cecil Tuell & Co.

Miss Ida Slinkard departed Tuesday morning for Wellfleet, where she expects to stay a few days.

C. A. Robinson of Kearney, who has just purchased several sections of land north of town, was in these parts last week looking over his new possessions. If you are in search of a home just write Mr. Robinson.

Hugh Sanger reports having a good time with his bran new top buggy, Sunday, which arrived a few days ago. Good for Hugh!

Happy Time in Old Town.

"We feel very happy," writes R. N. Bevil, Old Town, Va., "when Buckner's Arnica Salve wholly cured our daughter of a bad case of scald head. It delights all who use it for Cuts, Corns, Burns, Bruises, Boils, Ulcers, Eruptions, Infallible for Piles. Only 25c at Streitz's Drug Store."

TAUGHT LESSON IN POLITENESS

Small Girl Reminds Learned Man of His Breach of Etiquette.

Nora's strong point is politeness. Whenever anybody does anything for her she says "Thank you," and when she performs a service for another she expects to be rewarded with a like courtesy. Such being her high ideals, she meets a good many people who fall short of her social standard. Mr. Bickmore is one of these delinquents. Mr. Bickmore does not mean to be rude, but he is a student and preoccupied and has not time always to observe the small amenities of life.

THE PROFESSIONAL LETTER THIEF

Bold Rogues of Paris Rob the Street Letter Boxes.

In Paris the gentle art of letter stealing has reached such proportions as to call for government interference. The letter thief goes about with a little wire, one end of which is bent into a sharp hook, and fishes letters out of the street letter boxes when nobody is looking. Last year the French postal authorities estimate that no less than 93,000 letters were thus stolen. Now they are putting up boxes with sharp teeth in the elts for posting, which, they hope, will render it impossible for the thieves to continue their letter fishing successfully.

Like Some Others.

A New York alderman who had an invitation to attend a circus five wrote that he would bring the family if fifteen tickets were sent to him. They were sent and he took his wife and their seven children, his sister-in-law and her five children.

Large Parks in Europe.

Ireland possesses the biggest park in the United Kingdom. This is the Phoenix park, Dublin. It is three miles long and two wide. The largest private park to be found in England. It surrounds Kridge castle, a seat of the earl of Abergavenny. It contains nearly eleven square miles.

CANCEROUS ULCERS

Are in many respects like other ulcers or sores, and this resemblance often proves fatal. Valuable time is lost in fruitless efforts to heal the sore with washes and salves, because the germs of Cancer that are multiplying in the blood and the new Cancer cells which are constantly developing keep up the irritation and discharge, and at last sharp shooting pains announce the approach of the eating and sloughing stage, and a hideous, sickening cancerous sore begins its destructive work.

No ulcer or sore can exist without some predisposing internal cause that has poisoned the blood, and the open discharging ulcer, or the festering sore on the lip, cheek or other part of the body will continue to spread and eat deeper into the flesh unless the blood is purified and the Cancer germs or morbid matter eliminated from the circulation.

S. S. S. cleanses the blood of all decaying effete matter. It has great antitodal and purifying properties that soon destroy the germs and poisons and restore the blood to its natural condition. And when pure blood is carried to the ulcer or sore the healing process begins, the discharge ceases and the place heals over and new skin forms. S. S. S. is a strictly vegetable blood purifier containing no mercury or minerals of any description.

If you have an ulcer or chronic sore of any kind, write us about it, medical advice will cost you nothing. Books on Cancer and other diseases of the blood will be sent free. THE SWIFT SPECIFIC CO., Atlanta, Ga.
