Frank Brooks, of Nichols, THE TRIBUNE's able "Between the Rivers" correspondent, spent Wednesday in town. It was his first visit in the metropolis in several weeks.

We learn from the Lincoln Journal that our townsman, Deputy Game Warden Carter has been arrested on a charge of making false arrests, the complainants being residents of Holt county. Mr. Carter has been making it pretty warm for the violators of the game and fish law in that county, and they are evidently attempting to play "even" with him.

Several additional citizens have caught the "trout fever," and will join the party which leaves this evening for Glen Eyrie, Col. The party as now constituted will comprise Judge Grimes, Will Woodhurst, Geo. Graham, Geo. Field, H. S. Ridgley, Henry Waltemath, Geo. Tekulve and I. L. Bare. The members of the party are looking forward to a week or ten days of good sport.

The two national banks of York have $1,000,000 on deposit, of which 80 per cent of the money is owned by the farmers of York county. The outside banks in the smaller towns of York county, with a capital stock ranging from 5,000 to 10,000, have deposits of 50,000 to 100,000 more and in some case the deposits are twenty times the amount of the capital stock.

After hearing the evidence, the jury decided this week that the property on the Ruble farm belonged to Gottlieb Ruble and was therefore subject to sale under the judgment which was secured for costs in the case of Ruble against Steinhauer. Ruble attempted to make it appear that the property belonged to a man in California, but his testimony was very flimsy.

The first tournament in the history of the association was held in that city—an event still alive in the memory of many of the old guard—and Grand Island not only royally entertained at that time but will outdo her former efforts this time. The citizens have liberally contributed for prizes, have secured a half fare rate on all railroads and will show all visitors a fine time. A fine program has been arranged for each day—August 5th, 6th and 7th.

RAILROAD NOTES.

Dismantling U. P. Machinery.
Two lathes, one planer and one drill press were dismantled at the Union Pacific shops and will be shipped at once to Grand Island and Sidney. In conversation with Master Mechanic Barnum, THE TRIBUNE editor learned that it is quite likely that more of the machinery will be moved to those points, as the four machines dismantled will not be sufficient to do the work which in the future will be performed at those two division terminals.

It was further learned from Mr. Barnum that in the future only what is known as round-house repairs will be done at North Platte, and that he has received instructions from his superiors to that effect. While the maximum force of machinists in the past at this point has been about forty, in the future the maximum number will not exceed fourteen and will probably average ten. The force in the other departments will be reduced in a corresponding ratio.

Several of the engines at this point which now need heavy repairs will be sent to Omaha today and tomorrow, and two of the 1600 class which came out of the Omaha shops Thursday will be sent here at once. Mr. Barnum said there were sixty-six machinists, ten boiler-makers and five flue setters at work in the Omaha shops, and that with that force the present needs in the way of heavy repairs to engines on the Nebraska division could be attended to.

The company will maintain repair shops at both Grand Island and Sidney, the force at the respective points to be governed by the needs in the way of repairs. Asked as to whether the strike had influenced the company in curtailing the force at North Platte he said that in his opinion it had, though he had not been so informed directly by the head officials. He had understood some time ago that extensions to the North Platte shops had been planned, but he was positive that those plans had now been forever abandoned.

Mr. Barnum, who has ever had a warm place in his heart for North Platte and its people, regretted exceedingly that it had been decided to so radically curtail the force at this point. The reduction, which will amount to between fifty and seventy-five per cent of the former normal force will be made gradually until the new Omaha shops are completed, when the full curtailment will be made.

Important if True.

Wednesday's daily papers contain a dispatch from New York to the effect that Governor Odell, of that state, will retire from politics and accept an executive position with the Union Pacific railroad at a salary of one hundred thousand dollars a year.

This is taken to mean that President Burt of the Union Pacific will step down and out, and that he will be succeeded by Gov. Odell. Should this occur, it means that the strike on the Union Pacific will be speedily settled, and that the men who have been out for thirty-two days will return to work, that piece-work will not be adopted, and that everything will again run smoothly.

Beginning Wednesday morning the Union Pacific shops began working ten hours per day.

One of the Union Pacific guards was arrested yesterday forenoon on the charge of being drunk and disorderly and lodged in jail.

Master Mechanic Barnum spent yesterday in town. He says a large amount of work is being turned out of the Union Pacific shops at Omaha.

Ten imported men came in from the east Wednesday night and went to work in the local shops yesterday. Five of the strike-breakers quit work Wednesday.

Two engines which had been in the shops for repairs, were completed and brought out today. An engine was sent from here to the Omaha shops for repairs Wednesday night.

Sam Grace, of this city, now stationed at Omaha as district secretary of the international association machinists, has received word from the immigration bureau at Washington stating that the Union Pacific company cannot import workmen from Scotland. About the first of last month Secretary Grace received an intimation that the company had decided to import a large number of machinists from Scotland, and he at once wrote the authorities at Washington as to the right of the company to do so. Such a move would be stopped by the government.

Yesterday's Omaha Bee contained the following: It was reported last night upon what was considered reliable authority that orders have come from Cheyenne not to send any more freight cars there unless they are to go through the city as all the available sidetrack space is occupied with loaded cars, and that if more are sent they will have to stand on the main line. The cars in the "hole" there are said to contain perishable goods, all perishable goods being rushed through. It is reported from the same source that all trains are taken up the Cheyenne hill by double-headers, so that if one engine gives way the other can relieve it. The reports of impaired motive power come not from strikers but other sources.

S. C. Mecomber, chairman of the O. R. C. protective board went to Omaha the early part of the week, and will probably remain there for some time on matters pertaining to the advance of wages which will be demanded on August 15th. In speaking of Mr. Mecomber's presence in Omaha, yesterday's Bee said: While the original intention of the trainmen on the Union Pacific, acting in concert with their fellow workmen on all other trunk lines west of the St. Lawrence river, was to make a specific demand for a general increase in pay and a new schedule August 15th, it is rumored in some quarters that owing to the shopmen's strike this action may be taken sooner than first decided on. Mr. Mecomber, it is understood, is here to view the situation and decide upon the best course. He was in conference yesterday with District Secretary Grace of the machinists. It is understood that the mutual interests of the present strikers and the trainmen will lend a guiding influence to the course of the latter, whatever they may decide to do.

A Farmer Makes Easy Money.

THE TRIBUNE knows of a farmer living near North Platte who purchased 160 acres of land last September and sold the tract a few days ago for an advance of four hundred dollars. The sale did not include the crop on the land, which the farmer values at twelve hundred dollars. In purchasing the land the farmer only made a partial payment of one hundred dollars, the other payments to be made later, but he sold at the advanced price before the second payment became due.

The right kind of a man, it seems, can make easy money on Lincoln county land.

All Were Saved.

"For years I suffered such untold misery from Bronchitis," writes J. H. Johnston, of Broughton, Ga., "that often I was unable to work. Then, when everything else failed, I was wholly cured by Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption. My wife suffered intensely from Asthma, till it cured her, and all our experience goes to show it is the best Croup medicine in the world." A trial will convince you it's unrivalled for Throat and Lung diseases. Guaranteed bottles 50c and $1.00. Trial bottles free at A. F. Streit's.

The funeral of Mrs. Wm. Robinson was held Wednesday afternoon, the Union Pacific blacksmiths and helpers attending. The deceased leaves a husband and one little girl to mourn the loss of a devoted wife and mother.

James Belton has completed a cement walk along his residence premises on west Fourth street. This walk, Mr. Belton says, did not cost much more than had he laid brick, and it is certainly much better and neater appearing than the brick walks.

THE TRIBUNE inadvertently omitted to mention the arrival of a ten pound girl baby at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Schatz last Saturday morning. As a result of the advent of this little one "Doc" displays a jubilant feeling that indicates that he is the happiest man in town.

Julius Pizer leaves in a few days for the east to purchase a stock of fall and winter goods, and to make room for this stock certain lines will be closed out at greatly reduced prices. High class dress goods in short lengths will be sold at a small fraction of their value, odds and ends in shoes at less than cost, summer shirt waists at half their value, dress trimmings at surprisingly low prices and summer millinery almost given away. Nice line of wash good remnants very cheap. Take advantage of these bargains, which can be found only at The Leader.

The Best Cattle Dip.

No one can afford to take the risk of experimenting with home-made cattle or sheep dips when the best coal-tar dip can be had at 60 to 70 cents per gallon. The Geo. H. Lee Co., of Omaha quote this price on their Lee's Carbolic Dip which is endorsed by the Nebraska State Experiment Station and by hundreds of leading stockmen. Write for new catalogue and testimonials.
