Congressman Neville Denies Reports.

In yesterday's World-Herald there was published a lengthy interview with Congressman Neville, who was in Omaha that day, relative to the situation in this city, and he, as all other citizens have done, denounced the slander which has been cast upon the city. Mr. Neville in part said:

"I left home Sunday morning about 8 o'clock. Governor Savage was then there, so I was informed as I got on the train. I had been at home about three weeks, having arrived from Washington in July. During that three weeks I was boarding at the Pacific railroad hotel in North Platte with my family and was upon the street more or less every day and never saw a disturbance of any kind. North Platte was as peaceable during those three weeks as at any time the past twenty-five years during which I have lived there, so far as I was able to see. The strikers, that is to say, the boiler-makers and machinists, are most of them old citizens of our town. Nearly all of them own their own homes in North Platte and have just as much interest in preserving order as any of the other citizens. It may be that a few of the younger men among the strikers are not as cool headed as they should be, but so far as my observation went during the weeks I have been at home not a cent's worth of property has been injured or destroyed by the strikers or any one else. I think it is a slander upon our city to say that it is in a state of riot and lawlessness.

Just as Expected.

As was expected and predicted, the first violators of the proclamation which was issued by Mayor Walker were employees of the Union Pacific company. Yesterday afternoon two of the company guards came over to town heavily armed. They were promptly arrested, and when taken before Judge Baldwin plead guilty to carrying concealed weapons and were fined one dollar and costs.

The men had come to town to do some trading, and while in the Star Clothing House were advised, to avoid trouble, to take off their guns and leave them there. This they did, and later Marshal Huntington secured the weapons, turned them over to the sheriff, and later the marshal arrested the men.

The guards made affidavit last evening to the effect that their chief had instructed them to carry guns and to use the weapons on anyone who attempted to molest them. They also made affidavit that Asst. Supt. Ware had instructed the chief of the guards to take a number of armed guards and go over to town and get the guns which had been left.

A deputy game warden says: There is a state law which says you shall not go hunting on Sunday and if the farmers of this county would report a few Sunday hunters they would not only save the birds, but they could attend church without having their farms visited in their absence and their tame pigeons, ducks, etc., destroyed as some have had. The penalty is quite severe, $20 and costs, half of the fine going to the informant.

The themes for next Sunday's discourses at the Christian church will be as follows: 11:30 a. m., "The Bible School as an auxiliary to the church," 8:00 p. m., "The Place and Purpose of the Four Gospels." A cordial invitation is extended to the public to attend these services. C. F. Swander, minister.

From papers received from Salt Lake, Boise City and other western towns, it is learned that Col. Cody's Wild West Show is meeting with wonderful success. At several of these western points the attendance has been greater than the seating capacity of the vast amphitheatre.

We understand that H. S. Boal, formerly of this city, has sold his ranch property in Northern Wyoming to a resident of Kearney, the sale having been made Wednesday. Mr. Boal will probably visit Canada for the purpose of looking up a business location.

Congressman Neville returned this morning from Omaha, where he had been transacting business for several days.

Who is Disorderly, and Who Needs Protection?

A BRIEF COMPARISON.

Since the posting of the mayor's proclamation the Union Pacific strikers have obeyed its commands to the strictest letter. They have abstained from entering upon the premises of the company, have not carried weapons or clubs, have made no threats nor created any disturbance. These men have conducted themselves as law-abiding, orderly citizens.

Since the posting of the mayor's proclamation the Union Pacific company has shipped in large quantities of fire-arms, two of its guards have been arrested and fined for carrying concealed weapons upon the streets, and according to the sworn statements of men, guards have been instructed to shoot down strikers who attempt to molest them.

An Important Subject.

A meeting of the board of directors of the Commercial Club will be held next Monday evening for the purpose of taking some action relative to the irrigation law recently passed by congress. The object of the meeting will be to ascertain if Lincoln county possesses suitable sites for reservoirs, and if so, the conditions which surround such sites. Millions of dollars are available for the commencement of the national irrigation works and the sections which are most suitable for the work will be first selected. If Lincoln county is a suitable field for such work, its possibilities and feasibility should be called to the attention of the officials who have the matter in charge. If we have any prospects of securing part of this appropriation for the development of this section let us not sit idly by and allow other sections, perhaps less favorably situated, to carry off the plums. This is a matter which concerns us all, and we feel assured that all will lend their influence in the investigation of the matter in which the Commercial Club is about to take the initiative.

Several workmen in the Union Pacific carpenter shop went to Sidney this morning to do some work for the company.

Owing to a slight disarrangement of the electric light machinery, the city was in darkness for a half hour or so last evening.

Found on the streets a pocket-book containing a small sum of money. Owner can have same by calling at this office and paying for this notice.

Dave Hunter, of Sutherland, has commenced shipping plums to the local market. While the variety is small in size, they have a very fine flavor.

The Episcopal social at the rectory grounds last evening was well attended. As the lawn had been strung with electric lights and the current was not turned on until 8:45, the lack of light interfered considerably with the serving of refreshments the early part of the evening.

North Platte is Still Safe.

People can go into North Platte without being either waylaid or mobbed. We can assure our readers that it is not necessary to go guarded with a company of soldiers. The editor tried it Monday and got back safely, without a bruise. The citizens looked mild and peaceful and were transacting business the same as usual. North Platte is still safe.—Sutherland Free Lance.

Old North Platte Boys Promoted.

Will J. Fikes, formerly of this city, but for over a year foreman of the round-house at Cheyenne, has been promoted to district foreman at Evanston.

George Likert, who has been night foreman of the Cheyenne round-house, succeeds Fikes as general foreman of the round-house.

These promotions are undoubtedly well deserved and we congratulate the boys upon their advancement.

Lincoln County Ranks Third.

The state labor commissioner has completed the tabulation of returns on the acreage of sugar beets in Nebraska for this year. This table gives Lincoln county third place as to the acreage of beets cultivated, the total in the county being placed at 1,187 acres.

The two counties which outrank Lincoln are Dodge and Hall, the former having 2,109 acres and the latter 1,253. But in both of those counties sugar factories are located, one at Grand Island, the other at Ames.

This is a most excellent showing for Lincoln county and we predict that within five years it will be the banner sugar beet county in the state.

No Hope of Arbitration.

Today's Omaha News says: All talk of arbitration between the striking employes of the Union Pacific and the company is evidently premature from statements the strike leaders make today. Representatives of the machinists, boiler-makers and carmen agree that unless the company drops piecework and dismisses all scabs they will not consider any proposals for peace. The machinists might give up their demand for an advance in wages, but will stand firm on the other two questions. The company states that it will introduce piecework or quit running, and that strike-breakers doing good work will be kept. Neither party seems to desire any interference with its business from third parties.
