During the past week a number of land seekers from the east have been in town, and several sales are being negotiated. Eastern men seem to regard Platte valley land as gilt-edged investment, and at present prices can be made to earn a very satisfactory revenue.

Mrs. Saltow, aged sixty-nine, died at her home eight miles northeast of town Monday night, from a general breaking down of the system. She is survived by a husband and four children, two of the latter being John Saltow and Mrs. August Ackerman. The funeral was held Wednesday.

Mrs. Saml. Goozee entertained twenty-four married ladies at a card party Wednesday afternoon, an affair that proved a pleasant one to all. It developed toward the close of the afternoon that the day was the thirty-fifth wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Goozee, and the guests quietly sent down town and purchased a handsome cut glass dish which was presented to Mrs. Goozee, with appropriate remarks by Mrs. Baldwin.

Henry C. Oxnard, head of the beet sugar interests in the United States, has written that he will visit North Platte September 30th and take a drive through the irrigated section of Lincoln county. The object of this trip is for the purpose of investigating the sugar beet crop and the general conditions of the county as it relates to that crop.

As the beet sugar industry is a growing one and one that will be almost limitless in its growth, the visit of Mr. Oxnard to Lincoln county may in the future have results.

Keep your eye on Lincoln county.

F. A. Harrison, the newspaper correspondent, who was in town the early part of this week with the Union Pacific officials, has furnished the Lincoln Journal and Omaha World-Herald with the strike conditions in this city from the railroad's point of view. As might be expected, the write-up is greatly in favor of the company and is highly colored. Mr. Harrison does not confine himself to the facts as they exist.

H. Schlesinger returned yesterday from Cheyenne, where he had been on business connected with the building of a beer vault for the Gund brewing company.

Clifford Durran entertained a large party of his playmates Wednesday afternoon on the occasion of his seventh birth anniversary.

E. B. WARNER,

Taxes and Tax Collections.

The books of the county treasurer show that the total taxes assessed against all property in Lincoln county for the year 1901 was $117,946.23. Of this amount the land tax was $36,079.99, town lots $19,412.01 and personal property $61,554.23. The average citizen will no doubt be surprised to learn that the personal taxes of the county are greater than the real estate taxes.

During the year 1901 Treasurer Scharmann collected taxes amounting to $169,701.37, of which over fifty thousand dollars were back taxes, that is, taxes due for years prior to 1901.

The collection of taxes for the first six months of this year was $152,343.66 and it is probable that the total collections for the year will be in excess of two hundred thousand dollars.

Treasurer Scharmann during the past year has made special efforts to collect delinquent personal taxes, and has mailed to nearly every delinquent in the county a statement of the amount due. Responses to these statements have been many and under Mr. Scharmann's administration the back taxes are being considerably lessened each month.

Big Land Transfer.

There was filed for record in the county clerk's office this week a deed conveying from the Union Pacific Co. to Fred Vogel, Jr., of Milwaukee, 49,924 acres of land in this county for a consideration of $62,400.83.

This land is located north of Brady Island and the sale was consummated last fall.

Halligan Formally Declines.

To Fred R. Ginn, County Clerk: This is to notify you that I hereby decline the nomination for county attorney, an office for which I was nominated by the populist party of Lincoln county, Nebraska, and a certificate of my nomination, I am informed, was duly filed with you.

Yours respectfully,
JOHN J. HALLIGAN.

Among the many beautiful scenes that form a background for the thrilling stage pictures in "Lost in New York," which will be seen at the opera house next Saturday evening are views of the world famous Blackwell's Island, showing the great prison and insane asylum and the East river, on the surface of which the mightiest traffic of the world is conducted, and in whose bosom mysteries and tragedies unnumberable have been stilled.

Tugs, steam launches, and a score of other water craft join in the great rescue scene in the the third act, and form a picture never before witnessed by those who have not viewed this picturesque panorama seen daily on New York's great water way.

The average rainfall for September is 1.32 inches and the normal temperature sixty-three degrees. The hottest September days were in 1881 and 1895 when the temperature climbed to 101. The greatest September precipitation was in 1887, 5.10 inches of rain falling during the month in that year.

The Best Cattle Dip.

No one can afford to take the risk of experimenting with home-made cattle or sheep dips when the best coal-tar dip can be had at 30 to 70 cents per gallon. The Geo. H. Lee Co., of Omaha quote this price on their Lee's Carbolic Dip which is endorsed by the Nebraska State Experiment Station and by hundreds of leading stockmen. Write for new catalogue and testimonials.
