C. F. Scharmann, county treasurer: You are hereby authorized to refund taxes to the amount of 12.65, paid by M. A. B. Boal on east half of southeast quarter of section 27 15 33, the same having been paid on account of error in treasurer's office for the years 1896 and 1897.

BETWEEN THE RIVERS.

The sugar beet crop, which is no small affair in the valley, will be in shape to harvest the latter part of this month.

A. F. Beeler was at the county seat on business before the county commissioners on Wednesday. He was accompanied by Mrs. Beeler.

G. L. Mudd on the Paxton ranch left a few days ago Missouri to accompanying his wife home who has been there on a visit for some time.

J. W. Prickett attended the annual meeting of the G. A. R., at Hastings this week.

W. C. Cole will ship several car loads of hogs west from Birdwood station the first of the coming week. It will not be long before he will have another large number ready for shipment.

Chas. McDonald, who has been assisting J. G. Feeken in operating his threshing outfit this season, did not go with it to Gothenburg. He has been haying for the Gamble Land company.

Jim McMichael, a contractor and builder of the county seat, will erect Frank Cook's new farm residence.

Mrs. W. H. Hill, of Hershey, entertained the ladies' aid society on Wednesday. The usual routine of work was indulged in and seasonal refreshments were served. All those present report a social meeting.

James Wilson is having an addition 30x40x18 feet erected to his already commodious barn. James McMichael of North Platte is doing the work.

Rev. Chamberlain of this circuit will deliver his last sermon at Hershey Sunday previous to conference.

We are told that the Payne Investment company of Omaha is negotiating for the purchase of the Feeken land in Nichols precinct.

The Union Pacific railroad company has a bridge gang constructing a new iron bridge over a lateral which the road spans just west of Hershey.

The large fruit crop grown in the valley this season has been about all been disposed of except what will be consumed at home.

B. F. Fletcher, who runs a patent medicine wagon through this vicinity while here a few days ago entered into a contract with W. A. Paxton to furnish him with stock food for his ranch the coming year. Mr. Fletcher estimates the amount at about two car loads.

The hay is about all cut for this season, but not near all baled as the last cutting was stacked and will be baled and shipped from the stack. Seeberger & Co., being unable to get presses with which to press this season, have purchased one of their own and put a crew at work.

D. S. McConnell, on the Ottenstein farm, contracted one thousand bushels of corn to W. S. Cole who owns the largest hog ranch in western Nebraska, at forty cents per bushel the other day. This price is a very good send off.

A Parson's Noble Act.
"I want all the world to know," writes Rev. C. J. Budlong, of Ashaway, R. I., "what a thoroughly good and reliable medicine I found in Electric Bitters. They cured me of jaundice and liver troubles that had caused me great suffering for many years. For a genuine, all-around cure they exceed anything I ever saw." Electric Bitters are the surprise of all for their wonderful work in liver, kidney and stomach troubles. Don't fail to try them. Only 50 cents. Satisfaction guaranteed by A. F. Streit.
