The Climate

Of Western Nebraska is hard on paint and it is almost money burned to use an inferior quality when painting your house. The best paint is by far the cheapest in the end.

Sherwin & Williams Paints

Have been sold by us for many years, and they have given universal satisfaction—time tried and not found wanting. We have a full stock on hand for the spring trade. If you have used it you will buy it again; if you have not used it, try it.

President Roosevelt Not Coming.
 In the original itinerary of President Roosevelt, it was announced that he would come as far west as North Platte. Later the itinerary was changed and Kearney made the most western point in the state. Last Saturday Asst. Supt. Ware received a circular in which North Platte was again given as one of the points which the President would visit. To be sure of the matter, Mayor Walker yesterday telegraphed Senator Millard asking if the President would come as far west as North Platte. A reply was received to this telegram at noon yesterday in which it was stated that President Roosevelt would not come as far west as North Platte, that Kearney would be the turning point. This settles the matter once and for all.

Heavy Hay Shipments.
 The hay shipments this week promise to be very heavy, as nearly all the hay men are now through cutting and stacking and will now bale and ship. The price today ranges from five fifty to six dollars per ton, and though the western demand is strong it is not expected that the price will materially advance.

The hay crop in Lincoln county this year is the heaviest since 1891, and it will be a great revenue getter for the hay men as well as for the merchants.
 Mr. Harrington said this morning that he knew of twenty baling machines which would be set to work this week in addition to the number already at work. Each machine will bale ten tons per day on an average.

COMMISSIONERS' PROCEEDINGS.
 September 12, 1902.
 Board met pursuant to adjournment, present full board and county clerk. The following claims were audited and allowed:
 Bridge fund—H. F. Kellner $140 for construction of a jetty to turn current from bank at the North river bridge. Fred Tobias 18.00 for work on bridges. Wm. Johnson for work on Brady Island bridge.
 The board spent the remainder of the day in inspecting the county jail and out buildings.
 Adjourned until tomorrow.

Nominate Giffin and McAllister.
 The republican senatorial and representative district conventions met at Ogalalla Saturday last. The attendance of delegates was large and the conventions harmonious and enthusiastic. Geo. C. McAllister, of Chappell, was nominated for representative and W. D. Giffin, of Gothenburg, for state senator. The former received the nomination by acclamation and the latter was nominated on the third ballot. Giffin's opponents were T. C. Patterson of North Platte, H. E. Goodall of Ogalalla and Mr. Raymond of Scott's Bluffs. Patterson started in with twenty votes, but on the third ballot Cheyenne, Banner and Scotts Bluffs counties went from Raymond to Giffin and gave him the necessary votes.

The following resolutions were adopted by the representative convention and later by the senatorial convention.

The republicans of the 54th Representative District and the 30th Senatorial District in conventions assembled, take pride in affirming their allegiance to the republican party, the principles of which party have been so ably represented during the past five years by our late lamented leader William McKinley, and our present courageous and able President Theodore Roosevelt.

Seiberger & Co. expect to ship out 400 tons of baled alfalfa hay this season.
 W. H. Null and wife, of Myrtle, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Toillion over Sunday. Upon their return home they took five young heifers with them that they had purchased of Mr. Toillion.

We heartily indorse the position that President Roosevelt takes on the question of regulating and controlling the trusts.

We pledge the voters of this Representative District that the nominee of this convention when elected will use every effort in his power to correct any abuses that may exist in our system of taxation; and that he will jealously guard and protect the interests of the people of this district and state.

We commend the economical administration of our state government.

We heartily indorse the ticket as nominated by the republican state convention, and further we pledge this district to help send a republican to congress from the Big Sixth.

We denounce as unpatriotic the malicious assaults that have been, and are being made against our gallant soldiers and sailors, who are so bravely sustaining the honor of our flag.

BETWEEN THE RIVERS.

Seiberger & Co. are running four hay balers in the valley at the present time. They are using the boy that J. H. Hershey and J. K. Eshleman recently sold to a representative of Hall Bros., of Ververde, Col. It will be loaded on the cars at Hershey.

Charles Toillion and J. V. Robinson departed Monday morning for Corwith, Iowa, where they will view the surrounding country in view of locating. From there they will take a trip north along the river with the same intention. They will be gone several days.

J. B. Toillion and W. R. Brooks, accompanied by their wives were at North Platte on Saturday combining business with pleasure. While in the city they sold M. C. Harrington fifty tons of wild hay at six dollars per ton weighed and put on the cars at Nichols.

Seiberger & Co. have purchased P. E. Erickson's and L. P. Krong's hay at Nichols. It will be loaded at that place.

Last Monday the patrons received their checks for August butter fat at the Nichols creamery.

Jack Frost hit this section of the country a little too late to do any harm to speak of excepting a few fields of late corn, pumpkins and tomato vines.
 Bill Park, on the Dillon ranch, sold "King" Cole about thirty-two fat hogs the other day that brought him a neat sum of the "root of all evil."

Owing to a lack of moisture in the ground farmers have not as yet begun plowing for fall grain.

A. A. Leister, the Hershey blacksmith, is about done repairing hay tools for this season, for which he is lamenting to some extent.

Wild ducks and the wily sportsman are playing hide and seek in this vicinity at the present time to a considerable extent.

C. C. Wetzel has just returned from an extended trip in the far west. He tells us that he did not see anything during his long journey that was any better than Nebraska.

W. C. Cole shipped seven car loads of hogs west from Birdwood station Saturday. Six loads were billed to Denver and one load to Cheyenne. He accompanied them.

W. E. Park went as far as Denver with W. C. Cole's hog train Saturday and from there struck out for Boulder and other western points of interest before returning.

We are informed that J. G. Feecken of this locality, is doing a big business in the vicinity of Gothenburg with his new steam threshing outfit. He went down there about two weeks ago.

Seiberger & Co. expect to ship out 400 tons of baled alfalfa hay this season.

W. H. Null and wife, of Myrtle, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Toillion over Sunday. Upon their return home they took five young heifers with them that they had purchased of Mr. Toillion.

RAILROAD NOTES.

The Union Pacific officials can no longer charge that North Platte is the only place where the strikers are giving them trouble. While everything here is quiet, frequent disturbances are occurring at Omaha, Cheyenne and Rawlins. The conditions at those points are said to be much worse than they have been here at any time since the strike began.

The first murder to occur in connection with the Union Pacific strike was committed at Omaha early Sunday morning. Earl Caldwell, a strike-breaker, was assaulted by a number of men and his head beaten to a pulp. Nine men were arrested, two or three of whom are U. P. strikers. Caldwell and a companion were returning to the shops after spending several hours in town, when they were assaulted.

On the grounds that pickets of the Union Pacific strikers are intimidating the company employees, the officials are preparing to apply to the federal court for an injunction to restrain the strikers and pickets from approaching the grounds of the company. The injunction, which it is said will be asked to apply to all points on the main line, will be fought by the strike officials if they see there is any show of its being granted.

Devoured by Worms.

Children often cry, not from pain, but from hunger, although fed abundantly. The entire trouble arises from inanition, their food is not assimilated, but devoured by worms. A few doses of White's Cream Vermifuge will cause them to cease crying and begin to thrive at once, very much to the surprise and joy of the mother. 25c at A. F. Streit's Corner Drug Store.

The county commissioners have been devoting the past few days to an inspection of bridges in various parts of the county.

Rev. Beecher went to Cheyenne Friday night, where he officiated at the wedding of a friend.

Remnants of Wall Paper.

Having purchased the E. B. Warner stock of Wall Paper, I will sell the remnants at 3, 5 and 10c

 PER DOUBLE ROLL. A good part of this paper sold as high as 50, 60 and 75c. Now is your time to buy wall paper cheap.

I have quite a large stock of paper that was 10 to 15c that will go at 5c per double roll.

EYES OF JESSE JAMES

WHO FOR SO MANY YEARS WAS KING OF BANDITS.

HIS PRIDE IN THESE ORBS

Dr. Seymour Tells a Very Interesting Story of this Famous Outlaw, Whose Eyes Have No Doubt Struck Terror to Many a Person's Heart.

During an interview with Dr. Seymour the conversation turned to the subject of detecting criminals by their eyes; and when asked if this was possible, the doctor replied:

"Not in all cases, but in many instances it is true, as can be learned from any trained detective. Of course the ordinary person, who has made no study of the expression of the eye can easily be misled, as even the eyes of outlaws are often beautiful, which a little story told me by a Chicago man will serve to substantiate.

"Many years ago," related my friend, "I foolishly became interested in Colorado silver mines. With a prominent Cleveland I took a trip to the mines. At Durango, then the terminus of the main line of railroad, we had to remain over night before getting the construction train up the mountain the following day. My companion got it into his head that he wanted an apple. We approached a man with long hair and wearing a sombrero who had a small fruit stand in the village of tents. My friend took three apples and threw down a nickel. The cowboy vender, for he certainly looked like one said, 'Twenty-five cents for those apples, please.'

"This is robbery," said my companion; "it is outrageous."
 "I looked here," the stranger said, as he drew two huge revolvers. "I'm not in this Godforsaken country for nothing; shell out and shell out quick!" We shelled and shelled out quick.

"The next day we climbed upon a flat car of the construction train and started up the mountain. Presently a man wearing a sombrero and possessing two of the coldest, most penetrating eyes I ever saw, boarded the car. Two revolvers protruded from his hip pockets. He sized us up and said, 'Five dollars each, gentlemen, please.'
 "'What's that for?' asked my friend.
 "'Fare on this road; do you think that we're running trains for our health?'

"We produced our tickets, but the stranger said that they were no good, and demanded the money.
 "'See here, my friend,' I said, 'I don't care about the money, but I do want to say that you have a pair of the most beautiful eyes I ever saw in a man's head.'

"You're quite a blarney jod," he replied with a smile, which lit up his cold features, 'but it goes with me because I feel a little proud of those peepers myself.'

"He climbed off the car and disappeared without further molesting us. We say in his receding form the most notorious outlaw in the country's history, for as we afterwards learned, the man who tried to collect our fares was none other than Jesse James."
