F. E. Bullard received a telegram the latter part of last week announcing the death of his father in Pennsylvania.

The interior of the Methodist parsonage is being repainted and repapered throughout prior to Rev. Randolph taking possession.

The newly organized dancing club, which has a membership of twenty, will give its initial party at the opera house this evening.

Hay prices have advanced a few points during the past few days and that article has been selling for better than seven dollars per ton.

The First National Bank has recently purchased an automatic computer, which the employees find a great convenience in getting the total of a long list of figures.

Dr. F. W. Miller left yesterday for Gandy where he will devote several days to attending to the dental wants of the people of that village and vicinity.

Fred Kade tells us that the prices which he obtained for his stock, implements and household goods at the sale last Friday were quite satisfactory. Mr. Kade will make his future home in this city.

If John N. Baldwin were to come up from Omaha, he would find North Platte as quiet as a Puritan village. We have attended church socials at which more thrilling events have occurred than have transpired on the streets of this city during the past week.

J. B. McDonald keeps his head working and is putting some very attractive and telling placards in The Model show windows. His latest, giving sugar beet statistics and the future possibilities in that line, has attracted a great deal of attention.

Frank Crick requests us to say that the item relative to him, published in these columns and also in the Sidney papers, was much overdrawn. Frank says he does not desire to be classed as a frontier desperado, though some people try to make it appear that way.

Charley Samelson, an employe of this office, who formerly winged coolies at Tien Taen, China, and Philipinos in Samar, bagged fifteen prairie chickens in fifteen minutes a day or two ago down in Mylander precinct. Chickens in that section are very plentiful but the farmers prohibit hunting.

New samples for Fall and Winter Clothing. A. P. Carlson, agent. Old stand.

A sixteen year old son of W. N. Parcel was caught Saturday night in the act of burglarizing McCullough's store on Front street. He was detected by Night Policeman Gaunt and one of the clerks in the store, and had a box of shells in his possession at the time. He was placed in jail and will remain there pending a preliminary examination. It is generally believed that the boy had an accomplice, but he refuses to divulge any name.

Taffy of all flavors at Hupfer's.

A score or more church friends were entertained Saturday evening by Mr. and Mrs. M. Doolittle on the occasion of their twenty-fifth wedding anniversary. The evening was devoted to old fashioned games, which were entered into with such spirit and zest that much fun resulted. During the evening Rev. Beecher, in behalf of the guests, presented Mr. and Mrs. Doolittle with a handsome cut glass pitcher and a piece of silverware. Refreshments were served.

W. F. Hulls, late foreman of the car repair gang, who went from here to Huntington, Ore., where his wife has been visiting for some time, has accepted a position at Walla Walla, Wash., with the Oregon Short Line.

Roadmaster Hammer came down from Cheyenne Sunday for a brief visit with his family. He will remove his family to Sidney as soon as he can secure a house. His daughter Miss Ida may remain in town and continue her studies in the high school.

Two stretches of new road bed on the Union Pacific near Archer, Wyo., which were constructed in order to avoid both grade and curve, will be connected with the main line this week. This new track, however, will not be used much until it settles.

Old-time friends of J. E. Grace and John McCabe, the former in charge of the blacksmith shop and the latter of the tin shop at Cheyenne, will be interested in knowing that they are getting along nicely and don't look a day older than when they left North Platte.

Two more of the new engines ordered by the Union Pacific were received in Omaha a few days ago and will be sent to the Wyoming division this week. When a few more of these "hill climbers" have been received, the 1000 class of compounds now in use in Wyoming will begin to be transferred to the Nebraska division.

Alex Stewart, general foreman of the Union Pacific shops at Cheyenne, told us while we were there Saturday that the motive power on the Wyoming division is in good shape, and as proof of the statement showed us the engine failure sheet for the day before, which contained six failures between Cheyenne and Ogden. The Cheyenne shops seem to be well filled with workmen, but of their ability as mechanics we were not able to judge during our brief tour through the shops. About eighty engines are running out of Cheyenne.

For Sale—Two Poland China Boar Pigs, six months old. Address J. V. Robinson, North Platte.

His Life in Peril.

"I just seemed to have gone all to pieces," writes Alfred Bee, of Welfare, Tex., "billiousness and a lame back had made life a burden. I couldn't eat or sleep and felt almost too worn out to work when I began to use Electric Bitters, but they worked wonders. Now I sleep like a top, can eat anything, have gained in strength and enjoy hard work." They give vigorous health and new life to weak, sickly, run-down people. Try them. Only 50c at Streitz's drug store.
