Mrs. H. J. Clark and several of her pupils have on exhibition at Warner's store a large number of pieces of embroidery which are attracting much attention, especially from the ladies, who are always interested in that class of work. This writer is not a connoisseur, but in his judgment the work displayed is indeed handsome throughout, and to execute the designs must certainly require artistic ability. The exhibit is the finest we have seen of its kind in North Platte, and certainly speaks well for the ability of Mrs. Clark as an artist and an instructor and reflects creditably upon the skill of her pupils.

The time for active endeavor in every department of church work is at hand. Let every loyal Lutheran be at the various services next Lord's day. Parents see that the children are in the Sunday school. Young people be faithful to your recently organized Luther League. At the evening service the pastor will begin a series of five addresses on "Praying and Working" or what earnest christian men have done. The subject of the first address will be "Philip Jacob Spener, the Pietist." Everybody welcome to all our services.

JOHN F. SEIBERT, pastor.

Sheriff Carpenter went to Willow precinct Wednesday in response to a telegram announcing that trouble was being experienced with a demented man named Wicks.

Judge Hoagland, who had been doing some campaign work in the Fifth congressional district, returned home last night.

J. J. Halligan is having an addition built to his residence on west Second street.

Mrs. N. B. Post and children went to Omaha this morning to make their future home.

A vote cast for Judge Kinkaid is one in support of the national republican administration. Without a republican majority in congress the work of President Roosevelt will be greatly abridged.

THE biggest joke of the campaign is W. H. Thompson—with his pocketful of railroad passes—posing as the "anti-railroad" candidate. We are pretty certain that the voters of the state will consider Thompson an imposter and vote to turn him down.

A VOTE cast for A. H. Davis for county attorney is a vote cast for a man who will neglect the duties which the office imposes upon him. Mr. Davis is an energetic lawyer, fully competent to fill the position, and we are confident will be elected by a nice majority.

CHARLEY GLAZE has proven himself to be a good business man, and that is the class of men that is needed on the board of county commissioners. The office of commissioner is an important one and men of Mr. Glaze's ability are needed for the position.

THERE is no good reason why every republican in Lincoln county should not vote a straight ticket. There are none but good men on the ticket.

A CANVASS of Chappell develops the fact that Geo. C. McAllister, the republican candidate for representative, will receive every vote that village and precinct. This is evidence of Mr. McAllister's standing at home, and goes to show that his home people consider him an able, straightforward man and a man who is well fitted for the position for which he is a candidate.

BETWEEN THE RIVERS.

Mrs. Fanny Brooks of North Platte is at the present time visiting relatives and friends at Nichols and vicinity.

Steve Albro, who had a leg amputated at North Platte about three weeks ago, was brought home a day or two ago. He is getting along nicely.

Sugar beets are being shipped to the Grand Island factory as fast as ordered.

Mrs. Roy Stoddard entertained the ladies' aid society on Wednesday of last week. The attendance was large and a pleasant time is reported.

Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Eshleman and baby boy are expected home next week from a month's visit with relatives in their old home near Harrisburg, Penna.

D. S. McConnell has sufficiently recovered from his late illness that he was able to transact business at the county seat on Wednesday.

The fusionists in Nichols precinct at about the eleventh hour put a ticket in the field but when the ballots are counted on the evening of Nov. 4th, they will not be a drop in the political bucket.

Most of the sugar beets that are being harvested in the valley at this time are being pitted and covered up to wait for orders to ship.

Mrs. Wm. Eves and Mrs. J. W. Abbott of Hershey made an overland trip to the county seat and back Wednesday.

S. J. Koch has been looking for a carpenter for the past month to erect an addition to his farm residence over on the south side, but has failed to get one up to date.

Mrs. Ernest Arnett of Hershey accompanied her husband home the first of this week, after a few days' visit with relatives and friends at the county seat.

Miss Gerie Smith and Miss Bessie Eshleman of Hershey entertained several people at a dance in the hall at that village last Friday evening in honor of Miss Mattie Oleson who had been visiting her sister Mrs. Mickelson. Those who attended report a very pleasant time. Miss Oleson left for her home in Rock Island, Ill., the fore part of this week, accompanied as far as Omaha by Mr. and Mrs. Mickelson and daughter. Miss Oleson is a bright, intelligent and pleasant young lady who made many friends during her short stay in this locality, any of whom would be highly pleased to entertain her again at any time.

ORDER OF HEARD NO.
State of Nebraska, Lincoln county, S. S.
PROBATE NOTICE

In the matter of the Estate of John Eli Seull, deceased.

On reading and filing the petition of Aaron Seull, praying that the instrument filed in the last day of October, 1902, and purporting to be the last will and testament of the said deceased, may be proved, approved, probated, allowed and recorded as the last will and testament of the said John Eli Seull, deceased, and that the execution of said instrument may be committed and the administration of said estate may be granted to Aaron Seull as Executor.

Ordered that November 25, 1902, at 9 o'clock a. m., be assigned for hearing said petition, when all persons interested in said matter may appear at County Court to be held in and for said county and show cause why the prayer of petition should not be granted.

A. S. BALDWIN,
County Judge.

A Dangerous Proposition.

The election of W. H. Thompson, the brewers' candidate for governor, would be a sign that this interference in Nebraska politics is not offensive to Nebraska people. It would be an invitation for them to go further. It would bring to the next legislature corrupt lobbyists and a whisky trust boodle fund. The legislature would be organized largely with reference to the liquor interest. The liquor interest would be consulted in the making up of the legislative committees. When the machinery of legislation had been adjusted for that purpose, then there would be inaugurated a struggle to rob the Slocum law of its power. To make it easier to get a license; to make it easier to get bonds; to make the law more lenient in general toward the saloon, these are the objects sought by the brewers who own the Nebraska saloons. To accomplish these things the brewers want a friend in the executive office. They want the governor to start with. The rest they believe will be easy after that. A governor friendly to the brewers would be the opening wedge. To put the executive office into the hands of the democratic candidate means to put Nebraska government in fact into the hands of the Milwaukee brewers.

A Shameful Record.

B. R. B. Weber, one of the state chairmen of the fusion party, was superintendent of the Geneva Industrial school under Poynter. When he left, the state's property was a wreck, and the inmates were demoralized. He had at one time shut a young girl for seven days and nights in a basement dungeon, where she was compelled to sleep on the cement floor without even a blanket. The official papers in the damage suit filed against Weber say the girl has lost the use of one arm as the result of the cruel treatment. Yet Weber is deemed the proper person to direct a fusion state campaign, and is to be sent back to Geneva if his party is successful.

Don't Want Him.

Out at Alliance the whisky trust owns three of the six saloons. The bookkeeper of these institutions is one "Doc Edwards," who makes his office in the "Red Light" saloon. He also acts as assistant barkeeper. He was "physician" for one of the state institutions under Poynter, and he has the promise of a similar place in case the democrats are triumphant.

Fusionism and the Schools.

At a democratic meeting at Sidney the other day John Powers in a speech turned to Claude Smith, democratic candidate for state superintendent, who occupied a seat near by, and said: "Elect my friend, Smith and he will put a stop to this foolishness of going out into the country with wagons to haul children to school." Smith accepted the pledge without a protest. The children who are seeking for better schools and better education now know what to expect, if Smith is elected.

The Lincoln Asylum.

One of the first acts of the republican administration was to remove the incompetent officials from the asylum at Lincoln and place in charge of the institution a man known for his integrity and business ability, and of national reputation as an expert in the treatment of insane persons.

Through the excellent management of the present superintendent the state is being saved fully $30,000 per year, the figures being based on the expense per capita. In the mass of jangled figures recently sent out from fusion sources the large increase in the number of patients was ignored, the attempt being made to fool the people with mysterious and often mythical "totals." They did not give credit for the $35,000 unpaid bills left for the republican officials to pay in addition to the "deficiencies."

The "economy" boasted of at the Lincoln asylum was the sort which lined the pockets of the fusion officials. One employe was permitted to spend his time making ink which he sold to the state. Another raised ducks on the premises and sold them to the institution. Still another sold all the calves on the premises to his father at from $2 to $3 per head—animals which now sell for five times that much. Land Commissioner Wolfe sent six hogs to the institution to be "boarded" at state expense, and eight months later worked off one of them on the institution at the exorbitant price of $140. At about the same time C. S. Jones, who was living at the Home for the Friendless and raising hogs on his own account, bought six shoats from the asylum at $2 apiece.

This is another brand of "economy" for C. Q. DeFrenzy to explain. It is like the "economy" practiced at all state institutions under fusion management.

A Clean Candidate.

Nebraska voters never had a cleaner candidate for governor than John H. Mickey. He has never been a manipulator of conventions. He has not been an intriguer for power. He has not been a party boss, neither will he be, for he is not built that way. He has been a practical worker in practical every day affairs. As governor he will be a practical helper in the state government just as he has been a practical man in Polk County for the last thirty-five years. His business qualifications are first-class. He is in the prime of life now and his working capacity is at the best. He is never sick in body and is never discouraged in mind. His purposes and his activity are always along the higher lines toward something that is good. He is a common man in his personality with an uncommon capacity for doing things and doing them well.
