BEGINNING MONDAY, NOVEMBER 3, 1902

We will begin a Sale and its equal has never been attempted. In the great mills of the East there are always from different reasons a great accumulation of small lots of goods which is perfect in every way, only in lots too small to be sold by their agents. A lot of these odds and ends will be placed in our store and prices put on them in plain figures so as to sell the entire lot in no longer time than two weeks. These goods consists of Dry Goods, Shoes, Clothing, Ladies' and Gent's Furnishings, Millinery and etc., also remnants of different material. Some of the very small lots will be sold during this sale for little or nothing, just to get rid of it, as Mr. Predmestky has the power to make the prices on these goods, you can make up your mind that he will make it so cheap, that in justice to yourself you cannot afford to miss it. To make this a grand success we will cut the prices on every article of our entire stock during this sale from 25 to 50 per cent.
