Clinton,

The Jeweler and Optician.

The Semi-Weekly Tribune.

FRIDAY, OCT. 31, 1902.

DR. F. W. MILLER, GRADUATE DENTIST,
Office over Straits' Drug Store. Phone 22.

Mrs. W. W. Conklin and daughter returned to St. Louis yesterday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. H. V. Hilliker and children left Wednesday morning for their home in Green River, Wyo.

Taffy of all flavors at Hupler's.

Deputy Game Warden Carter returned to town the early part of the week and will probably remain at home for a month or so.

Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Davis, who had been visiting friends in Fremont and Broken Bow for ten days or so, returned home Tuesday.

A. L. Ewing, who established a paper at Hershey six years ago, was in town Wednesday in the interests of the job department of the Kearney.

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Shaffer left last evening for Seattle, Wash., in response to word that their son Joe had appendicitis and will undergo an operation.

President Bart refuses to deny or affirm the report from Denver that W. A. Duell will succeed Mr.
Dickinson as general manager of the Union Pacific.

Another scab was arrested Wednesday for carrying a six-shooter and making threats as to what he would do to certain persons. Yesterday he was taken before Judge Baldwin and assessed the customary fine.

One of the imported laborers at the shops became the possessor of a big "jag" Tuesday afternoon and attempted to run things. He was finally corralled and locked in a stock car, where he was kept until he sobered up.

In a half mile dash between horses owned by Dr. McLeay of Gandy and Doc Parks of this city at the fair grounds Tuesday afternoon, the latter's animal won easily. Quite a little money changed hands on the result.

Mrs. H. J. Clark will exhibit some of her work and her pupils' work in Warner's furniture store, beginning Friday, Oct. 31st, to Nov. 5th. Call and see.

Mrs. B. L. Robinson stepped on a rusty nail Wednesday afternoon which penetrated her left foot, the point of the nail almost coming through on the opposite side. Proper remedies were at once applied and no bad results—other than a painful wound—are anticipated.

A considerable number of drunks were on the streets Tuesday night, three of whom became very noisy and were picked up by Policeman Gauntt, who started them jailward.
When they reached the court house two broke away. Gauntt ordered them to halt but they failed to do, and he fired several shots in the air. The fellows kept on sprinting.

The banquet tendered Rev. G. A.
Becher and John Stensson Tuesday evening by the Masons at their hall is pronounced to have been the swellest function ever given by the local lodge. The menu served by Rehau-en & Cannon was far above the average in fact is pronounced by many to have been the best ever served in town. F. E. Ballard presided as toastmaster, and in that chair proved his ability as an introductory officer. The responses to toasts were well delivered and the evening proved a delightfully pleasant one.

Wilcox Department Store.

A couple pieces of air appliances from the local shops were shipped west yesterday.

Deputy Revenue Collector John Wilson of Kearney transacted business in town Wednesday.

Mrs. Robt. Arundale and Mrs.
Henry Gilfoyle and daughter have been visiting friends in Denyer this week.

Dr. D. E. Morrill has fitted up an office over Harrington & Tooin's store and will again practice dentistry.

Mr. and Mrs. Grant E. Balkcom, well known residents of McPherson county, left Wednesday evening for Spokane, Wash.

Mrs. M. F. Hosler will entertain the ladies society of the B. of L. P. at her home Tuesday afternoon, November 4th.

Wm. Schutte, formerly of this city, has purchased a farm near Salem, Oregon, to which state he recently moved.

James Burns, who for some time past has been working in Colorado, arrived in town yesterday for a visit with his family.

U. G. Sawyer, engineer at the state capitol, came home Tuesday evening and will remain until the middle of next week.

Cunningham will have your stove cleaned, blackened and put up promptly and satisfactorily.

Colonel Owens, now working for the Union Pacific at Evanston, Wyo., came down Wednesday and is now making arrangements to move his family to that town.

Geo. C. McAllister, republican candidate for representative, spent a day or two in town this week.
Mr. McAllister says he finds everything in good shape in the district.

A. G. Wolfenbarger will make his address at the opera house Sunday evening. He is a well-known orator and will no doubt interest his hearers with his temperance talk.

West bound passenger traffic on the Union Pacific is exceptionally heavy at present, due to the low rate offered to Pacific coast points.
Wednesday and yesterday morning there were two sections of train No. 5.

At noon on election day, Nov. 4, the ladies of the W. R. C. will serve a fine dinner for 25 cents.
Come friends and dine with us, we will be mutually benefitted. Location, the vacant store building in Keith block on Dewey street.

B. Z. Milliken, of this city, secretary of the district lodge of boilermakers, who has been east for several weeks in the financial interests of the Union Pacific strikers, reached Omaha yesterday and is expected home in a day or two.

This office is issuing for Buchanan & Patterson several thousand pamphlets under the title of "The Land of Opportunity," and which gives a large amount of information relative to Lincoln county as a country of alfalfa, hogs and sugar beets.

F. E. Ballard leaves tomorrow evening for Philadelphia to attend the sesqui-centennial celebration of the initiation of George Washington into a Masonic lodge of that city. Mr. Ballard will also visit his old home in northeastern Pennsylvania and will probably be absent two or three weeks. His daughter Jessie, who has been spending the summer in the east, will return home with him.

The remains of the late Michael McNamara, accompanied by Mrs.
McNamara, son Charles and Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Donehower, arrived from Peoria, Ill., Wednesday evening.
The funeral services were held at the Presbyterian church yesterday afternoon and were very largely attended, the A. O. U. W. and the D. of H. lodges being present in a body. The floral decorations were profuse and beautiful, and represented the last tokens of esteem from friends who held the deceased in high regard. Michael McNamara has passed from earth, but his character and reputation as a good citizen and upright man will ever be remembered by the people of North Platte.

Lincoln County's Crop.

Statistics published in the Bee give the following crop yield in Lincoln county for the year 1902: Corn 1,063,500 bushels, winter wheat 48,840 bushels, spring wheat 49,452 bushels, oats 60,000 bushels, rye 197,700 bushels, barley 69,720 bushels. The yield of hay, alfalfa and potatoes is not given.

Mail Carrier Brown Dead.

Wm. R. Brown, a mail carrier on the North Platte-Gandy route, was found dead in his wagon Wednesday at the Neale place in the north part of the county. Brown left here in the morning in apparently his usual health—although he complained a little of having been kicked on the head by a horse—and seemed to be all right when he reached Myrtle, but when the team stopped at Neale's place, he was found dead in the wagon.

Brown was a rather old man, and had been on the route since July.
He had lived in Logan county for a number of years.

Angel Food Taffy at Hupler's.

Tim T. Kellher came down from Cheyenne yesterday and may decide to remain until after election.

Mrs. J. S. Clinton left Wednesday for the east, and will spend the winter in Chicago and Grand Rapids.

Judge Baldwin united in marriage Tuesday evening J. L. Spar-gan and Miss Alice Osborn, both of Paxton.

Arthur B. Marr, now railroading out of Cheyenne, was a visitor in town this week, returning to the Mountain City yesterday.

Tonight is Hallow E'en, and it is understood the police have been given orders to corral boys perpetrating mischievous deeds.

Rubel & Allegrittie's chocolate and bon bons in pound and half pound boxes. Also Baldwin's box of confections. FRED MARTL.

Messrs. Wilson and Mezier, two young men who lately arrived in town, are negotiating for the purchase of the Oas' Minute Coffee House on Front street.

Ashley Peters has sold his ranch northeast of town to W. D. Waldo and the latter is now moving his cattle thence. Mr. Peters and family will remove to town and remain during the winter.

County Supt. Neale has just issued a directory of the teachers and school officers of Lincoln county together with the post-office address of each. This directory is very convenient for all those interested in the school work of the county.

Ray Langford, who for two weeks had been up in the north part of Deuel county looking after some horses owned by Mrs. M. E.
Watts, returned home yesterday.
He sold sixty-five head of the horses to J. W. Payne of the E. W. ranch, and assisted Mr. Payne in driving them down.

The Mabel Vinton company, which opens a three night engagement at the opera house next Monday evening, comes well recommended by the press and large houses everywhere attests the merits of the company. The opening bill will be "A Mother's Love." The company carries moving pictures and renders illustrated songs. The admission prices will be twenty-five and thirty-five cents.

Our fourth page in this issue is occupied by an advertisement giving in detail the particulars and pieces of the "end sale" which the popular Fair Store will inaugurate November 3d. Mr. Richards is confident that a large number of people will avail themselves of this opportunity to secure merchandise at very low figures.

The ritual of the Modern and Optimistic Order of Boosters is now being prepared and the first initiation ceremonies will be held at the First National Bank hall some evening next week. It is no likely a membership fee will be charged, but if so, it will be extremely small.
More than a hundred volunteer applications for membership have been filed.

The reception tendered Rev. and Mrs. Geo. A. Beecher by the Episcopal vestrymen and their wives at the residence of Major Walker Wednesday evening was largely attended, not only by members of the church but by citizens as well.
An hour or two was devoted to social intercourse, and extending final good-bye to Mr. and Mrs.
Beecher. Refreshments were served during the evening.

"The railroads have been able to partially hide from the public the shortage of motive power because of the car situation," says a railroad man: "if plenty of cars had been on hand and these could have been loaded, the Nebraska lines would have found themselves up-against the proposition of having trains loaded on all sidings with no engines to pull them. As it has been the car shortage has given the roads a chance to move trains fairly regularly, although in some instances it began to look as though it might be necessary to send trains over the road behind slow-moving switch engines. And the worst of that would have been that the switch engines were needed in the yards."—Lincoln Journal.

Prepare for Winter Campaign.

The strikers are preparing for an all winter campaign, having rearranged and strengthened their picket lines, and rented rooms opposite the depot which are being fitted up for warmth and recreation purposes. When on patrol, each man will be furnished with a card which will be punched at regular intervals by a lieutenant, and according to this arrangement, will have to perform faithful duty or receive no pay, this system being in force at Omaha, and other points on the U. P. where the strike is maintained. The pickets are strictly charged to obey the law to the letter, and to have any scab whom they suspect of being armed, promptly arrested and searched, and to allow each and all of them to procure all the whiskey they want, as it is considered the more they get the better it will be for the strikers and worse for the company.

For Rent.

The Ries residence on West Third street. Six rooms, bath, blue grass and shade trees and city water.

BUCHANAN & PATTERNS.

L. I. Bailar arrived in town yesterday from Edgar with a cart of household goods.

J. J. Halligan was in Lincoln for several days on business before the state supreme court.

F. J. Dentler has arrived from St.
Louis and will resume his run as passenger conductor on the Western District. His many old friends are glad to have him return to North Platte.

An Omaha striker claims to have received a letter from his father in Stockholm, Sweden, claiming that the Union Pacific has an agent there who is hiring men to go to the United States and work for that road.

It was reported in town Wednesday that John Hanlon, who went west several weeks ago, was dead.
This report, however, was incorrect as word was received from him yesterday stating that he is improving in health. He is now at Albuquerque, N. M.

Frank Shaub, waiter at the Vienna, was severely assaulted by a man named Stone, second cook at the same place, Wednesday evening. Shaub was knocked down with a potato masher, kicked in the right eye and came near losing the sight of that eye. A warrant was issued for Stone's arrest, but he seems to have skipped town.

Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Donehower, who came here with the remains of the late M. McNamara, will remain in town a few days. Mr. Done-hower is employed in the benefi-cent department of the B. of L. E. headquarters at Peoria, Ill. From him we learn that there are 619 lodges of that order in the United States with a total membership of about 45,000.

THE SWELL YOUNG MAN

COPYRIGHT 1902 BY
A. E. KIRCHBAUM & CO.

Wants life, dash and ginger in his suit. He wants more coloring, more fashionable curves and kinks than the older and more conservative dresser.

We have caught the spirit of the young man's wants, and have suits as smart and swell as his heart can desire. The fabrics are new and not a feature could be added to put more style into the cut, making or trimming of our Young Men's Suits. Prices not high when we furnish all this swellness for.....

$10.00, $12.50, $15.00 or $18.00.

We want every young man in town to make it his business to see these Swagger Fall and Winter Suits.
