Boom Sugar Beets.
Sterling, Colorado, is to have a beet sugar factory costing one and a half million dollars.

Sterling is not as favorably situated for a sugar factory as is North Platte; the land surrounding it does not produce as large a yield per acre of beets, nor are they as rich in sugar.

But the people of Sterling are active; they don't sit around and wait for something to turn up; they rustle and turn something up. They unite and boost—and their boosting brings results.

What Sterling has accomplished North Platte can achieve—That is, if the people work together.

Results cannot be obtained by one class of citizens boosting and another class knocking. We must all boost.

It is estimated that the new factory will increase Sterling's business to the extent of $250,000 per year.

A sugar factory of similar proportions at North Platte would increase the business of the city to a like extent.

Do we want to expand? Do we want to make North Platte the best town in the state and Lincoln the best county in the state?

There is a way to do it. Everybody work for an increased acreage of sugar beets and—The factory will come.

BETWEEN THE RIVERS.

W. E. Park on the Dillon ranch, sold A. B. Hoagland at North Platte a sack of shelled pop corn last Saturday for the consideration of eight dollars.

E. F. Seeberger & Co. purchased about one hundred and forty tons of hay of Dr. McCabe of North Platte late last week. The hay is on land near Hershey.

D. M. Leopoldt sold his residence located in the south part of Hershey a few days ago to M. Mickelson. Doray will soon erect a new residence for himself on the north side of the track.

Henry Weil has about eighty-five fine three-year-old steers on full feed at this time. They are the finest herd all through that was ever fed in the valley. He was down the line lately where he contracted for about seven thousand bushels of new corn, shelled, laid down at Birdwood station that will not exceed thirty-two and a half cents per bushel.

Frank Martin and outfit of North Platte has been moving tenant houses to different locations on the Paxton ranch lately.

Dick Shinkle who has been cutting, baling, loading and stacking hay so far this season for Seeberger & Co., took a lay-off Friday after the rain the night previous and transacted business at the county seat.

A western buyer who was looking over this country lately was well pleased with it. While here he offered seven dollars and a quarter per ton for baled alfalfa hay on the track.

D. M. Leopoldt, of Hershey, informs the writer that he has shipped about four hundred tons of pressed alfalfa hay west so far this year.

F. F. Seeberger & Co., of Hershey purchased about sixty tons of hay Saturday of the Kelley boys.

Miss Kate Sullivan, of Nichols, was the guest of friends at the county seat a couple of days last week.

A. W. Arnett, who resides on the Sisson farm just north of Hershey, is said to be negotiating for the purchase of the H. Newberry farm.

Seeberger & Co. purchased about ninety tons of hay of James Wilson the latter part of last week.

Andrew Anderson, who sold his cattle some time ago and lately leased his farm for the ensuing year, has with his family moved to North Platte, where he expects to find employment with the U. P. Co.

Max Beer, of the county seat, purchased about forty head of calves of A. M. Stoddard one day last week and Mr. Stoddard has since purchased a herd of yearlings of the Kelly boys.

Mrs. W. H. Hill and son Claire of Hershey are visiting relatives and friends at Overton.

A. F. Beeler has lately adorned the interior of his new farm residence with a piano.

Roy and Willie Spurrier went to North Platte Friday after a Jersey cow which their father had purchased of Mrs. Duncan.

It is impossible at the present time to procure cars in which to ship baled hay, and a large proportion of that which is loaded has to remain for several days before it is pulled out of the sidetracks.

Steve Albro, who recently had a leg amputated at North Platte and was brought home the other day, is doing as well as could be expected.

Miss Jennie Ware who is teaching in the North Platte schools, visited with her mother in the valley Saturday and Sunday.

Merchant Ware, of Hershey, visited friends at the county seat Sunday.

Demand of Railroad Employees.

A distinct movement is discernible among railroad employees almost universally to demand a substantial increase of wages. So imminent is it that the Wall Street Journal warns its readers, who are almost exclusively of the investing, speculative and capitalistic classes, that the railroads of the country are likely to be confronted in the next few months with the alternative of paying more wages or paying more money as the result of a strike, and it is significant that that organ declares such a result to be fully justified.

While there have been a considerable number of increases of the wages of railroad employees, the increases have by no means kept pace with the increase of the cost of living. The average increase of wages has been less than ten per cent. The disposition of numerous organizations of employees is to demand a twenty per cent advance, which would certainly not more than put them abreast of the rise of the commodities which constitute their living, to say nothing of recompensating the disparity from which they have for several years suffered.

Aside from the equalization of their wages to subsistence cost, on which ground alone public opinion would sustain the demand of railroad employees for the advance in wages, the owners of the roads have refused to make any equitable concession from their profits. These have been enormous since 1896, so that the value of most of the stocks has in the meantime doubled and trebled. In fairness the railroads should let go their grasp upon some fraction at least of the incalculable gains contributed by labor at not much more than the old wages on the one hand and the general public on the other. An average increase of twenty per cent on account of wages would require less than two per cent of the portion of earnings now going theoretically to stockholders, but a far less per cent of the portion in fact accruing to them.

Railroad employes in the United States, who are thoroughly organized, now unquestionably have it in their power to force the corporations to make just concessions. The general public would be as universally and decisively in sympathy with the railroad wage earners as they have been with the anthracite miners. The public has equally felt the selfishness and arrogance of the transportation companies through their refusal of concessions in enforced contributions for carriage and through their unvarying resistance to payment of a fair proportion of the tax burden. Relief is within reach of railroad employes if they have the courage to seize it.—Omaha Bee.

NEIGHBORHOOD NEWS.

Cozid has established a quarantine against Lexington on account of the small-pox which exists at the latter place.

Two additional rural free delivery routes were established at Cozid last Saturday, making five routes out of that place. Dawson county has, all told, ten free delivery routes.

The Union Pacific will put in a purifying water tank at Lexington and a new station building is another improvement which the people of the town say has been decided upon. Lexington will soon follow Kearney in claiming that it is to be a division terminal.

A convention of the real estate dealers of Dawson, Buffalo, Hall and other counties will be held at Grand Island November 12th, for the purpose of booming that section of the state and advertising its resources in the middle and eastern states.

In Memorium.

WHEREAS, It has pleased our Heavenly Father in His infinite wisdom to remove from our midst and fraternal order, our esteemed brother Michael McNamara, therefore be it

Resolved, That in his death another link has been severed and the lodge has lost a most zealous and efficient member, whose presence will be ever sadly missed and the memory of whose faithful labors will be ever fondly cherished.

Whereas, By his death, his wife has been deprived of a faithful and loving husband, and his son and daughters of a devoted and loving father, and the community of a faithful friend; therefore be it

Resolved, That we extend to the family and bereft companion, our tenderest and heartfelt sympathy in their sad hour of sorrow and affliction. We can only commend them to Him of whom it is said, "He doeth all things well," and who alone can comfort them in their distress.

Resolved, As a further token of our respect and deep sorrow that our charter of Tote Lodge No. 64, A. O. U. W. of Nebraska, be draped in mourning for thirty days and a copy of these resolutions be presented to the family of the deceased, and a copy be spread upon the records of our local lodge order and published in each of the city papers.

North Platte is becoming quite a hay market, and almost every day western buyers come here for the purpose of contracting with local dealers for large quantities. One buyer in town Saturday wanted to contract five hundred cars and offered a price above seven dollars per ton. He only succeeded, however, in getting a few cars at the price he offered.

Best Liniment on Earth.

I. M. McHany, Greenville, Tex., writes, Nov. 23, 1900: "I had rheumatism, last winter, was down in bed six weeks; tried everything, but got no relief, till a friend gave me a bottle of Ballard's Snow Liniment. I used it, and got two more bottles. It cured me and I haven't felt any rheumatism since. I can recommend Snow Liniment to be the best liniment on earth for rheumatism." For rheumatic, sciatic or neuralgic pains, rub in Ballard's Snow Liniment, you will not suffer long, but will be gratified with a speedy and effective cure. 25c, 50c, and $1.00 at A. F.
