HIS FIRST SERMON.

Rev. George A. Beecher delivered his first sermon as rector of St. Luke's Episcopal church Sunday forenoon and was listened to with deep interest by an overflowing congregation. As a Kearney boy, coming under the influence of the sainted Dr. Oliver, young Beecher was prepared for the Episcopal ministry. For some eight years he has filled parishes and done missionary work in the western part of the state, and did a splendid work in his last parish at North Platte. Coming to Kearney and filling the pulpit where his old friend and teacher stood for so many years, some embarrassment might have been expected, but Mr. Beecher rose fully to a rare opportunity and a notable occasion, in a sermon of eloquent sympathy and heart-searching power. Mr. Beecher's Kearney friends give him a cordial welcome to the home of his boyhood, at the same time congratulating St. Luke's upon her good fortune.—Kearney Daily Hub.

WELLFLEET WAVELETS.

John Young, formerly an early settler here but now of Wyoming, has been visiting here a few days lately. Wellfleet merchants are doing more business now than for ten years past.

The young folks and some old ones also have again taken up the art of the light fantastic toe; dances having taken place in the last week at Wellfleet, the Stone school house, the Votaw school house and at Lis Shirley's new house.

Road Supervisor Dan Robinson is tearing out the old bridge across the Medicine north of his place preparatory to building a new one.

N. W. Grandy lost two head of cattle this week from eating corn stalks. Several have died near Maywood. The best preventative known so far is to let the cattle in the stalks about thirty minutes the first day and gradually increase the time, not allowing them in all day for a week or more. When it takes a month to get a steer on full corn feeding, it is any wonder that cattle will die eating musty corn left in field and too much of everything, after being on late pastures, poor grass or eaten out.

N. W. Grandy has completed a new house for Fred Kester. Latimer Bros. have completed a large new barn for Mr. Splinter. Fred Kreager has a new barn, A. M. Nightingale is building a large barn for Will Smith and he will erect a new house for Pat Cushing. Verily the building boom hath struck this neck of the woods.

Mrs. Howell of Dickens will teach the Belle Prairie school. Kay Davis writes that he likes his new location at Colorado Springs fine.

Last week Ben Crawley, Jr., had some matches get on fire in his pocket while heading off some cattle and as they burnt him some he jerked them out and the grass caught on fire on the Alcohol Flats between his place and the school house near Nightingale's. The wind was strong and had it not been for a cornfield stopping the head fire it would have burned through to the Republican river. As it was it took from 2 a. m. till nearly sundown to get out the ride and back fire. No one should carry matches loose in the pocket.

WALLACE WAIFS.

John Rae, a Colorado stockman, was a guest of C. H. Walter for a few days but was taken sick a day or two ago and left for his home in Denver Friday evening.

Lem Kidwell, who has been hauling beets for parties at Hershey for the past two weeks, was selling onions to the Wallace people Saturday at ninety cents per bushel.

A sad accident occurred about five miles west of Wallace on Tuesday evening, the 28th ult. While W. J. Martin was driving home between nine and ten

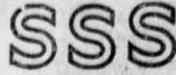

CANCEROUS ULCERS

Are in many respects like other ulcers or sores, and this resemblance often proves fatal. Valuable time is lost in fruitless efforts to heal the sore with washes and salves, because the germs of Cancer that are multiplying in the blood and the new Cancer cells which are constantly developing keep up the irritation and discharge, and at last sharp shooting pains announce the approach of the eating and sloughing stage, and a hideous, sickening cancerous sore begins its destructive work.

No ulcer or sore can exist without some predisposing internal cause that has poisoned the blood, and the open discharging ulcer, or the festering sore on the lip, cheek or other part of the body will continue to spread and eat deeper into the flesh unless the blood is purified and the Cancer germs or morbid matter eliminated from the circulation.

S. S. S. cleanses the blood of all decaying effete matter. It has great antitoxic and purifying properties that soon destroy the germs and poisons and restore the blood to its natural condition. And when pure blood is carried to the ulcer or sore the healing process begins, the discharge ceases and the place heals over and new skin forms. S. S. S. is a strictly vegetable blood purifier containing no mercury or minerals of any description.

If you have an ulcer or chronic sore of any kind, write us about it, medical advice will cost you nothing. Books on Cancer and other diseases of the blood will be sent free.

THE SWIFT SPECIFIC CO., Atlanta, Ga.

o'clock, his team left the road and went over the bank of a canon about fifteen feet high. The wagon was overturned, and when Mr. Martin's son Robert found him an hour or two later the edge of the wagon box was lying across his neck and he was dead. Mr. Martin was respected by all who knew him. He was a native of the Emerald Isle and came to this country about twelve years ago. He was a widower, having buried his wife in Ireland. Four children mourn his loss, the two oldest being married and the youngest a girl about fourteen years old. The family have the sympathy of the entire community. A law suit to recover some horses trespassing on the premises and crops of W. J. Kain and replevined by the owner, J. B. Tridle, which was to have been tried Saturday before Justice Walter, was continued two weeks by consent of the parties.

A Mr. Purbaugh, who lives in the eastern part of the state, is visiting his son, J. O. Purbaugh. There has been a good deal of fall grain planted in these parts, this fall and this splendid weather is putting it in shape to stand the winter.

The building erected by Andrew Carnegie for the Stevens Institute of Technology at Hoboken, N. J., was formally turned over to the trustees a few evenings ago. Mr. Carnegie, after handing over the keys, was presented with a silver casket. William C. Brown, who has been elected third vice president of the New York Central railroad and placed in full charge of the operating and mechanical departments of the road, has risen from the ranks, having started as a section hand on the Milwaukee & St. Paul. He is vice president and general manager of the Lake Shore railroad, which office he will retain.

John S. Sargent, the American painter now in London, has been painting many portraits this winter, including several of the Wertheimer family, whom his canvases have already given world-wide fame, and a group of three young women named Hunter, which is proclaimed veritably his masterpiece by those who have seen it in his studio.

Senator Pettus and His Watch. Senator Pettus, who will be 81 years old in July, never employs a watchmaker when his timepiece gets out of order, and has, on several occasions, been seen to take the works out of the case at his Senate desk, and after poking around until the machinery started up again, would replace them and return his watch to his pocket.

Col. W. F. Switzer of Columbia is called the greatest scrapbook man in Missouri. During each presidential campaign from 1844 to 1900 he made an exhaustive political scrapbook and indexed it. The books embrace the platforms and current literature of 15 national campaigns, covering a period of sixty years.

The marquis of Bute, who died recently, is sincerely mourned throughout southern Wales, and more particularly in Cardiff, which, from a little town of barely 1,000 inhabitants, was raised by his efforts to the dignity of a thriving industrial and shipping center.

The Court of Civil Appeals in Texas holds that a person who receives a letter addressed to another and who retains it an unreasonable length of time is guilty of obstructing the mail, and is liable for whatever damage may thereby result.

The Chinese Encyclopedia. The University Library of Berlin possesses a complete set of the Chinese encyclopedia "Hua-I-Yu," of which even the Chinese Imperial library has only a few volumes.

Climate of Western Australia. The climate of Western Australia is said to be most agreeable, for even if the midday sun is hot, a cool breeze generally springs up toward evening, making the air almost chilly at night.

Beautiful Clear Skies.
