May Change Liquor Law.

"It would not be surprising to find many friends of the dispensary system in the legislature. This question has not been seriously agitated in the state but since it has been discussed many favor it. The activity of the liquor interests in the campaign naturally drew attention to the laws governing them. It would be possible seriously to embarrass them by heaving to the line in the enforcement of the present Slocum law. A law providing for chemically pure liquor would close up over half the saloons in the state. The dispensary system would afford a means of handling the traffic in probably as acceptable fashion as any that has been suggested. It is an undoubted fact that this proposition will come up and if it does, it will take a place by the side of revenue in importance."—State Journal.

Colonel Cody and Indians.

Colonel W. F. Cody was at the Merchants hotel yesterday enroute to his home in the Big Horn basin after a season with his show. The show closed at Memphis, Tenn., on November 8, after a most successful season. For the last four months they have not had a drop of rain. The ending of the tour this year is in contrast with that of a year ago, when they suffered the railroad collision near Richmond, which cost the lives of 135 horses.

With "Buffalo Bill" are thirty-six Indians, who are being returned to the government agency at Pine Ridge in charge of "Bill" McCune. McCune will take sixty-five other Indians away from the agency and prepare them for the European trip of the Wild West show. Thirty-six Indians bring into the dining room of the Merchants for lunch was an unusual spectacle. They were regarded in the light of an exhibit and the other boarders stopped in the middle of their meals and gathered about to inspect them.

Colonel Cody's show will open in London on December 26th and will run there for fourteen weeks. Following that a tour of the continent will be made which will last for one or two years, according to the decision of Colonel Cody. The greater part of the show will sail on the St. Louis, leaving New York December 3.—Omaha Bee.

Best Lintment on Earth.

I. M. McHany, Greenville, Tex., writes, Nov. 2d, 1902: "I had rheumatism, last winter, was down in bed six weeks; tried everything, but got no relief, till a friend gave me a bottle of Ballard's Snow Lintment. I used it, and got two more bottles. It cured me and I haven't felt any rheumatism since. I can recommend Snow Lintment to be the best lintment on earth for rheumatism." For rheumatic, sciatic or neuralgic pains, rub in Ballard's Snow Lintment, you will not suffer long, but will be gratified with a speedy and effective cure. 25c, 50c, and $1.00 at A. F. Contagious Blood Poison

Is the name sometimes given to what is generally known as the BAD DIS-EASE. It is not confined to dens of vice or the lower classes. The purest and best people are sometimes infected with this awful malady through handling the clothing, drinking from the same vessels, using the same toilet articles, or otherwise coming in contact with persons who have contracted it.

It begins usually with a little blisters or sore, then swelling in the groins, a red eruption breaks out on the body, sores and ulcers appear in the mouth, the throat becomes ulcerated, the hair, eye brows and lashes fall out; the blood becoming more contaminated, copper colored spots and pustular eruptions and sores appear upon different parts of the body, and the poison even destroys the bones.

S. S. S. is a Specific for this loathsome disease, and cures it even in the worst forms. It is a perfect antidote for the powerful virus that pollutes the blood and penetrates to all parts of the system. Unless you get this poison out of your blood it will ruin you, and bring disgrace and disease upon your children, for it can be transmitted from parent to child. S. S. S. contains no mercury or potash, but is guaranteed a strictly vegetable compound. Write for our free home treatment book and learn all about Contagious Blood Poison. If you want medical advice give us a history of your case, and our physicians will furnish all the information you wish without any charge whatever. THE SWIFT SPECIFIC CO., ATLANTA, GA.
