JUDGE KINKADE carried twenty-eight of the thirty-three counties in the Sixth congressional district. That comes mighty near being unanimous.

GEO. C. McALLISTER, republican candidate for representative was elected by a majority of 759. He received a majority in all counties in the district except Perkins.

IN VIEW of the rumor that Senator Millard will resign, this paper wants to go on record as favoring A. E. Cady as his successor. Mr. Cady is one of the brainiest men in Nebraska and well equipped for a seat in the United States senate.

THOUSANDS of republicans in Nebraska will not forget that Editor Rosewater of the Omaha Bee did much to secure the election of Hitchcock to congress. Knives have been whetted to a keen edge and they will be used on Rosewater at the first opportunity.

PIONEER precinct, in Deuel county, which cast its entire vote for McKinley six years ago, held no election this year, that is not a resident of the twenty or more in the precinct cast a vote. In speaking of this the Chappell Register says: We hardly know which is the more significant. We read between the lines that the sand hills wanted prosperity, voted for it, got it, and are now satisfied to let well enough alone and don't care to put the county to the expense of holding an election for them.

THERE is already heard a low murmur that the republicans of the state will in some way at some future time remind Douglas county it must be more loyal to the Republican party and not so enthusiastic in the cause of rot-gut and beer if it is to enjoy the emoluments and honors of political office. Omaha always goes out of its way to discover if a candidate has compunctions against bowling up at the gin mills. If it finds he has it raises the prohibition cry and cuts him off the ticket. But the state can elect its candidates without the help of Omaha. This being true it might not be amiss to give that city a few easy lessons in the ethics of political decency—Fremont Tribune.

BETWEEN THE RIVERS. Mrs. Byler and Miss Gertie Smith of Hershey went to the county seat on Tuesday remaining until after the theatre in that city that evening.

Wild geese and ducks are coming into the valley in large numbers of late. There are about as many sportsmen as there are fowls. Notwithstanding the large stories told by the wily sportsmen the bagging has been very light so far.

Mrs. Chas. Toillion's mother, Mrs. Bereschied, and sister, Mrs. Anna Hewitt, returned to their home in Illinois after a couple of weeks' visit in this vicinity. Last Sabbath after Rev. Chamberlain's discourse at Hershey, he received two hundred dollars from various ones to apply on the indebtedness of the church at that place. Corn shucking in this vicinity is in full blast and the corn far superior to what was at first anticipated. Hogs and cattle that are being fed on it look plump and healthy. D. B. White and W. R. Brooks will represent Nichols precinct as jurors at the December term of district court. The crop has been handled successfully and proved profitable. Some doubt was entertained, during the early fall, if hands could be secured for the best harvest, but it seems that there has been sufficient help to do the necessary work. Sutherland News. From the Free Lance. Sam Anderson started his corn shredder Monday. The expert was out, set up the machine and commenced operations. It is said that the machine works very satisfactorily and husks the corn cleaner than the average shucker. A large portion of the corn fields have been cut and harvested by the corn binders and there will be considerable work for the shredder this winter. The fodder is shredded in such shape that it can be baled and shipped, thus creating another industry for the farmer who raises corn and has not the stock to consume the fodder. Some of this shredded fodder was baled and shipped to Omaha last winter and the stockmen seemed to prefer it before hay and it would command
