Dies After Brief Illness.

Mrs. L. F. Waugh died at the family residence in the west part of town Tuesday afternoon of pneumonia after an illness of but six days. The disease was stubbornly fought by the physicians and received the constant care of the attendants, but it resisted treatment and the beloved wife and mother was called to her home beyond, surrounded by the father, seven children, and relatives who had been called and arrived Sunday. These latter were Mrs. J. A. Venable, a sister; M. P. Allen, a brother; C. H. Riddell, a brother-in-law; and C. K. Allen, a nephew, all of Rothville, Mo.

The funeral was held from the residence yesterday afternoon, Rev. Greenlee conducting the services in the presence of a large gathering of friends who assembled to pay this last earthly respect to one who by her goodness and kindness had won their love and esteem.

Willie Lee Allen was born in Virginia in 1862 and removed to Missouri with her parents when seven years of age. In 1886 the family moved to Ogalalla, and it was in that town she became acquainted with and was later married to Mr. Waugh. In 1893 Mr. and Mrs. Waugh moved to Lincoln county and lived on a farm in the valley west of town until three years ago when they became residents of North Platte. The deceased had for years been a consistent member of the Baptist church, but had not affiliated herself with the church in this city. Her life on earth was such as to win for her the crown of life eternal. To the grief-stricken family the sympathy of all acquaintances goes forth.

Seventy-five members of the Nebraska State Railway Employees Protective Association appeared before the state railway commission at Lincoln yesterday to protest against any material reduction in freight rates. As expressed by the numerous speakers, representing every branch of railroad works, the idea of the workmen is that if freight rates are reduced, wages of employes must also be reduced in proportion; that even if freight rates are reduced, the great majority of the people will not be benefited, but the profit thus made will go the middleman; that the small dealers are not asking for the reduction, but the reduction is asked for by the large shippers, who have in the past enjoyed the benefits of liberal rebates, which are now denied them by law. S. C. Meemonger, of this city, locked horns with Commissioner Williams and a lively tilt ensued, Meemonger producing a statement purported to have been issued by Williams in which it was stated that rates in Nebraska should be reduced fifty per cent. Williams contended that no such statement was in the article he had published.

A Pretty Wedding.

A very pretty and well appointed home wedding occurred Wednesday evening when Miss Nora Davis Fenwick became the bride of Raymond B. West, a prominent lawyer of Basin, Wyo. For this happy occasion the Fenwick residence was prettily decorated with cut flowers and smilax, the color scheme in the parlor being pink, in the dining room green and white and red in the other rooms. The ceremony was performed by Rev. T. B. Greenlee in the presence of about forty guests.

To the strains of a wedding march rendered by Mrs. C. A. Lowell, the bridal party entered the parlor preceded by Lucile Ridgely and Eva Hoagland, who formed a ribbon aisle for the passage of the others, and by Marian Risser as ring bearer. The bride was attended by Miss Vera Sitton and the groom by Clark Buchanan. The bride was handsomely gowned in white silk and carried white roses; the maid in pink silk with white net and carrying pink roses. The ring ceremony was used, and as performed by Dr. Greenlee proved very impressive.

Following the ceremony congratulations were extended and later an elaborate wedding supper was served in the dining room, the bridal party and relatives being seated at one large table, and the guests at small tables. The couple were the recipients of many handsome articles of cut glass, china and silver.

Mr. and Mrs. West left on a night train for Denver and will remain there a few days prior to going to their home in Basin, Wyo., where the groom is associated with H. S. Ridgely in the practice of law, the firm being considered one of the strongest in Northern Wyoming and enjoying a very lucrative practice.

Mrs. West is a North Platte product, an attractive young lady who through childhood and young womanhood has enjoyed the friendship and good-will of every acquaintance.

The Degree of Honor social club will meet with Mrs. Sylvester Friend Tuesday afternoon, June 2d.
