NO. 45

The MID-SUMMER SALE at THE LEADER

Our annual Mid-Summer Sale, an event that is always looked forward to with great interest by the purchasing public, is now in progress. The Leader claims to sell reliable merchandise at lower prices than any other store in North Platte, and this assertion can be proven to any person who examines the goods and prices. The Leader can do this because it pays cash for its goods thus saving the interest other merchants are compelled to pay, and also by saving the profits of the middle-men.

At 2 p. m. there will be an address by Hon. Ned Brown, of Lancaster county, who comes as a representative of Governor Sheldon, Dean Burnett of the State Agricultural College, Superintendent Snyder and others.

Ice Cream and Lemonade will be served free.

Music will be furnished throughout the day by the North Platte City Band. Every one will be welcome.

Turn out and see the most magnificent crops grown on Nebraska soil and have a good time.

COMMITTEE OF ARRANGEMENTS.

Junior Normal Entertained.

The faculty and students of the Junior Normal were the guests of the Luther League at the Lutheran parish house Tuesday evening. Seven of the faculty and more than 125 of the students accepted the hospitality of the young people at that time. The evening was pleasantly spent in various games, several guessing contests being the special features. At 10:30 cake and punch were served, after which Prof. Dr. Beattie, in behalf of the normal, feelingly expressed thanks for the courtesies shown. The gathering was appreciated by the League and served to further the acquaintance and friendship of all concerned.

For Sale.

Pure bred Shorthorn Bulls. Eligible to registry. Prices right. Inquire of or address. BLAKENBURG BROS., North Platte, Neb.

For Sale.

New two-story house and a lot; 320 South Dewey street, six blocks from postoffice. Cement sidewalks. Price $2,300 cash. Inquire of Picard Bros.

News of the City.

The Knights Templar meeting announced for tonight has been called off.

Will Yost and family left yesterday morning for a visit with friends in Omaha, expecting to be absent a couple of weeks.

C. O. Weingand went to Omaha Wednesday evening to meet a traveling man for the purpose of purchasing a large invoice of clothing for the firm of Weingand & McDonald.

Sam Gavins and Arthur Boyd left Wednesday morning for Minneapolis, where they will accept positions in mercantile establishments. The boys leave many friends here who will wish them well in their new home.

Justice Patrick H. Sullivan will officiate at the public wedding tomorrow. We know of no one who can tie the knot more gracefully or take greater pleasure in uniting two fond and loving hearts than Mr. Sullivan.

Rev. Dr. L. P. Ludden, of Lincoln, came in on No. 1 yesterday and last evening addressed the Junior Normal. Dr. Ludden is president of the State Board of Education, and is en route to the Lutheran conference to be held next week at Oshkosh, Neb.

Shoes repaired with neatness and dispatch. TEKULVE AND THE BOY.

About fifteen young ladies were very pleasantly entertained Tuesday evening by the Misses Lowe in favor of Miss Chloe Davis, of Niota, Ill., who has been their guest for the past month. Fortune telling and amusing contests were the entertaining features of the evening and at the close ice cream and cake were served. Miss Davis left Wednesday night for Omaha, where she will visit for a few days with Mr. and Mrs. A. Yates before going to her home.

Tom Healey's chief vocation from now until next November will be to get votes for Byran. His controlling desire is to see Colonel Bryan stroll through the White House grounds, and even though Tom does not in that event receive appointment to office, he will say, as did a man once before on a great occasion, "Lord, now let thy servant depart in peace, for mine eyes have seen thy salvation." Mr. Healey will attend the Denver convention and "holer" for Bryan.

W. L. Cary left yesterday on a business trip to Denver.

Mrs. C. K. Martini and children have returned from a visit in Ogalalla.

Miss Mabel Holleran, of Hastings, is a guest at the Hanifin residence.

The furnishings to be used by the free delivery carriers have been installed at the postoffice.

Judge and Mrs. W. C. Elder went to Wellfleet yesterday afternoon, where they will spend the Fourth.

For Sale—Two-row cultivators at $35 each. Joseph Hershey, Fifth and Locust streets.

Mr. and Mrs. James Patterson left Wednesday night for Ponda, Iowa, where Mr. Patterson will engage in business.

Mrs. J. D. McCarthy, who had been visiting her parents for the past ten days, returned to her home in Ames, Iowa, yesterday.

For Sale—The E. D. Owens property in south part of town. A desirable home at a right price. See O. E. ELDER.

Wm. Turpie, who had been looking after his real estate interests in this section for several weeks, left Wednesday night for his home in Columbus, Ohio.

Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Federhoof and son Martin, who had been visiting relatives in Pennsylvania for several weeks, returned home Wednesday. They report a very enjoyable trip.

Morning Glory. A trio of Flour selected Lexington Patent, dom equalled and Minnesota never excelled. At Harrington & Tobin's.

John Gillings, who has been employed in a law office at Lincoln, arrived in town this week and will fill the position of clerk in the land office made vacant by the resignation of E. O. Fuller.

Ten dollars reward for the arrest and conviction of the parties stealing from my garden. E. A. GARY.

Colonel Cody writes that twice in one week the wind blew down the tents of the Wild West Show. The Colonel says the hardest proposition which attended the mishaps was to take of the thousand women who fainted, but he did the best he could under the circumstances. The Wild West will exhibit in Omaha some time next month.

Part of the old building on Front street occupied by "Doc" Sizemore has been torn down to make room for the one-story brick building to be erected by John Bratt, and for which White & Lesky have the contract.

Arthur Salisbury and Sanford Hartman received their Buick automobiles yesterday. Two others came with the shipment and will be offered for sale by the North Platte Auto Co., of which J. E. Fillion is the active manager.

The shoemaker who has a shop in the Ottenstein building on Sixth street is devoting most of his time to organizing socialist leagues in western Nebraska. Members of that party are very active in Nebraska and announce their intention of organizing leagues in every voting precinct in the state.

The beauty of cut glass depends upon its brilliancy; that depends upon the design, depth of cuttings and the quality of the glass. The glass we sell is the best made, clean cut, sparkling, exquisite in design and moderate in price. CLINTON, JEWELER AND OPTICIAN.

While in Williamsport, Pa., on June 23d, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Federhoof attended Colonel Cody's Wild West Show, met and took dinner with the Colonel and were shown every attention by him. Mr. Federhoof says the Wild West this year is magnificent, and the attendance at Williamsport was greater than the seating capacity.

J. B. McDonald, accompanied by several others, started out Tuesday evening to meet the Chicago democrats, but when reaching a point just over the south river bridge, a mishap occurred to his car and it was towed back to town by a delivery wagon. This mishap of Jim's is a forerunner of a greater one that will occur to his friend Bryan next November.

The delegates from Chicago to the democratic convention in Denver who were making the trip in automobiles, arrived in town Tuesday night at ten o'clock having made the run from Grand Island during the day. There were four Franklin touring cars and a special baggage car in the train. The passengers were dusty and their faces sunblistered, but they were in a jovial mood notwithstanding these inconveniences. They remained in town over night and left the following morning for Sterling. They were met Tuesday evening eight miles east of town by Messrs McDonald, Healy, White and others and piloted into town.

Rev. J. Merriman, the minister with the Sells-Floto show will address the circus employes in the main tent Sunday using as his subject "Nebraska and her Distinguished Sons."

Every farmer in Lincoln county who can possibly do so, should attend the basket picnic to be held at the state experimental farm July 9th. It will be well worth the time of any farmer to see the condition of the crops and stock on the farm and learn of the methods employed.

Cottonwood and Vicinity.

The new school district formed from No. 2 had its first annual meeting last Monday in each district.
