Wheat in Dawson county seems to be a light yield. A 100-acre field near Gothenburg averaged but ten bushels to the acre.

Look up the Men's $7.00 Suit Sale and do yourself some good.

The racing cart which the Grand Island horse team will use in the tournament races next month, has been shipped to this city.

E. S. Davis, Claude Weingard and Mrs. Gus Huffman were appointed appraisers of the Burke & Co. stock and made the appraisal yesterday.

Well line of up-to-date silks for fall just arrived at THE LEADER.

The north part of this county and Logan county was visited by a heavy rain Wednesday night, thus allaying fears that the dry weather might affect the corn crop.

Thanks are due the new weather observer for the rain which he brought down from Colorado last night. He put in the wet plug at Fort Morgan and the rain extended to this city.

Six thousand bushels of small grain were grown this season on the Buchanan & Patterson ranch formerly owned by P. Mylander. This is in addition to a very large acreage of corn.

A girl wanted for general housework. Inquire of Mrs. W. H. McDonald.

Policeman Smith of Gothenburg was in town yesterday attempting to get a clue to thieves who burglarized the Aden store in that town Tuesday night and secured $400 in cash and checks from the safe.

Now that the city has selected a contractor to put in cross walks and approaches, that class of work will be performed with all possible speed. The need of these crosswalks is apparent in all parts of the city.

All two piece suits at one-third less than the regular price.

THE HUB CLOTHING DEPT.
Since the free delivery system went into effect it requires a two-cent stamp on a letter addressed to a resident of the city, just the same as though the letter was addressed to a person living in the remotest part of the United States or the far-away Philippine Islands.

This section was visited by rain last night that was pretty badly needed in order to revive vegetation that had begun to give evidence of drought. The fall amounted to one-third of an inch, or to be exact, thirty-four one hundredths of an inch. The rain was, apparently, quite general over the county.

The new residence of W. E. Shuman in the Trustee Addition is enclosed and the plasterers are now at work on the inside. The house is quite a pretentious one.

Ladies' Shirt Waists to be closed out at less than cost at THE LEADER.

North Platte has some big things, but not a corporation with a capital of $150,000,000. In making mention of the C. F. Iddings Company three too many ciphers were used.

Messrs. Hoeler, Graham, Woodhurst and this writer will probably leave the latter part of next week for Centennial, Wyo., to spend a week fishing for trout in the North Platte river.

Quality is what you should stand out for when buying silverware or silver plate. Silver means silver here, and everything in plated ware is the best of its kind. We can show you a splendid variety of either.

CLINTON, JEWELER AND OPTICIAN.

Ed Ewell returned yesterday from an inspection of the beets in the neighborhood of Hershey and reports them in fine condition. Practically all fields have been "laid by," and possible irrigating is all that will be necessary until harvest time.

The busiest place in town yesterday was the office of City Clerk Temple, who the day before had issued a couple hundred city warrants and everyone who had one issued to him was anxious to get it and put the money in circulation. These warrants represented over three thousand dollars.

One-fifth off on all Low Shoes.

Messrs. Babcock and Johnson and another gentleman of Chappell were in town yesterday and took the Chapter degrees in Masonry. At seven o'clock a banquet was served in the dining hall, Bob Douglas acting as a chef in the preparation of the menu, and the members attending say he covered himself with glory.

Among the North Platte people who attended the White-Miller wedding at Hershey Wednesday were Mr. and Mrs. O. W. Sizemore, Miss Myrtle White, Mrs. Donegan, Miss Ethel, Donegan, Mrs. Dunn, Mrs. Andy Scharman, Mrs. Frank Buchanan, Mr. Harlan Kerr, Miss Myrtle Richard and Harvey Van Doran.

Wanted—A good girl for general housework.—Apply to Mrs. A. B. Hoagland.

The following, written in a hand that resembles "Lord" Loftus', was found under THE TRIBUNE door at seven this morning: "The most inexperienced can tell a good Scotch highball in this way: Hold a silver dollar tightly in the left hand; drink ten high balls in thirty minutes; if your silver dollar has not increased to ten thousand dollars you will know there is something wrong with the high balls."

Double LL 36-inch Sheeting, regular price 8 cents, now 5 cents per yard at THE LEADER.

W. S. Moore, of Greeley, Col., who was here a couple of weeks ago looking after contracts for draining slough lands north of the river, writes W. C. Patterson that he will be here with his outfit sometime between August 15th and 20th. Mr. Moore runs his ditch machine with twenty-four yoke of oxen, with the cable so attached to the ditch machine that the animals travel on dry and firm ground. Several north side parties will contract with Moore for draining their low hay land.

See the Delamothe real rose hat pins in our show windows. They are the latest fad. Made from real roses. DIXON, The Jeweler.

Mrs. Syl Friend was the recipient of a very pleasant surprise Wednesday afternoon from members of the Lutheran aid society, of which she had been a member since its organization over twenty years ago. The afternoon was delightfully passed, and as an evidence of the esteem in which she is held, she was presented with a cut glass dish and a souvenir spoon containing a picture of the Lutheran church. Refreshments, provided by the invaders, were served.

Wanted at once—Some one to cut 100 acres of hay six miles southwest of North Platte.

For Sale—About two stack first cutting alfalfa six miles southwest of city W. V. HOAGLAND.

Polled Angus Bulls for sale. THOMAS E. DOOLITTLE.

S. C. Wills has withdrawn his certificate as a candidate for the republican nomination for county commissioner. He concluded that he could earn money easier and more of it by looking after his farm and stock interests than serving as commissioner at three dollars per day. The fact is no man can really afford to serve as commissioner at the present salary if his personal business is of any magnitude. Five dollars per day is none too much for a good man who sits as a county commissioner.

LOW SHOE SALE—Twenty per cent off. GRAHAM & Co.

Miss Loretta Murphy entertained in a delightful manner forty young ladies yesterday afternoon at her home 214 West 4th St., in favor of her guest Miss Helen Ganey. In a leaf guessing contest Miss Penna Beeler won the prize. Amusing conundrums were given and answered during lunch, after which each guest was presented with a rose with her for name attached. Instrumental and vocal selections rendered by Misses Elizabeth Bonner, Esther Antonides and Irma Clinton were very pleasing features of the afternoon.

We sell Gillette Safety Razors. They have no equal. Shaving made pleasant. DIXON, The Jeweler.

Tennis Tournament.

In the tennis tournament yesterday played on the local courts between Lexington and North Platte, the latter won two of the three doubles and lost five of the six singles. In the doubles Birge and Otten defeated Rankin and Temple 6-2, 6-4; Redmond and Short beat Temple and Temple 6-2, 6-3; and Cook and Smith defeated Armstrong and Vernon 6-0, 6-1.

"Pittsburg Perfect"
ELECTRICALLY WELDED FENCES

are enjoying phenomenal success, and are conceded to be far superior to any other fences on the market. Thousands of pleased fence users will testify that "Pittsburg Perfect" Electrically Welded Fences will stand ordinary as well as hard usage. Will not sag in summer's heat nor break in the cold of winter. Are made of the best material for fencing purposes. Have stays that will not slip nor can they be moved out of place. Will conform to the most uneven ground and can be erected over hills and through valleys as well as on level ground. Have no slack wires to spoil the appearance as well as the efficiency. Do not require an expert to erect. Are now made with stay wires as large as the line wires.
