Marriage to Dissolve Quartet of Belles

WASHINGTON.-With the marriage next fall of Miss Evelyn Walsh, daughter of the Colorado millionaire, to Edward McLean, son of John R. McLean of Cincinnati and Washington, a quartet of the most famous belles Washington has ever known will be dissolved. This quartet includes in addition to Miss Walsh, Mathilde Townsend, whose engagement to the Duke d'Albe of Spain is anticipated; Miss Katherine Elkins, who, in spite of the non-committal attitude of her parents, is expected to wed the duke of the Abruzzi, and Miss Isabel May, whom society long ago took for granted to be the fiancee of Count von Hatzfeldt, counsellor and first secretary of the German embassy.

This quartette of girls have made Washington hum in the past two seasons. Nothing has been too gay for of Miss May more than anything else the stamp of their approval, and they have set a pace that the more con- nouncement. Miss May was formerly servative younger element has not dared to follow.

Every preparation was made to formally announce the engagement, but it leaked out ahead of time, and then the family of Miss Elkins sealed their lips. But the announcement, which will probably come very early in the fall, will not be a surprise.

Miss Mathilde Townsend, who still holds sway as Washington's greatest beauty, is spending the summer at Bar Harbor with her mother, where they will entertain the Duke d'Albe some time this summer. The young Spanish nobleman has been in the train of the young American beauty for several years, and his coming to America this year is regarded as proof of his matrimonial intentions toward Miss Townsend.

He raised his walking stick in the air and with great force brought the end of it down and forced it into the earth several inches, exclaiming that the building should be erected on that ground, and subsequently it was.

It is also said that the spot where President Jackson stuck his walking stick into the earth was at the southeast corner of what is now the south front terrace of the ground surrounding the building, the ground then be ing part of the White Lot.

the thirteenth census. The approximate cost will be $14,000,000.

The task of making the enumeration of the 90,000,000 people in the United States, Alaska, Hawali and Porto Rico. and in Guam, Samoa and the Panama canal zone wil be one of enormous proportions. It will be the most gigantic work of enumeration that has ever been attempted in this or any other country, and it is intended to reach the acme of correctness and thoroughness. Not merely a count and compilation concerning the population alone, it enacted the necessary legislation. He will include a census of agriculture,

A census of the Philippines will not be included, as one was taken in 1903. It will require 70,000 persons to take and it is doubted if the Philippine government would care to bear the cost of another enumeration so soon.

WALKING COSTUMES

The illustration to the left shows a very smart costume that would look well made up in a dull elephant gray cloth.

The skirt is high-walsted, and has a train, it is trimmed with gray satia ribbon to simulate an over-skirt.

The coat is fastened with a single button under a rosette of the ribbon just on the bust, it then slopes off to the back; the collar and cuffs are of pale gray cloth, trimmed with ribbon. The sleeve is plain, but has an epaulette on

The skirt consists of thirteen gores, the seams of which are wrapped.

The coat is a semi-fitting sack, reaching just below the hips, a piece of silk is let in between the side and front seam; tabs of the material are placed ever it, in the point of each tab a silk-covered button is sewn, the waistcoat reaches down just to the waist, and is fastened by silk-covered buttons; the collar also is of silk. The plain coat sleeve set into a silk cuff at the wrist. Straw hat, trimmed with roses, and foliage.

VOILES IN PRETTY DESIGNS.

Popular Summer Material Is of All Shades and Colorings.

The new silk voiles are in countless pretty designs. Over a foundation of black, green, blue, light and dark, are large and small squares, marked off in thin white lines. Well Groomed Hands.

A well groomed hand is a rarity, even though many people are careful about the nails. The hands show age people spend as much time on the hands as they do on the face, and Wash blouses show the monogram then the hands are in water more than the face, with the result that they are drier and more apt to wrinkle. Soft and white hands are best acquired by night treatment. Use a toilet cream that agrees with the skin, and rub it in thoroughly before retiring, being especially careful to rub and massage the knuckles well. Then slip on a loose pair of gloves to keep the cream on the hands. Red hands are caused by poor circulation and often by tight on them from the seams in the gloves The only way to effect a cure is to remove the cause.

New Color Combinations.

Ornge and gray is one of the new est combinations. A superb gown of gray mousseline de sole is made over an underdress of orange satin-satin as sort as the mousseline. The skirt is closely gathered and plaited back and front, falling loosely from the belt posed unusually high. The plaits are, however, fastened extremely close, freed only below the knees. A wide band of silver embroidery, done in gray filet in relief, breaks the line of the skirt; from back and front the band of embroidery meets on the sides and mounts to the belt line. The corsage is composed of the embroldery.

Coat of Black Silk Muslin.

A stunning long coat is made of black silk muslin, braided all over with white. Wide white silk braid outlines the edges, forms odd strappings and finishes the elbow sleeves with quaint bows. The back is very short walsted and is finished with big gold buttons.

Stockings with Tan Shoes.

Nowadays if one wants to be ultra smart one must have dark blue stockings with one's tan shoes. This fashion was first adopted by the men, but women have embraced it enthuslastically and now every smart girl numbers such hosiery.

THE GARDEN SPOT OF THE EARTH

Many People Planning to Go to Southwest Oklahoma.

The removal of restrictions on Indian lands in the Indian Territory portion of Oklahoma, is creating great interest throughout the nation among capitalists looking for investments and planning to establish manufactories, as well as among the tillers of the soil who hope to better their condition.

Chickasha is situated in the Washita valley, the center of the choicest of the Indian lands, and to that city will go those who study the situation intent on reaching the vantage point. Seven railroad lines diverge there. Water plants will furnish to manufactories cheap electric power.

Chickasha ships more corn, more cotton and more live stock than any other point in Oklahoma.

The modern built business district in the valley and beautiful residence portion on hills make a veritable dreamland. The imposing churches and modern school buildings are monuments to the character of the citizens who erected them.

The country for which Chickasha is the market center ranks with the most productive in the world. Corn, cotton, wheat and alfalfa are grown with equal success to that of either crop in a one crop country. Garden trucking is to be one of the most profitable pursuits. Fruits of all kinds grow and produce luxuriantly. In fact, Grady county, of which Chickasha is the capital, is the garden spot of the earth.

Chickasha has a live Commercial Club which promptly answers letters of inquiry regarding the section to which the eyes of the nation are just now directed.

Politeness.

It was the last day of the term in one of our public kindergartens. The children were all seated around the tables thoroughly enjoying the treat of ice cream which the teacher always provided on this occasion.

Glancing around the room at the beaming faces of the children, the kindergartner noticed one child pick up his plate and lick it.

She went up to him and said in a low tone of voice: "Freddie, put down your plate; it is not polite to pick it up and lick it." Fred obeyed at once, quietly placing his plate on the table. He then put his head down to the plate and licked it.

Real Philosopher. Philosophy, says Jerome K. Jerome, is the art of bearing other people's troubles. The truest philosopher he ever heard of was a woman. She was brought into the London hospital suffering from a poisoned leg. The house surgeon made a hurried examination. He was a man of blunt speech. "It will have to come off," he told her. "What, not all of it?" "The whole of it, I'm sorry to say," growled the house surgeon. "Nothing else for it?" 'No other chance for you whatever," explained the house surgeon. "Ah, well, thank Gawd it's not my 'ead."

teacher. "Well, then," said Tommy, with an air of interest, "I'll be there next Sunday, you bet. I've been laying for that kid for three weeks, and never knew where to find him."

HEALTH AND INCOME

Both Kept Up on Scientific Food.

Good sturdy health helps one a lot to make money. With the loss of health one's income is liable to shrink, if not entirely dwindle away.

When a young lady has to make her own living, good health is her best asset.

"I am alone in the world," writes a Chicago girl, "dependent on my own efforts for my living. I am a clerk, and about two years ago through close application to work and a boarding house diet, I became a nervous invalid, and got so bad off it was almost impossible for me to stay in the office a half day at a time.
