POLITICAL ANNOUNCEMENTS.

CONGRESSMAN.
 I hereby announce myself a candidate for the nomination for congressman from the Sixth District of Nebraska at the primary election to be held September 1st.

ROBERT G. ROSS,
 Lexington, Neb.

COUNTY COMMISSIONER.
 I hereby announce myself a candidate for the nomination for county commissioner for the Third district, subject to the action to the voters at the primary election, September 1st, 1908.

IRA A. GAITHER,
 Dickens, Neb.

That straw vote taken on a Union Pacific train the other day shows the relative strength of the two leading presidential candidates—Taft twenty-four, Bryan fourteen.

The democrats of Illinois have rescued Adlai Stevenson from his political oblivion by selecting him as their candidate for governor, thereby hoping to add strength to Bryan in that state. Adlai will not, however, prove a winning card for Bryan.

TOM MAJORS, who has been identified with the republican party in Nebraska for forty years, is a candidate for state senator from his district and it is said that he will neither have opposition at the primary nor in his election. Whether Tom will enjoy this is questionable. He is so accustomed to having political fights that an unopposed campaign will make him lonely.

NEBRASKA republicans have been complimented by the selection of Wm. G. Hayward, chairman of the republican state committee, to be secretary of the republican national committee. Mr. Hayward, as chairman of the state committee, has shown himself a capable man, and has proven that straightforward dealing in politics is more successful than the employment of doubtful methods.

An eminent police judge and a well known business man of Omaha were ejected from a restaurant that city, after paying for a meal they did not get, because one of them was attired in a shirt waist instead of a coat. Thus do the decrees of fashion force discomfort even upon man. Out here in North Platte a man with a collarless shirt, one gallus and no shoes on his feet can eat at a restaurant—if he has the price. We regret to see Omaha lose that personal freedom so long dominant in the west.

The idea of electing Mr. Bryan because he could do no harm to the business interests of the country on account of the fact that the United States senate would be republican, is preposterous, says the Beatrice Express. Why elect a man whose policies would destroy confidence and hinder prosperity if he but had the power? Why not elect a man in harmony with the senate—a man who could do something and whose policies would strengthen and promote the material interests of the country? To elect a man merely because he wants the office or because a political party feels that its turn has come, would be utter folly.

Homestead Law Amendment.

The following amendment to the law pertaining to Kinkaid homesteads will be of interest to those who have taken land under that act:

"That section two of an act entitled 'An act to amend the homestead laws as to certain unappropriated and unreserved lands in Nebraska,' approved April 28, 1904, be and the same hereby is amended to read as follows:

"Section 2. That entries under the homestead laws of the United States within the territory above described who own and occupy the lands heretofore entered by them may, under the provisions of this act and subject to its conditions, enter other lands contiguous to their said homestead entry, which shall not, with the land so already entered, owned and occupied, exceed in the aggregate six hundred and forty acres; and residence continued and improvements made upon the original homestead, subsequent to the making of the additional entry, shall be accepted as equivalent to actual residence and improvements made upon the additional land so entered, but final entry shall not be allowed of such additional land until five years after first entering the same, except in favor of entrymen entitled to credit for military service."

The Business Outlook for 1908.

On all sides we see evidence that the tide has turned. A steady improvement from this time onward may be looked for with confidence. In New York, Chicago, Pittsburg, St. Louis, Boston and other industrial centers mills are reopening their doors. The stocks of goods in the hands of manufacturers and wholesalers have been reduced to low figures, and the resumption of purchases, which is under way in all the great lines of trade, is beginning to send in orders to the factories with a little of their old-time volume.

Within the past three weeks the output of the mills of the United States Steel corporation has been increased ten per cent over the average of recent months. The promise is that by the beginning of November that largest of the world's steel concerns will be running its works to nearly their full capacity. The independent steel mills, which furnish almost half of the country's product, are also responding to the upward turn in trade.

This improvement is registering itself in the reduction of the number of idle locomotives and cars. When the number was at its highest, in the closing days of April, 413,000 cars were sidetracked throughout the United States for lack of work. In the closing days of July the number had dropped below the 300,000 line. The heavy crops, which in a few weeks will begin to move to the markets, are likely to send the number of idle cars down to very small figures before November. If the election turns out to be what a large majority of the business men of the country want it to be, every locomotive and car in the United States will probably be actively at work by January first.—American Industries for August.

Wallace Items.

Mrs. W. H. Smith went to Culbertson, Neb., Monday on an extended visit with her daughter, Mrs. Fenier and family.

T. R. McVoy spent Monday with relatives near Somerset, returning Tuesday.

Jas. Robbins purchased the old livery barn on Main street Monday and is having it taken down. He will use the dimensions and the balance will be used in building a barn and outouses.

Mr. Feidell wife and children arrived Thursday and will make their home at the depot. Mr. Feidell is the new agent, taking the place of Jos. Wilson, who resigned some ten days ago. It seems odd not to encounter Mr. Wilson's rotund countenance and we are sorry to lose so accommodating an agent but no doubt Mr. Feidell will be all that can be asked as an agent and a citizen.

Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Hayden were Holdrege visitors Wednesday and Thursday.

The ladies Kensington will meet at the church next Wednesday afternoon and will employ their time in quilting. All are cordially invited to be present.

Not much politics over this way, but what there is all for C. H. Walter for county commissioner.

Deputy Sheriff Lowell came over from the Platte Tuesday and arrested Pat Kruse for assault and battery on the person of Sam Murphy. Six weeks ago Mr. Murphy was assaulted by some one with the intent to do great bodily harm and alleged robbery. He was struck on the head just behind the ear with something like a hammer, his lower jaw was broken and there were several bad cuts about the face and head. He has been under the Doctor's care ever since and has had a hard time of it.

The school board is having the school grounds fixed up. They sure did need it.

Miss Nellie Conneally, one of Lincoln county's best instructors, will hold forth in the C. L. Dillon neighborhood, securing the school at $50 per month.

That was a splendid rain that visited this section Thursday night and was just the thing for corn. The crop could hardly be in better condition.

Ted Funk has purchased the Mrs. John Way property in the east part of town and will take possession in a few days. We understand Mr. and Mrs. Way will move to Hastings where they have property.

She Likes Good Things.

Mrs. Chas. E. Smith, of West Franklin, Maine, says: "I like good things and have adopted Dr. King's New Life Pills as my family laxative medicine, because they are good and do their work without making a fuss about it. These painless purifiers sold at Stone's drug store, 25 cents."

Orders to Complete Double Track.

Friday's Omaha Bee said: Harriman's trip across Nebraska has had one immediate result and that is the order which has gone forth from the Union Pacific headquarters to proceed at once with the completion of the double track on the main line of the Union Pacific across the state of Nebraska. The first work to be completed will be the double track from Omaha to Grand Island and enough men will be put at work at once to complete this work as soon as possible. Most of the rails and ties are in place, but they have been laying on the ground for over forty miles ever since the orders went forth last October to stop work.

While it is not known at headquarters just what Mr. Harriman had to say on the subject, it is known that as soon as he had finished his trip from Omaha to Grand Island the orders were issued for the operating department to put the second track into condition for use. When this work is completed the Union Pacific will have 154 miles of continuous double track between Omaha and Grand Island. It is the plan to have a double track from Omaha to Julesburg, but no orders have been received for the continuation of this work except east of Grand Island.
