Hat Pins made out of Real Roses

Real Rose Hat Pins

It does not seem possible, yet it is true, that these Hat Pins are made out of live roses, and changed into metal by a secret process. This discovery is without doubt one of the lost arts of the ancient Egyptians. They are the most beautiful of all Hat Pins. No two are alike. Made in finishes to conform to the prevailing fashions in millinery. Six sizes at the following prices:
$1.50, $2.00, $2.50,
$3.00, $3.75, $4.50
Everybody is talking about them. Don't fail to come in and see them. These are the genuine DELAMOTHE Real Rose Hat Pins.

The funeral of Cecil Merle Porterfield, the infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Porterfield, who was drowned in the irrigation ditch near Hershey Wednesday, was held at the residence Thursday, conducted by Rev. Evans and interment took place at the Riverside cemetery. The services were attended by many friends and neighbors.

The C. W. B. M. auxiliary meets with Mrs. Storm Wednesday afternoon. Let each member be present and as many of the aid society as possible.

The races of the firemen's tournament will be held on South Dewey street, where bleachers have been erected. A charge will be made for these seats.

This item appeared in the Lewellen Gazette of last Saturday: It has been reported that Dr. Hall was robbed of $250 in North Platte the first of the week.

Frank Smith, who had been in the employ of the Star Clothing House for several months, has severed his connection with that establishment. He will remain town for the time.

Miss Ruth Streitz leaves tonight for Ardwick, Maryland, the summer home of her uncle, A. Stewart. After spending a month there she will attend the Bristol School in Washington, D. C.

The remains of W. H. Welty are still held at the undertaking rooms of Ginn & White, no definite reply having yet been received from the several telegrams sent to relatives in New York.

The attendance for the afternoon's performance of Buffalo Bill's company was a record breaker for a town the size of Grand Island. The attendance at this performance was reported to be about 15,000.

Bratt & Goodman have 8 per cent money to help you secure a home, write the best and cheapest insurance against loss by fire, lightning, cyclone and tornado, and renthouses and rooms. Call and see them.

If you want any of the Hunter plums you will have to bring your order in at once. They will only run five or six days more.

WILCOX DEPARTMENT STORE.

While in Omaha last week Chas. Pass was told by W. R. McKeen that the Omaha shop ball team would be here next Saturday to play the local team but inquiry among local players failed to elicit any information upon the matter.

W. R. Yohe, of Wellfleet writes: "I have just marketed 214 head of hogs, without a single duck, that netted me $3,543.58. They were fed on our valley alfalfa farm one and one-half miles east of Wellfleet, which shows a good profit on corn-fed."

Mr. and Mrs. William Whitlock returned last night from their two months' stay at Cherokee Park. Their visit was very enjoyable and Mr. Whitlock reports very good success at trout fishing. A week before starting home he caught one that weighed five and one-half pounds. To assure doubting Thomases he has a large piece of paper on which he laid the fish and then drew an outline of its outside dimensions.

She Likes Good Things.

Mrs. Chas. E. Smith, of West Franklin, Maine, says: "I like good things and have adopted Dr. King's New Life Pills as our family laxative medicine, because they are good and do their work without making a fuss about it." These painless purifiers sold at Stone's drug store, 25 cents.

Miss Beatrice Murphy, of Marengo, Iowa, arrived in town last night.

Mrs. C. A. Dill and children have been the guests of friends in Omaha for the past week.

Judge Hoagland left this morning for Lincoln and from there will go to Cambridge to attend an old soldiers' reunion.

Leslie Hoagland, of Gandy, was in town Saturday enroute to Mitchell, where he was called by the illness of his father.

The regular meeting of the Club Nefodic to have been held this week, has been postponed until Wednesday of next week.

No order too large or too small for us to fill. Prompt delivery.

TRAMP, the GROCER.

Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Brown and children left this morning for Wisconsin to visit Mrs. Brown's mother, who has been in ill health for some time.

We have a full line of White Saxony China, also Haviland, for decorating. CLINTON, The Jeweler.

School Notes.

School will begin next Monday, September 7th.

Enrollment in the high school will begin Wednesday morning of this week and will be continued until Friday night. As the high school pupils enroll they will be given the necessary books and will be assigned a seat in the high room. The advantage of enrolling early is that you will be sure of a seat and possibly a seat you prefer. Also in case there is a lack of books from an unusually large enrollment you will be supplied. Come in at any time on Wednesday, Thursday or Friday.

Examinations in subjects for promotion and credit points in the grades or high school will be given on Friday. Come in the forenoon.

Saturday is given up to the teachers. The Superintendent will be in his office to consult with any and all teachers at any time on Saturday. Then at three o'clock a general teachers meeting will be held at which all teachers in the grades and high school will be present.

Pupils from out of town may be located by calling at the superintendent's office at any time this week. Do not put it off until next week for the work is heavy then and consideration may not be given so carefully to your wants at that time.

There are several boys and girls who have asked to be placed in homes where they can work for their board and who have not yet secured such places. One boy wants a place where he can milk, tend a horse, help with the heavy house work, go on errands and keep a lawn. Another will clean out an office, build fires, answer telephone calls or run errands. A girl who can do most kinds of work in a kitchen wants a place where she can have a comfortable home and study at night. Another girl would like a place where she can take care of children. If you can use such persons to advantage you can help out some boy or girl who wants an education had enough to work for it. Call up the Superintendent. Phone 100.
