THAT this is proving a decided quiet campaign is admitted by the managers of both parties; not only is there a lack of enthusiasm, but the "sinews of war" are slow coming in. The democrats say that so far they have received $200,000 and the republicans claim less Mallory is quite a rhymster. than that amount. These amounts are small for even the legitimate expenses expense of placing "spell-binders" in the field.

IF Mr. Gompers succeeds in deliver_ ing all the labor vote into the democratic fold, Taft will not carry a single state, for fourteen million men in the United States are laborers, though they don't all wear a particular brand. In this general acceptance of laboring man, the farmer is classed with the section, or with the man who grinds out copy for a newspaper.
