Geo. A. McDill, international secretary of the railroad Y. M. C. A., stopped over in town a few hours last evening while enroute to Pocatello, Idaho, and met in conference with the board of directors of the local association. As a result of this meeting, the association will take on a new lease of life, and a prosperous future is in store for it.

Mr. McDill stated that he had made definite arrangements for a billiard and pool table, and these will be received as soon as certain repairs are made to the rooms, and these repairs will be made in the immediate future. A call was also extended to a gentleman in South Cumberland, Md., to come here as secretary, and it is known that he will accept the call. This gentleman has had six years experience in association work, and the association with which he has been connected is one of the most successful in the country. He is a man of about twenty-six years, and is married. The directors have made the necessary arrangements to pay off the indebtedness of the association. All will therefore conclude that the future of the association is bright.

IN THE DISTRICT COURT OF THE UNITED STATES FOR THE DISTRICT OF NEBRASKA, NORTH PLATTE DIVISION.

In the matter of the Estate of Cloa Louella Loudon trading under the name and as the sole proprietor of the U. S. Grocery Company. Bankrupt. Involuntary Petition. Case No. 3

ORDER FOR SALE OF PROPERTY. At North Platte, in said District, on this 14th day of November, 1908, before Walter V. Hoagland, Referee in Bankruptcy.

This cause came on for hearing before the Referee upon the petition and application of Edward S. Davis, trustee of the bankrupt herein, for an order for the sale of the bankrupt's property herein at public auction, and upon consideration whereof it is ordered

1. That the trustee sell at once for the best price obtainable all of the perishable property from the stock of goods belonging to said estate.

2. It is further ordered that the trustee expose for sale at public auction to the highest bidder for cash at the building in North Platte, Nebraska, lately occupied by the bankrupt herein with its stock of goods, on Tuesday, the first day of December, 1908, at 2 o'clock p. m., all of the remaining assets of said estate excepting the book accounts belonging to said estate; said sale to be subject to the approval of the court at a hearing to be had before the Referee in said matter December 1st, 1908, at 4 o'clock p. m.

It is further directed that a copy of this order be mailed to each of the creditors and other parties interested in the bankrupt's estate herein at least ten days prior to the date of said sale, and that the trustee advertise said sale at least ten days prior to the date thereof and give such other notice as he may deem advisable.

W. V. HOAGLAND, Referee in Bankruptcy.

ORDER OF HEARING ON PETITION. State of Nebraska, County of Lincoln. In the County Court November 16th, 1908. In the matter of the estate of John T. Harshfield, deceased.

Reading and filing the petition of John A. Harshfield praying that the administration of said estate may be disposed with. Ordered, That December 8, 1908, at 9 o'clock a. m., is assigned for hearing said petition when all persons interested in said matter may appear at a County Court to be held in and for said County, and show cause why the prayer of petitioner should not be granted. This notice is published for three successive publications in the North Platte Tribune prior to December 8, 1908.

W. C. ELDER, County Judge.
