Marriage licenses were issued Thursday to Harry O. Williams and Nora Earp, of North Platte, J. E. Pile and Dessie Newman of North Platte and to Henry Litz of North Platte and Emma Wilson of Echo.

“Little Johnny Jones” was presented to an audience Saturday night that more than filled the seating capacity of The Keith and the receipts of the evening were the largest in the history of the show business in North Platte. The play, in all respects, was undoubtedly the best of its kind ever seen in town. Many out-of-town people were present.

Mrs. W. L. Carey, of Omaha, is the guest of relatives in town.

Mrs. F. J. Dentler and daughter, of Denver, are guests of relatives in town.

Mrs. Gus Chamberlain and little son, who had been visiting relatives in town returned to Denver yesterday.

Rev. R. B. Favoright went to Wellfleet Sunday and assisted in the dedication services of the new Baptist church.

The Baptist church was again crowded to its utmost Sunday evening and eight persons announced a desire to lead a new life. At the close of the service five persons were baptized.

F. H. Thompson left Christmas night for Omaha where he will take treatment for sciatica rheumatism, with which he has been troubled more or less for several years.

The stork visited the Trustee's Addition for the first time yesterday afternoon and deposited a nine pound girl at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. E. Shuman. Best wishes are extended to mother, father and daughter.

Mrs. S. A. Bowers, of this city, received the sad news Saturday that her brother, Frank DeLor had been killed in the Omaha railroad yards, in which he was employed as switchman.

Dr. C. M. Headrick, Physician to the Sanitarium department of the Hastings City Hospital, will visit North Platte, Wednesday, January 6th; office at Pacific hotel. All chronic diseases treated by modern successful methods. Consultation and examination free.

Miss Maggie Barker and Miss Lundgren, of Denver, have been guests of Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Healey for several days.

C. A. Howe has been visiting friends in York county for several days, leaving for that county the day before Christmas.

Mrs. O. W. Neale and son spent Christmas at the Banks' home, and are now guests at the home of Mrs. Neale's parents on the north side.

The Lutheran aid society announced for Thursday afternoon has been postponed one week. No meeting of any kind will be held by the society this week.

Sixteen additional members have been secured since the publication of last Tuesday's Tribune, making a total of forty-four since the coming of the new secretary.

In order to properly place the pool and billiard tables, through the kind permission of M. Keith Neville, the location of the shower bath has been changed and a large arch has been cut between two of the back rooms.

The furniture kindly donated through the efforts of the international committee has arrived and been unpacked. It is fine, consisting of six mission rockers, three game tables and an elegant couch. The secretary will greatly appreciate it if the men of North Platte will come up and inspect this handsome donation.

The pool and billiard tables and rubber matting have arrived and will be placed in a few days. SECRETARY.

Five applicants for membership in the Elks were favorably received last evening. Two of these are residents of this city, two live at Ogalalla and the other at Gothenburg. The membership of the local lodge is growing without stimulation on the part of the members.
