TWENTY-FIFTH YEAR. NORTH PLATTE, NEBRASKA, MARCH 5, 1909. NO. 12

TOWN AND COUNTY NEWS

Miss Villa Whittaker, who had been in Omaha for several weeks, returned home yesterday.

Judge Elder united in marriage Tuesday evening Edward M. Fox and Clara M. Helmcamp both of Garfield precinct.

The sale of the stock and farm machinery by W. H. Turpie Tuesday was well attended and the property as a rule sold well.

Rob Finney, who had been in Omaha for some time receiving treatment for his injured back, returned home the early part of the week.

One thousand dollars has been subscribed for the erection of a Presbyterian church at Lisco, one of the new towns on the North River branch.

Ex-Supt. Anderson, of the Wyoming division, accompanied by Mrs. Anderson, left Cheyenne Tuesday for Long Beach, Cal., where they will remain for several months.

The Omaha Bee's Washington correspondent announced the arrival in Washington on Tuesday of "Major" Bullard and Arthur McNamara, of North Platte. The title of "Major" is likely to now cling to F. E.

A bad washout occurred on the Union Pacific Tuesday night at North Bend and train No. 11 did not reach here until late in the afternoon. The damage was repaired Wednesday and yesterday's trains were on time.

The sale of thoroughbred Shorthorn cattle at Watts and Sons ranch Wednesday was not as largely attended as was expected. A number of head were, however, sold, some at very fair figures, other at prices below their real value.

In a recent interview E. H. Harriman stated that the people of the country through which his roads pass need not expect any extensions during the present year. This is due, Mr. Harriman says, to the unsettled business conditions of the country.

Among the callers at this office Wednesday was F. A. Johnson the Wellfleet cruggist. Frank was at one time a resident of North Platte, going to Wellfleet about twenty years ago. He has prospered in that village and owns a considerable tract of land in that section.

W. C. McKeown assumed the superintendency of the Wyoming division Monday and his first official act was to announce the appointment of H. J. Roth as assistant superintendent. Mr. Roth's family will remain in town until after the close of school.

H. B. Sanderson, living south of Sutherland, made this office a call Tuesday. Two years ago he located on a tract of land and subsequently purchased another quarter. His crop last year brought him sufficient money to build a frame house, a barn to shelter his horses, fence the land, and make other improvements.

John H. Day and wife and son Dave were called to Denver yesterday by the death of Mr. Day's niece, Miss Loretta Hockenburger, daughter of Ed Hockenburger a well known engineer. The deceased was well known by a number of North Platte young people, having visited here about a year ago.

Drink Mogul Coffee.

T. E. Heskett, who is engaged in sheep raising north of Sutherland, called at this office while in town Tuesday. Mr. Heskett held his last year's wool crop until a short time ago, and by doing so received seventeen cents per pound, whereas last summer and fall the price was but twelve. The clip from Mr. Heskett's sheep average about six and one-half pounds each.

The city council held a brief session Tuesday evening, but little business being transacted. The street commissioner was instructed to ascertain the cost of moving the First ward hose house from its present location to the rear of the Murphy lot on Front street, and the matter of the refund of the county jail sewer tax was referred to the sewer committee.

There arrived in town Wednesday evening Prof. Alfredo Battelli and Eng. Adolph Schneider, two foreign journalists, who are making a trip around the world on foot. They left New York October 7th. At San Francisco they will be joined by Silvio Ortonas, a French journalist, and Albert Wilcox, an American writer. These men are making the tour for scientific research and an investigation of existing political, social and industrial conditions, which will be embraced in a series of publications. We acknowledge a call from Prof. Battelli, whom we found to be an interesting talker.

J. W. Rowland was given employment in the tinshop Tuesday.

Mrs. M. H. Douglas has been the guest of friends in Omaha for a few days.

Miss Loretta Erhard left yesterday for a few days visit with friends in Omaha.

I. W. Heist, of Maxwell, was in town yesterday making final proof on his homestead.

J. H. Rowland, lately living near Maxwell, has moved to a farm he recently purchased southwest of town in the Montague neighborhood.

Engineer C. W. Baskin has been off duty for some time on account of sciatica rheumatism. The trouble is, however, yielding to treatment.

W. L. Cary, of Omaha, has been in town for several days, coming here on account of the illness of Mrs. C. T. Whelan.

Mrs. Eugene Schipfer, who had been a guest at the Seiberger residence, left for her home in Sigourney, Iowa, Wednesday.

Prof. Leonhardt, the piano tuner, will visit North Platte about March 12th. He expected to be here this week but was called to Chicago on business matters.

The home of W. T. Wilcox has been quarantined for several days on account of the development of a light case of diphtheria, the youngest daughter being the patient.

All regular services next Lord's day in the Christian church. Bible school 10 a. m., preaching both morning and evening. Everybody invited. Accommodations for all. Always plenty of room here. L. C. SWAN, Pastor.

Miss Russell, who for thirty years has been connected with a school of women at Nagasaki, Japan, is a guest of her nephew, Rev. Chas. F. Chapman, while enroute to Ohio. Miss Russell is nearly eighty years of age, and is making the trip from Japan alone.

J. W. Vanderhoof has purchased two lots of Keith Neville at the corner of Third and Cottonwood streets and is figuring with a contractor for the erection of a residence. It is probable that Ed Vanderhoof will also build a residence on one of the lots.

There will be a regular meeting of the B. P. O. Elks next Monday evening, and as there will be several candidates for initiation a large attendance of members is desired, Monday evening, March 22d, the annual election of officers will be held.

Among the North Platte people who attended the inaugural ceremonies at Washington yesterday were Miss Clara Rankin and Helen Jeter, who left for that city Saturday. They will visit at the national capital for several weeks and enroute home will stop over with friends in Indiana.

Ed. Ewell, of the Grand Island sugar factory, has been in the Hershey and Sutherland sections this week making beet contracts for the coming season. The company would like to secure 2,000 acres in this county this year, but Mr. Ewell does not know at this time whether he will be able to secure that amount.

Rev. George Williams, of Lexington, who spent Tuesday in town, has practically accepted the call extended by the Presbyterian church of this city, and will probably begin his duties about April 15th. Rev. Williams was favorably impressed with North Platte and we can assure him that those of our people whom he met were favorably impressed with him.

Baptist Church.

Full and attentive audiences greeted the pastor again last Sunday. In the presence of as large a congregation as the house would hold, one more person was baptized Sunday night. A deep and intense revival interest prevailed. On Wednesday night forty-five persons gathered and twenty-six different ones took part in the mid-week service. If possible this was the best yet of the many good meetings of the church for prayer and conference. A general discussion of family worship took place and it was found that this service is maintained in many of the homes. Another good day is expected next Sunday. Much deep interest prevails and people are just at the point of decision. All who are interested in higher and better things are invited to all of the services.

It Saved His Leg.

"All thought I'd lose my leg," writes J. A. Swenson, Watertown, Wis., "Ten years of eczema, that 15 doctors could not cure, had at last laid me up. Then Bucklen's Arnica Salve cured it sound and well." Infallible for Skin Eruption, Eczema, Salt Rheum, Boils, Fever Sores, Burns, Scalds, Cuts and Piles. 25c at Stone's Drug Store.

Dales and Geiger Plead Guilty.

Lafayette Dales, under indictment for the murder of Volly Mann on October 6th at a point near Dexter Siding, appeared in the district court at Ogallala Tuesday and was allowed by Judge Grimes to plead guilty to murder in the second degree. He was given a life sentence by Judge Grimes.

Mrs. Jennie Geiger, who is also implicated in the murder of Mann, through her attorney Albert Muldoon, filed a petition for a continuance to enable them to obtain further testimony relative to the sanity of the woman. Muldoon read to the court letters from officials in asylums in New York state which set forth the woman is an incurable and has escaped from the asylum several times and that she was unable to distinguish between right and wrong and that this defect or disability has existed from her birth. Judge Grimes overruled the motion for a continuance and sentenced her to thirty-nine years in the penitentiary.

"The Grand Duchess."

The National Opera Company will present "The Grand Duchess" at the Keith next Monday evening, March 8th. This popular offering was presented in Deadwood, S. D., February 23, and the Daily Pioneer-Times in speaking of the production, said in part:

It was a thoroughly pleased and appreciative audience that witnessed the presentation of Offenbach's "The Grand Duchess," at the Deadwood theatre last night. It is a comic opera of a decidedly superior quality, full of tuneful music, ample opportunity for chorus work and numerous chances for the display of individual ability. The prima donna, Miss Ethel Balch, is an artist of versatile talents. She has not only a beautifully clear and sweet soprano voice of excellent quality, but she is gifted with unusual dramatic ability. She has evidently been trained under the most exacting conditions and has a finish that gives her work a classic smoothness.

Beats All Records.

More moisture fell last month than during any February since establishing the weather bureau in 1875. The total for the month was one and sixty-one one hundredths of an inch. The average for the month is forty-nine one hundredths of an inch, and the nearest approach to last month was 1.29 inches in 1903 and 1.38 in 1883. The excess of precipitation since January first, as compared with the yearly average, is ninety-nine one hundredths of an inch.

Kosbau Found Guilty.

Henry Kosbau, who was arrested last week on the charge of stealing a cake of soap from the toilet room at the court house, had his trial Tuesday afternoon before a jury and found guilty. He was assessed a fine and the costs of the case, the whole amounting to $32.95. He was given twenty-four hours to secure a bond for the amount or the money.

Land Sales.

The Lincoln County Land Co. has sold to Otto Weideranders the west half of section 7-10-27 for a consideration of $2,734.40.

A deed has been filed which conveys from the Union Realty & Trust Co. to Peter Bergman section 31-13-30, for the sum of $9,600.

For Sale—At a reasonable price, good new five room house and bath. All rooms large. Lawn, shade trees started; two lots and house on the corner lot. 302 So. Chesnut and C. Sts.

Card of Thanks.

We desire to express our gratitude and thanks to those neighbors and members of the Ladies of the Macca-bees and Degree of Honor for the kindness shown, assistance rendered, and floral offerings during the sickness and at the funeral of the late Mrs. James Weidman.

JAMES WEIDMAN,
JAMES MCGOVERN and Family.

Near Death In Big Pond.

It was a thrilling experience to Mrs. Ida Soper to face death. "For years a severe lung trouble gave me intense suffering," she writes, "and several times nearly caused my death. All remedies failed and doctors said I was incurable. Then Dr. King's New Discovery brought quick relief and a cure so permanent that I have not been troubled in twelve years." Mrs. Soper lives in Big Pond, Pa. It works wonders in Coughs and Colds, Sore Lungs, Hemorrhages, LaGrippe, Asthma, Croup, Whooping Cough and all Bronchial affections. 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free. Guaranteed by Stone's drug store.
