Prof. Burr, government soil expert at the experimental sub-station, returned this morning from a month's visit in Washington, D. C., and Lincoln, Neb.

Your furniture needs varnishing and repairing before house cleaning. See P. M. Sorenson, shop 107 E. 5th St.
Co. Supt. Ebright, visited thirteen schools while in the southeast part of the county last week and found the teachers doing very satisfactory work. A number of the six-month schools are now closing.

Wanted pure bred white Plymouth rock cockerel. Address L. Macey, North Platte.

The Catholic ladies will give a 10 cent social on Wednesday, March 17, St. Patrick's day, at the home of Mrs. J. I. Smith. Aprons on sale during afternoon with special lunch in the evening from 5 to 7:30.

The ladies of the Episcopal guild will aim to collect and ship to Chicago a carload of old magazines, books and papers. Parties having such, and desiring to aid the guild in earning money, will please phone 331 or 393 and a wagon will call.

The attention of the public is invited to the new line of stationery at Rinker's Book Store.

A local resident has been asked by the American Wireless Telegraph Company to become its resident agent. With the solicitation is the statement that North Platte will be one of the twelve stations to be established west of the Missouri river this summer.

The Ideal Shirt in the latest spring fabrics.

THE HUB CLOTHING DEPT.

"Jack" Peysar, of Omaha, is visiting friends in town. He was formerly on the road for a clothing house, but is now looking for an opening in business of some kind. He is favorably impressed with North Platte's present and its future.

For Sale—Residence Property. Nine room house, good lawn, sidewalks, fences, good barn and other out buildings. All new. Splendid home. Inquire of L. C. Swan or call at 7:20 W. 2nd St.

A special train will be run to Keystone tomorrow morning for the accommodation of those who desire to attend the Paxton sale of personal property.

For Rent—Eight room house with modern improvements. Inquire of E. A. Cary.
The Professor's Melody is the name of the play to be given in the Keith Theatre next Friday evening. It is a three act comedy under the auspices of the High School.

Talking of base ball, why not organize a city league of three teams, hang up a purse of $200 or $300, have a series of ten games with each team and at the end of the season the team having the highest percentage to take the purse?
For Rent—Furnished rooms. Mrs. W. S. Leon, 320 So. Dewey.

We serve our own best interest by recommending the most reliable line to our customers and that is Brandegee Kincaid & Co. hand tailored clothes, the spring line now ready for your inspection. We show nothing but the newest, modest and striking patterns. A few moments of your time would be appreciated.

Yours for business,
THE HUB CLOTHING DEPT.

Miss Helen May Allen, who is training the players in the High School play, is a graduate of the Boston School of Expression and has been a student in the New York Dramatic School. She was Dean of the Department of Oratory and Physical Culture in Highland Park College for three years and has taught Expression in Boston. Miss Allen comes to us highly recommended and is doing good work with the pupils under her charge. Keith Theatre Friday, March 19, 1909.

Wanted—Pupils in piano instruction. Miss Mary Strahorn, 109 West Second.

Superintendent Charles Ware of the Union Pacific has written to the state railway commission stating arrangements have been made which he thinks will insure freight service to points north of Columbus, Grand Island, Kearney and west on the main line to North Platte, satisfactory to the Lincoln jobbers who have been complaining of delayed shipments to this territory. Delay was caused by the agent not loading to conform with the freight schedules.

See our spring display of genuine Alligator Hand Bags; direct from Florida. Dixon, The Jeweler.
Arthur McNamara and F. E. Bullard returned last night from their trip to Florida, Havana, Washington and New York and report a most enjoyable jaunt. Mr. McNamara was favorably impressed with the south and especially Havana, which for "high life" is only surpassed by "dear old Broadway." In Washington they were for the greater part of the time the guests of Alex. Stewart and were royally entertained. In New York they were met by Len Graves and entertained by him for several days. They were present at the inaugural at Washington and were given a commanding position by Senator Burkett.

Wanted to Buy.
300 bushels Kherson oats, some milch cows, brood sows and chickens. Address or phone D. A. Goodrich, on the Wallace ranch, R. F. D., North Platte.

Ladies and Misses spring suits and jackets at "The Leader"

Lost—On February 27th between Myrtle and North Platte, a suit case. Finder leave at this office and receive reward.
The ticket nominated by the republican convention last evening ought to suit everybody. It is composed of good men and democrats as well as republicans are recognized in its composition. In city politics partisanship seems to be cutting less figure each year.

Rev. W. H. Kerns, synodical missionary, will conduct services at the Presbyterian church next Sabbath morning and evening. A good attendance of the congregation is desired. A special annual offering will be taken in the morning for Home and Foreign Missions.

Minnie Carr filed her petition in the district court yesterday praying for a divorce from her husband J. R. Carr on the grounds of extreme cruelty; that at divers times she was beaten and assaulted, and that he used abusive and obscene language. The couple were married in this city February 20th, 1908.

Eight per cent money to loan on real estate. BRATT & GOODMAN.

Miss Helen May Allen, graduate of the Boston School of Expression now coaching for the declamatory contests and High School play may remain in North Platte after her work is finished in the public schools if enough interest is manifest to warrant starting classes and private lessons.
C. C. Hunfer arrived this morning from Ogden and will visit friends for a few days, and incidentally kill a few geese and ducks. Charley has not been in the best of health for a year past, and this writer would not be surprised if he decided to locate in North Platte within the next twelve months.

W. C. Patterson and C. F. Perry went to Bridgeport last night to make preliminary arrangements for a grading contract which they have secured from Kilpatrick Bros. The work consists of ten miles of road bed for the North River branch between Lisco and Bridgeport which was not fully completed by the Kilpatricks.
