

THE
"Mother's Pattern"
Tableware

Is one of the richest and heaviest of the Gorham Silver Co's production. It is graceful in design and perfectly plain, which insures it being easily kept brightly polished. We are showing it in:

- | | |
|------------------|----------------|
| Knives and Forks | Honey Spoons |
| Dessert Spoons | Cream Dippers |
| Table Spoons | Gravy Dippers |
| Tea Spoons | Bon-Bon Spoons |

And all other pieces necessary to set the table tastefully.

Displayed in our show windows. Let us quote you our prices.

Kelley Bound Over.

John P. Kelley, former manager of U. S. Grocery Co., was bound over to the district court by Judge Elder yesterday afternoon on the charge of grand larceny. Unable to furnish the $500 bond, he was remanded to jail.

The crime with which Kelly is charged is the theft of a cash register valued at $200, which disappeared about the time the grocery company went into involuntary bankruptcy. Later the register was found in a barn, and evidence was secured that indicated that Kelly, with the assistance of others, had removed the register at midnight and secreted it in the barn. However, at the bankruptcy proceedings Kelly testified that he knew nothing about the disappearance of the register, and following his evidence a warrant was issued from the federal court charging him with perjury as a witness. He was later apprehended at Cheyenne, taken to Omaha and bound over to the January, 1910, term of the federal court. His father came out from the east and gave a cash bond of $1,000 to keep his son from spending the intervening time in jail.

In the meantime a warrant charging Kelly with the theft of the register was issued, but no special effort to find him was made. Kelly, however, arrived in town the latter part of last week, and his arrested and preliminary hearing followed.

Ex-Governor Poynter Dies.

Ex-Governor W. A. Poynter of Nebraska dropped dead in the office of Governor Shallenberger yesterday following a talk in favor of the 8 o'clock closing law for saloons.

The former governor had talked briefly and then stepped back into the crowd and Mrs. Frances B. Heald had started her talk in favor of the measure. Suddenly the ex-governor began to breathe hard and then gradually collapsed, those close to him catching him as he fell.

Still breathing he was carried across the corridor to the office of the adjutant general, where he died immediately, living probably five minutes from the time he was stricken.

Drs. Birkman and Carr, who were present at the hearing, waited upon the stricken man, but could do nothing for him.

No Action on Closing Bill.

Following the tragic death of ex-Governor Poynter in his office yesterday morning, Governor Shallenberger closed the office to the large crowds that were in Lincoln for and against the daylight saloon bill and admitted only special committees selected from these delegations to speak for them. The governor will probably take some action on the bill either today or tomorrow.

Just received! Some genuine Maple syrup from H. D. Bowen, a former resident of this county, made by himself on his farm at Middlefield, Ohio, and shipped direct to us.

Lincoln on Proof.

I suggest to him (Judge Douglas) that it will not avail him at all that he swells himself up, takes on dignity and calls people liars. * * * If you have ever studied geometry you remember that by a course of reasoning Euclid proves that all the angles in a triangle are equal to two right angles. Euclid has shown you how to work it out. Now, if you undertake to disprove that proposition and to show that it is erroneous would you prove it to be false by calling Euclid a liar?

He Understood.

"Now, Johnny, do you understand thoroughly why I am going to whip you?"
"Yes'm. You're in a bad humor this morning, and you've got to lick some one before you feel satisfied."—London Tit-Bits.
