

THE "Mother's Pattern" Tableware

Is one of the richest and heaviest of the Gorham Silver Co's production. It is graceful in design and perfectly plain, which insures it being easily kept brightly polished. We are showing it in:

- Knives and Forks
- Dessert Spoons
- Table Spoons
- Tea Spoons
- Honey Spoons
- Cream Dippers
- Gravy Dippers
- Bon-Bon Spoons

And all other pieces necessary to set the table tastefully.

Displayed in our show windows. Let us quote you our prices.

EASTER SERVICES.

METHODIST CHURCH.

Easter day will be observed at the Methodist Episcopal church next Sabbath as follows: The pastor will preach an Easter sermon in the morning. At the close of the morning service the annual collection for foreign missions will be taken. At the time of the evening service the choir, assisted by some friends, will render the very beautiful cantata "The Great Light." There will be a chorus of about twenty-five voices. All are cordially invited. Morning service 11:00, evening service 7:30. Sunday school at 9:45 a. m. Special collection for missions. Each member of the school will be given an Easter remembrance. Epworth League at 6:30 p. m.

CHRISTIAN CHURCH.

As Rev. Swan has been delayed in moving to his new field and being in the city over Lord's Day, he has consented to preach at eleven o'clock. Special music. At 7:30 p. m. a beautiful and instructive cantata "Message of the Lillies" will be rendered by the bible school. Don't miss it. A free will offering will be taken for the benevolent work of the church. Bible school at 10 a. m.

BAPTIST CHURCH.

Another member, a lady, was added to the church last Sunday. As the church sat together at the Lord's supper five persons received the right hand of fellowship. Next Sunday will be observed with an appropriate Easter sermon in the morning, the subject will be "An Easter Conspiracy." The choir will render special music; the evening theme will be "Life and Light." A cordial welcome awaits those who choose to worship with us.

LUTHERAN CHURCH.

Services Easter promise to be of special interest and of great impressiveness. The choir will render several special numbers; and the Holy communion will be celebrated at the 10:30 service. The evening service will be under the direction of the Sunday school and will be up to the usual worshipful standard. The offerings of the congregation and Sunday school will be for the benevolence of the church. So far as able to take care of the people we shall be pleased to welcome all who worship with us.
JOHN F. SEIBERT, Pastor.

ST. PATRICK'S CHURCH.

At St. Patrick's church Easter the customary masses will be said at the usual hours, low mass at 8:00 and high mass at 10:30, benediction will follow the latter service. At the 10:30 service the choir will render Marz's mass in F. with solos by Misses Loretta Murphy, Albina Habler and Messrs. Redmond and Keliher, and a duet by Misses Mary Guilianno and Lizzie Weinberger. This mass has not been sung by the choir since Easter, 1900.

EPISCOPAL CHURCH.

On Saturday, Easter Even, there will be an administration of baptism at 4 o'clock. Easter day, early celebration of holy communion at 7:00 o'clock, shortened form of morning prayer, confirmation and celebration of holy communion at 10:00 o'clock. The bishop will be here for his annual visitation to administer the apostolic rite of confirmation and this service will be particularly interesting and helpful. All are cordially invited and we will try to arrange for seating all who come. Special offerings at the Easter services and special music. Processional Hymn, "Come ye Faithful, Raise the Strain"—Nevens. Christ, Our Passover—Chapel. Te Deum—Kingsbury. Offertory Anthem—"By the Thron Way of Sorrow"—Schnecker. Gloria in Excelsis. (plain chant) Children's Easter rally in the evening at 7:30. All the children expected promptly.
