

BEAUTY IN JEWELRY

Silverware in abundance—everything needed for the table—carving sets, knives, forks, etc. We really offer remarkable values in the silverware line, and we can easily prove our statement. Come in and see the assortment.

Jewelry—Watch the articles in my window display. See how they glisten and glitter. No wonder they make the most acceptable gifts. And I call your attention that I have received very nice assortments of goods in the line of watches, clocks and jewelry, and every thing you may purchase will carry my guarantee of quality. You will find it far more satisfactory to buy where you can depend upon the jewelry you select for a very reasonable price, than to purchase where high price is the sole recommendation.

Let us show you some of our latest arrivals in spring jewelry.
